will not be the identifying "bush" that Moses saw in the wilderness. It is a world's fair. But there is little doubt that it is identical with the "burning bush" spoken of in Holy Writ, for as known it is the only one of its kind.

Reports from London from an English botanist distinguish the hot and arid plains of the remarkable shrub that can be found in the "burning bush" described by Moses. The shrub procured the wonderful effect caused it to be conveyed to the Kew Gardens on the north side of London.

W. Taylor, chief of agriculture and horticulture has compared the specimen of the plant at the Universal Exposition, to the specimen at Kew. The authorities believe it is possible this wonderful plant. In the event that the specimen at Kew will be successful, Mr. Hadkinson will be shown on the north side of the hill, near the great floral

English and French who have seen the shrub, it is identical with the "burning bush" which Moses saw at the time without being aware of it. The discovery of the specimen is accepted by the students as confirming Moses' account and throwing light on one of the most famous of the Old Testament miracles.

At Kew has attained a height of about six feet. It possesses remarkable property of exhalation of inflammable gas from its leaves, on being approached it takes fire and burns for a few moments. The flowers remain uninjured by the gas as it is blazed because of its inflammable nature.

hot deserts of Arabia, where it naturally grew more vigorously than at Kew, a larger quantity of gas was exhaled and the plants of the sun, it is said, often wither.

appearance the "burning bush" suggests an arid, sterile habit. The leaves are of a dull, sage-green, the foliage dense, and a pale pink-tinted blossom appears at the end of a long and slender stalk. The plant has a scientific name and so far as the specimen at Kew is concerned, it is in existence.

not generally known, but it is nevertheless, that numerous give forth gases in a small quantity. This is especially notable in the valley and of the sweet. The blossoms of the plants exhale the fumes of acetic acid by night, and all throw off carbonic acid gas.

By a Decree of the Government.

Mexico, Nov. 20.—The Mexican government has recently ordered the recent order granting the authority to increase freight rates 15 per cent. operative today.

of the railroads to their rates 15 per cent. was by the government because of the high price of exchange which has depreciated the earnings of the railroads. It was understood that the exchange fell below 2.20 the cent. increase of rates would have effect. The increase of rates into effect Sept. 1, and at that time there has been a fall in exchange. The government believes it will continue for some time to come, and therefore, no longer need of the railroads.

OLD TIMES IN TENNESSEE.

When Pelts Were as Plentiful as Pennies in the State.

Probably few people know that the original name of the state of Tennessee was Franklin or that in 1788 the salaries of the officers of this commonwealth were paid in pelts, but the following is a correct copy of the law:

"Be it enacted by the general assembly of the state of Franklin, and it is hereby enacted by authority of the same, that from and after the 1st day of January, 1788, the salaries of this commonwealth be as follows—to wit:

"His excellency the governor, per annum, 100 deerskins.

"His honor the chief justice, 500 deerskins.

"The secretary to his excellency the governor, 500 raccoon skins.

"County clerk, 300 beaver skins.

"Clerk of the house of commons, 200 raccoon skins.

"Justice's fee for serving a warrant, one minkskin."

At that time the state of Franklin extended to the east bank of the Mississippi river, and on the west bank was that great unknown forest region of Louisiana. It was then a "terra incognita," save a few canoe landings and Indian trading posts on the river banks. It was known as the district of Louisiana and in 1805 was made the territory of Louisiana.

The state of Franklin, which became Tennessee in 1796, was almost as little known. The now great city of Memphis was a mere trading post and was not laid out as a village until 1820.

Pelts were as plentiful in those days as pennies and much better distributed for purposes of currency and barter. The pioneers were perhaps as happy and as well contented as is the average citizen now.—Arkansas Gazette.

COOKING HINTS.

Don't add lard, molasses or sugar to bread if you wish to keep well and be wholesome.

Potatoes baked thoroughly, but not allowed to turn dark, are the best to be used for creamed potatoes.

If salad dressing curdles when being mixed, add a little cold water, stir quickly, and it will become quite smooth.

If tea be ground like coffee or crushed immediately before boiling water is poured upon it, it will yield nearly double the amount of its exhilarating qualities.

If a sliced onion and carrot are cooked with veal, it will be found that the flavor of the rather tasteless meat is much improved. Veal cutlets rely for their flavor on the tomato sauce that is usually served with them.

