"KLONDIKE" IS DESERTED.

Former Busy Wood on Meacham Creek No Longer Active.

"Klondike," the new wood started three years ago by R. E. Porter, of Meacham, on his timber land between Meacham and Huron, is almost deserted this winter.

For the past two years it has been the center of the cord wood industry of the Blue mountains. It is estimated that 30,000 cords of wood has been shipped out of that camp and some of this wood was run down the most precipitous bluffs in the mountains, through "chutes." As many as 30 men have been employed in handling the wood output of "Klondike," beside the choppers.

The first experiment with Japanese as wood choppers in the Blue mountains was tried at this camp in 1901. A gang of 50 was put at work in the timber on the steep hill sides and from all accounts of the experiment they were very successful choppers.

A spur was put in by the O. R. & N. at the "Klondike" camp and it was a very busy scene for two years. This winter there is not much doing at the camp and the activity is confined to the summer months.

Huron is taking the lead this winter as the wood camp of the Blue mountains. There are now 25 men employed there, getting out wood. The supply of good wood near Huron has never been "cutted," owing to the rough nature of the country to haul over. Allen's Spur, Meacham, Kamela and Spring Spur are all very busy and the amount of wood on the dump at all these camps is one-third greater than last year.

Gone to Tacoma.

Howard Elliott, the new president of the Northern Pacific, did not come to this city over the W. & C. R., on his tour of inspection, as was expected, but has gone on to Tacoma from Walla Walla, where he was last night. Mr. Elliott, with a special train, is making a tour of all of the lines of the Northern Pacific and it had been planned for him to come to Pendleton, but for some reason the plans were changed.

Will Improve Lehman Springs.

C. R. Dutton, has returned from Lehman Springs and will spend the winter here. In the spring Mr. Dutton will make some very extensive improvements in his popular summer resort and will be better prepared than ever to care for the wants of his patrons. During the past season Lehman Springs made a very favorable impression on all who visited it and established a name that means large patronage next year.

Resignation Filed.

Owing to a lack of important business to come before the body there was no meeting of the city council last evening. Three of the members came to the hall, and after sitting around for a time went home. Outside of the resignation of Councilman Sommerville there was but little that could be considered had the council met.

W. A. Crank of Spokane, who was formerly connected with the White House store of that city, has been secured to have charge of the dry goods department at the St. Joe store. NEEDS A GREAMERY

PENDLETON BEST OPENING IN THE STATE.

Commercial Cream Company, of Salem, Would Build Here if Fifty Milk Patrons Were Guaranteed—All Butter Now Used is Imported.

George D. Goodhue, representative of the Commercial Cream Company, of Salem, and also of the DeLavel Cream Separator, is in the city today en route from Lewiston to Walla Walla county, where he goes to look after creamery interests.

Mr. Goodhue is one of the most practical creamery men in the Northwest, and is interested in the development of that industry, wherever there is an opening. He has looked over the field in Umatilla county, and is convinced that there is the best opening for a creamery in Pendleton of any point in the state at this time, if the people owning cows would furnish milk to supply such an institution.

He announced this morning that his company would build and operate a first-class creamery in this city if the people of Umatilla county would guarantee them 50 milk patrons to start with.

The fact that Pendleton consumes about 300,000 pounds of butter annually, and imports the entire supply from outside points, is one convincing argument in favor of a home institution of this kind. There is no other place in the Northwest so well supplied with natural facilities for the creamery business as Umatilla county. The foothills of Weston mountain, and the entire length of Meacham creek and Umatilla river all have abundant grass and water supply, and furnish unequalled opportunity for this industry.

Mr. Goodhue will keep in touch with Pendleton and will look upon this city as one of the most promising openings for a first-class creamery in the state, and if sufficient interest can be aroused among the farmers owning cows, to justify the establishment of such an institution here, he will be glad to begin negotiations.

Union county has supported one of the most prosperous small creameries in the state for the past three or four years, and this season the income to the farmers from ordinary cows has reached as high as $10 per month per head.

ON MISSION WORK.

Rev. B. F. Harper of Pendleton in the interior of Oregon.

Rev. J. K. MacGillivray and Rev. B. F. Harper departed Wednesday for Burns after preaching six sermons in Long Creek, says the Long Creek Light. They have an appointment for that place Sunday and will install Rev. A. J. Irwin pastor.

These men are Presbyterian Sunday school missionaries for Eastern Oregon, the former residing at Goldendale, Washington, and the latter at Pendleton.

