Especially at the ed by being elected vice-president of high school was the life of the school children strenuous, for the ice-coated walks and ground made it a serious undertaking for any one to get up the hill.

The dignity of the teachers was enda geree, and in one or two in-stances both that and their equilib-rium were lost on the trip up the walk from Main street, much to the delight of the audience of small boys and girls,

Carpets were laid from the front entrance of the high school to the gateway in order sunt the pupils could get into the building. As a re-sult of the sleet, the list of "tardies" was a long one, and several of the fectual efforts to get up the hill on time when the last bell rang.

W. & C. R. IMPROVEMENTS. Roadbed in Excellent Condition, for Winter Season,

W. C. Marion, we roadmaster of the W. & C. R., was in the city yes-terday for a short visit in the inter-ests of the road. Mr. starion has had a large force of men on the roadbed of the W. & C. R. this summer and still has a good number at work. The entire right of way has been taken care of and as a result the line is in the best of shape for the win-ter season and no trouble is expect-ed at any place on the grade when ed at any place on the grade when wet weather comes.

New bridges have been put in at several places along the line and two large steel structures have been thrown across the streams. New ballast has been put in, new ties and and a general overhauling of the system has been made.

Stole an Overcoat. A. H. Carrey was arrested yesterday charged with the larceny of an overcoat, the property of Harry Wright, and was locked up in the county jail. Both of the men were drinking in one of the saloons of the city and the defendant put on the coat of the complaining witness and wore it off. He was arrested and placed in jail, but now Wright does not want to prosecute, claiming that the coat was taken in a joke and that there was no intention on the part of the prisoner to steal. An informa-tion will be filed against him this afternoon by the district attorney.

Injured at Foundry,

William Clove, of the Rigby-Clove foundry, is carrying a badly mashed thumb with him and will not have the use of his right hand for some time. While working with a machine in the foundry he caught the thumb between two neavy steel rollers and before he could get loose the end of the thumb was mashed to a pulp. Dr. Cole dressed the hurt and it will cause no serious inconvenience.
