Edward Thompson, of Walla Walla, spent Thanksgiving with his mother, Mrs. M. A. Thompson, and his brother, Harry Thompson, returning to his business in Walla Walla this morning.

TO CALIFORNIA.

Senator Pierce and Wife and Charles Pierce of Weston. Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Pierce left this morning for Sacramento, where Mr. Pierce is called on legal business in connection with the famous Columbia Island case, now before the superior court of that state. Mr. Pierce will return to this state in time for the convention of the special session, stopping at Salem for that purpose as he returns. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce are accompanied on their journey by Charles Pierce, of Weston, the brother of Senator Pierce, who will spend the winter in Los Angeles for his health.

WM. GOAT ARRIVES.

Was Expected Here Some Time Ago—You'll See Him on the Streets. At last Mr. William Goat has reached Pendleton and he and the wagon and harness are the seventh prize the Peoples Warehouse will give away Christmas eve. Perhaps there will be some fun at the drawing. At all events, watch for Mr. William Goat on the streets.

Ate Turkey in Pendleton.

Jack McCarten, formerly a switchman in the O. R. & N. yards here, spent Thanksgiving day in the city, and will remain on a visit for a few days before returning to his new headquarters in Spokane. He is now breaking on the main line of the Northern Pacific, and likes his place very well. He may not go back alone.

Shields' Park Program.

The Hunt company of trained dogs and monkeys at Shields' Park, this week is one of the very best attractions ever booked by the park. This company of animals exhibits wonderful intelligence and performs feats that are worth while going to see. They will be at the park tonight for the last time. Tomorrow the entire professional bill will be presented in Athena.

J. H. Robbins in the City.

J. H. Robbins, of Sumpter, stopped over Wednesday night, en route from Spokane to his home in the Baker county gold camp. Mr. Robbins will be on hand to attend the special session of the legislature, and no successor will have to be elected as has been suggested by Baker City papers.

Returned From Alberta.

A. Kunkel has returned from Calgary, Alberta, Canada, where he has been for several weeks looking over the country. Mr. Kunkel is well pleased to return, thinking it a little too cold there for comfort. Otherwise, the country is of great promise as a stock district.

Suit on Two Notes.

It is not strange if the reader of Ads is at a loss to know who is right and who is not, when each and every store is advertising that it is the place to save money. It has the right goods at lowest prices.

In the light of past events we hope you will pardon us, if we say THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE is the store in Pendleton which leads in introducing new and desirable clothing for Men, Boys or the Little Fellows. And in making you feel that you are paying for VALUE and NOT for a NAME.

If our boy has not left you one of our monster price circulars please call and get one.

Our art department has received new pillow tops, new linens for stamping, new cords, new silks, looms for indian beads, the filo silks, the rope silk, the Dresden silk.

In fact everything that ought to be in a modern up-to-date Art Department, with a competent instructress.

AT METHODIST CHURCH.

Twenty Additions to the Church During Present Revival.

The meetings at the Methodist church are still continuing, and are proving of added interest. Since the time they were begun there have been 20 additions to the church, and last evening there were six received into the fold.

The services will be conducted this evening as usual, but there will be none tomorrow night. On Sunday evening they will be resumed, and will run during the coming week, under the guidance of Rev. Armfield and Rev. Warner.
