MERCHANTS WARNED.

Smooth Swindler Operating in the West at Present.

Postmaster Lot Livermore is in receipt of a circular letter from the postoffice department, warning merchants of a smooth swindler operating with bogus money orders in the west at this time.

The name of the swindler is supposed to be E. J. Crozier, and his methods are as follows.

He buys a small money order for 25 or 30 cents, in some large city, and then by means of chemicals removes all the ink in the dates, names and figures and writes another money order for amounts ranging from $50 to $70. He then appears in the town on which the bogus order is written and after the postoffice closes, makes his appearance in a store and makes a small purchase, offering the money order in payment, expecting the change in good coin. He has defrauded merchants in different towns out of several hundred dollars in the past two months.

He is described as a man 22 years of age, slim built, very dark, 5 feet 10 inches in height, very long neck, prominent lower lip and would be taken for a railroad man.

Business men are warned against the smooth swindler.

R. M. Gwinn is Better.

J. H. Gwinn this morning received the news that his father, R. M. Gwinn, of Portersville, California, who has been seriously for the past few days, had recovered from a severe attack, and is much better today. Mr. Gwinn will not go to California, now, but will probably arrange his business to visit his father in the near future.

Old Friend of Welcome Walker, M. J. Foster of Stage Gulch, was in the city today for a short visit. Mr. Foster was an old friend of Welcome Walker, the Birch Creek farmer who was drowned, and came to Pendleton to assist in making the arrangements for the funeral.

School Entertainments.

W. S. Mayberry, teacher at DeHaven school, will give a Thanksgiving entertainment, at that school house, assisted by his pupils, and Harry Hulbert, teacher of the school eight miles above Milton, will also hold Thanksgiving exercises at the school house.

Successful Social.

The United Brethren social, given at Vincent chapel, last Saturday evening, netted $41 in cash. Another of the enjoyable entertainments will be given soon.

THE NEXT MAYOR

PAST PUBLIC SERVICES OF WILLIAM F. MATLOCK

One of the Oldest Residents of Umatilla County—Served Two Terms as Councilman, Two as Mayor and Two as State Senator—Only Candidate for Mayor of Pendleton.

William F. Matlock, the only candidate for mayor of Pendleton, is one of the oldest residents of the city and county. He came to Umatilla county in 1867 and located on Wildhorse creek, where he was interested in large sheep holdings for six years. At the end of that time he moved to Butter creek, where he still is engaged in the sheep business.

In 1878 Mr. Matlock moved his family to Pendleton, where he has since resided. All of this time he has been in the sheep and cattle business and from this and from real estate he has realized a large fortune.

Mr. Matlock was elected to the city council in the second election that the city ever held and filled the position for two terms of three years each, when he was elected to the office of mayor, in which capacity he served for two terms.

In the first race for mayor he ran against Judge William Martin, since deceased, and beat him. This was the only time in the career of the judge that he was ever defeated for office. The second race was made against Col. J. B. Eddy and in this race Mr. Matlock also won.

In 1891 Mr. Matlock was elected to the state senate and served the county in the highest legislative body of the state during two sessions.

In 1897 Mr. Matlock went to Alaska, where he became largely interested in mining and other property and where he has since spent a good deal of his time. He is the owner of claims in Skaguay, Nome and other places and is also the proprietor of one of the largest breweries in Alaska, situated at Skaguay.

In politics Mr. Matlock is a staunch Democrat and has always stood on the platform of that party. He has been in the past a loyal and firm fighter for the good of the city and by his enterprise and energy has had much to do with the present prosperity and growth of the city.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

Meeting of Eastern Oregon Association at Baker City is Well Attended.

Baker City, Nov. 24.—The meeting of the Eastern Oregon division of the State Teachers' association opened here yesterday with an attendance of about 200. Among the notable educators of the state present are Superintendent Ackerman and President Campbell, of the State University, of Eugene.

Dr. Winship of Boston is the principal speaker of the occasion, and his lecture on "The Boy" was one of the most entertaining numbers of the program of the meeting.