A delightful flavor is sometimes given to steak by placing it overnight in a bath of oil and vinegar. In the morning it is wiped before the broiling, but enough of the mixture has been absorbed to give it a decided flavor.

If in making split pea soup a teaspoonful of whipped cream is put in the tureen just as the soup is poured over, the improvement in flavor of the soup will be noticeable. This puree has sometimes a flat, even watery taste that is not at all agreeable, which the whipped cream entirely removes.

General Grant's Namesake.

A number of years ago a son was born to a colored woman in the south, and as he was her first she looked upon him with pride and was much at a loss to find a name for him. Relatives and friends, including her mistress, were appealed to; but, although many names were suggested, all were discarded.

After many days of deliberation she said one morning to her mistress: "Miss Mary, I've found a name for my boy. I'm going to name him Delicious."

"Why," said the lady, "where did you get that name?"

"Oh," she cried, "I'm going to call him that 'cause I want to name him for Mr. Grant."

When it was explained to her that the great hero was named Ulysses and not Delicious, she was somewhat disturbed in mind, but Ulysses did not please her, so the boy had to begin life burdened with the name Egbert Eugene.—Detroit Free Press.

William Wirt's Reformation.

William Wirt, the great lawyer, attorney general of the United States and prosecutor of Aaron Burr when he was tried for treason, was stupefied and made senseless by liquor. At times he lost all self control and self respect. On one occasion while drunk he fell in the streets of Richmond. While lying there asleep Miss G., the most beautiful woman in the city, to whom he was betrothed, came along, saw him and placed her handkerchief on which was her name, over his face. He awakened, saw the name, learned the incident, and it reformed him.—Beverages.

His Scheme.

Filbert—Aren't you afraid to be so knowing about poker when your wife is around?

Kitty—Quite the contrary. It is the man who laughs the loudest over a poker joke who knows the least about the game. My wife knows that, and it is my cue to be the man who does the loud laughter.—Boston Transcript.

Schlitz

A Doctor's Reasons

Patient: "Why do you say Schlitz beer? Isn't any other beer as good?"

Doctor: "Perhaps; but I don't know it. I do know that Schlitz beer is pure."

Patient: "What do you mean by pure?"

Doctor: "I mean free from germs. Impurity means bacilli; and in a saccharine product like beer bacilli multiply rapidly. I do not recommend a beer that may contain them."

Patient: "How do you know that Schlitz beer is pure?"

Doctor: "I have seen it brewed. Cleanliness is carried to extremes in that brewery. The beer is cooled in plate glass rooms, in filtered air. The beer is then filtered. Yet, after all these precautions, every bottle is sterilized—by Pasteur's process—after it is sealed. I know that beer treated in that way is pure."

Patient: "And is pure beer good for me?"

Doctor: "It is good for anybody. The hops form a tonic; the barley a food. The trifle of alcohol is an aid to digestion. And the custom of drinking beer supplies the body with fluid to wash out the waste. People who don't drink beer seldom drink enough fluid of any kind. A great deal of ill-health is caused by the lack of it."

Patient: "But doesn't beer cause biliousness?"

Doctor: "Not Schlitz Beer. Biliousness is caused by 'green' beer—beer that is insufficiently aged. But Schlitz beer is always aged for months before it is marketed."

THE BEER THAT MADE MILWAUKEE FAMOUS

YOUNG WIFEHOOD

Boston, Mass., 152 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902.

After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the light step and dragged wearily along instead. My appetite failed me and I lost health and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and constant headaches added to my misery. The menstrual flow became more and more profuse and I was unfit to attend to my daily duties. My husband called in three different physicians and I took enough medicine to kill or cure a dozen women, but it all had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my periods my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well.

I am happy to give you this endorsement.

Betty Ricker

President, Rock Bay Woman's Club.

Why don't you try for the same health Mrs. Ricker has? It is easy to secure if you take Wine of Cardui according to directions. Wine of Cardui strengthens weak and worn-out women of any age and assists the mother and housewife to bear her exacting duties. Wine of Cardui makes women fit for all the duties of womanhood.

It will relieve the pains of irregularity, cures falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, ovarian troubles, and has been known to remove what physicians considered dangerous tumors. Women who use Wine of Cardui do not suffer at the monthly periods. They do not suffer hysterical attacks, because Wine of Cardui gives them strong nerves freed from the irritation of female suffering.

A $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui purchased from your druggist will keep you free from pain.