They are making a circuit of the interior and when they find a town that has no preacher they do what they can toward supplying the place with a minister. On reaching Burns they will write to Elder Booth, of The Dalles, and if the Methodists intend to abandon this field the Presbyterians will take it up.

POLICE COURT.

Marshal Sheer is Presiding—Two Plain Drunks.

In the absence of City Recorder Thomas Fitz Gerald from his office, the duties of the recorder and city marshal are falling to some extent on Marshal Sauer.

This morning two Indians were arrested for drunkenness, and after putting up $5 each as bail to insure their appearance in court when the judge returned, were allowed to go.

B. S. McArthur, the man who had started out on the "Hood's Sarsaparilla" business, with some Umatilla water and a quantity of burnt sugar, and has been living at the city jail for the past five days as a result of having peddled in the city without a license, was released this morning, and it is presumed will open his business in some more appreciative burg.

SPOKANE BACKED OUT.

Neither Will Pendleton Team Attend K. of P. District Convention.

Word has been received in the city that the Spokane team of the Knights of Pythias cannot attend the district convention in Dayton on Tuesday, November 24, and therefore the team from this city will not attend the convention. The convention extended an invitation to the lodge of Pendleton to bring a team from this city to compete with a team from Spokane, but for some reason the Washington team has declined to be present after all arrangements were made.

It is possible that a few of the lodge members from this city will attend the convention, though there will be no concerted attempt to visit it.

"THE LITTLE OUTCAST."

A Good Strong Play That Was Appreciated by a Large Audience.

"The Little Outcast" was played to a good house last night at the Frazer, and was appreciated by every one of the audience. The funny parts were funny, and the pathetic scenes were handled in a way that made more than one tender-hearted woman hunt for her handkerchief. Miss May Stockton, as Little Bob, the newsboy, was the favorite of the evening and her portrayal of the life and the feelings of the street gamblers of the large city brought frequent applause from the house. The part of Paul Weston, the man who was wronged, was taken by Stanley Johns and was one of the strong pieces of the evening, as was the part of Madeleine, his wife.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

By the Elks, December 6—Possibly in the Christian Church.

The Elks of the city are making preparations for their annual memorial services, which will be held on the first Sunday of December. It is thought that the services will be held this year in the Christian church provided the rostrum can be arranged for the occasion.

The time of the service will be about 4 o'clock in the afternoon of December 6, and will consist of the regular ritual of the order, a memorial address by some member of the lodge from a distance, and some special music.

WILL HAVE OPPOSITION.

Petition for C. E. Roosevelt for Water Commissioner.

The beginning of the first, and so far the only, fight in the city election was made yesterday when a petition was circulated asking C. E. Roosevelt to allow his name to be placed in nomination for water commissioner. The petition was circulated yesterday and today, and it is understood to be strongly supported. Unless other candidates spring up for the various places to be filled on the council this will be the only office for which there is more than one aspirant.

Woman in Jail Ten Times.

Mrs. Effie Winandy, who has been in jail in Spokane, 10 times during the past summer, for drunkenness, is again in the toils of the law for biting, kicking and scratching an officer, and will spend 60 days there repenting her folly. She has a husband at Northport, Washington, but stays in jail more than she lives with him.

California's Monstrous Crawfish.

A huge crawfish resembling a baby whale in size will be exhibited by Santa Barbara county, California, at the world's fair. The crawfish was caught recently in a trap which was set in the channel a short distance off shore from San Louis Obispo, Cal. In length it measures exactly thirty-seven and one-half inches, from the end of the tail to the end of the "feelers." The fish is twenty inches around the head and weighs eighteen pounds. Unable to withstand the change of surroundings, the crawfish died shortly after being taken from the water. A large metal box is being made in which to keep him while on exhibition at the fair. Sixteen gallons of alcohol will be required to preserve the fish.

Manhood or Machinery.

The wonders which mechanical appliances, and indeed, with almost all forms of machinery, have achieved; the greater cheapness and the greater consumption which have followed upon this, are increased incentives to trade and commerce which have been a result of both; these, it must be owned, have dazzled the eyes and blinded the judgment of men as to their effects upon that which is more precious than machinery, or manufactures, or wealth, of national expansion, and that is manhood; and especially to the well-being of that vast majority of the race which, under the most civilized conditions of life, must always mainly earn its bread with its hands.—Bishop Potter.