Superintendent E. E. Bragg, of Union county, opened the session yesterday with an address entitled "Leaves from a Superintendent's Note Book," which was a humorous and extremely practical exposition of the duties and experiences of the county superintendent, and was well received.

Superintendent Ackerman is taking a deep interest in the meeting, and hopes to see the Eastern Oregon division of the state association grow to its just and proper proportions.

The meetings will continue today and tomorrow, with an evening entertainment at the opera house each day. Nearly all the local teachers of Baker county are in attendance, and many from other Eastern Oregon counties. The election of officers will be held tomorrow evening, just before adjournment, and the place of meeting for next year will be selected at that time.

POLICE COURT.

Three Nationalities Charged With Divers Offenses Against the Peace.

The city court had a full session this morning with samples of three nationalities to deal with.

Three Indians, one with the euphonious name of Senator Mitchell, were before Judge Fitz Gerald charged with being drunk, and two of them donated $5 each to the support of the city, while Senator went to the city jail for three days owing to financial embarrassment.

Jim Williams was a negro who had been drunk and he was fined $5 by the court, which he paid.

Albert Haynes gave the court to understand that he was a bad man and wished all the people to know it. He was accordingly given five days in the city jail in which to meditate.

Joseph Reed was accused of being drunk, and pleaded not guilty, his trial being set for this afternoon.

H. C. GRADY HERE.

Former United States Marshal, Accompanied by His Family, in the City Today.

H. C. Grady of La Grande, formerly United States marshal of Oregon, and one of the oldest conductors on the O. R. & N., accompanied by his wife and daughter, is in the city today en route to Walla Walla and Portland on a short lay-off for rest and recreation.

POSTOFFICE LOCKED.

Order Received to Fasten Doors After 9 O'clock p. m.—is an innovation.

Walla Walla, Nov. 24.—Walla Walla people who have always been accustomed to finding the postoffice doors open at all hours and to mailing letters at the office when they choose will find themselves face to face with an innovation after this, for the outside office doors are to be securely locked and bolted at 9 o'clock in the future. They will open at 6 a. m.

According to postal regulations, postoffices, except when a guard in the shape of a watchman or janitor is maintained, must be locked during the absence of the postmaster and the employees, and the orders to the local postoffice followed on the discovery that the practice was not observed here.

Van Dran Was Successful.

George Van Dran has returned from a trip to Arlington, where he went Saturday afternoon after geese. Mr. Van Dran had very good luck and brought back some fine specimens. He went down in company with T. W. Ayres and T. C. Warner, who are not yet home. Mr. Ayres will visit in Portland before returning and Mr. Warner is expected home this evening.

Successful Insurance Man.

H. T. Booth of Baker City is at the Pendleton today. Mr. Booth is one of the most successful life insurance men in the state and is the eastern Oregon manager of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company, which is the only life insurance company that maintains a branch office in eastern Oregon. Besides his life insurance work, Mr. Booth is the head of a local fire and accident insurance agency which writes $20,000 a year in premiums.

Cannot Find Erring Sister.

Mrs. Dolly Scott, who went to Bourne to look after her erring sister-in-law, Mrs. Ella Harpham, the Baker City woman who deserted her husband and eloped with a man named Munger, has returned to Sumpter and announces that the whereabouts of the woman are unknown, says the Baker City Herald. Mrs. Scott has not yet given up and will enlist the services of the peace officers of the various towns in the Upper Camp.

Loaded With Snow.

A box car loaded with ore, from Wardner, Idaho, passed through the city this morning over the O. R. & N. en route to the Pueblo smelter, bearing on top of the car about three feet of snow, which accumulated upon it during its brief sojourn in the Coeur d'Alene country.

Guest from South Dakota.

Mrs. Mara L. Ferguson, of Weston, was in the city yesterday, the guest of friends in order that she might meet Mrs. Jack Ferguson of Artesian, South Dakota, who will be her guest for a time.

Blew the Vault.

Nanticoke, Pa., Nov. 24.—Four masked men blew the postoffice vault this morning and secured $3,500.

Present crop prospects all over Australia are extremely favorable.
