The World's Greatest Skin Torture

Many Infants are Born with Eczema

THE ONLY INFALLIBLE CURE IS CUTICURA

It is in the treatment of this most distressing of torturing and disfiguring skin and scalp humours, with loss of hair, that the Cuticura remedies have achieved their greatest success. Original in composition, scientifically compounded, absolutely pure, unchangeable in any climate, always ready, and agreeable to the most delicate, they present to those suffering from Eczema the most successful curative of modern times. We know that this will be considered strong language by those acquainted with the character and obstinacy of the disease under consideration, but it is justified by innumerable successes where all the remedies and methods in vogue have failed to cure, and, in many cases, to relieve, even.

The first step in the treatment of the chronic forms is to remove the scales and crusts and soften the skin, by warm baths with Cuticura Soap. The scalp, ears, elbows, hands, ankles and feet will require frequently a thorough soaking in order to penetrate the thickened skin and crusts with which these parts are often covered. Dry carefully, and apply Cuticura Ointment, lightly at first, and where advisable spread it on pieces of soft cloth and bind in place. Take the Resolvent, pills or liquid, in medium doses. Do not use cold water in bathing, and avoid cold, raw winds.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 50c. per box of 100). Ointment, 50c. Soap, 25c. Depot: London, E. Charlesworth & Co., 1, Paris, 5, rue de la Paix; Boston, 117, Columbus Ave. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Proprietors. "Read the 'How to Cure Eczema'."

CAPTAIN CARTER

GOVERNMENT CONTRACT SWINDLER RELEASED

Engineered a Gigantic Graft on the Government in the Nineties—Has Served Three Years and Seven Months in the Federal Penitentiary

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 27.—The doors of the military prison at Fort Leavenworth will swing open tomorrow for ex-Captain Oberlin M. Carter, who has completed his five-year sentence for robbing the government. Deducing the allowance for good conduct, the actual time served by Carter has been three years and seven months. It is probable that he will proceed at once to Chicago, where he has relatives who have looked after his business affairs during his imprisonment. Further than this, his future movements are undecided.

When Carter was brought to the penitentiary he talked much of his anxiety for a civil trial. Recently he has not said much on this subject, but has paid more attention to a suit pending in the United States circuit court whereby the government was endeavoring to recover about $723,000 alleged to be a part of the former captain's ill-gotten booty.

Since his imprisonment the government has succeeded in making Carter turn over vast sums of money, but, notwithstanding this, he is believed to be still wealthy. He is possessed of valuable mining property, chiefly in Mexico, and it is thought likely that he may make that country his future home.

History of the Case.

The case of Carter attracted such widespread attention at the time of his arrest, trial and conviction four years ago that the facts are still fresh in the public memory.

Grant sent him to West Point from Ohio in 1876. He was graduated at 24 at the head of his class, and went to the engineer corps by right of his standing. He served first in the East, where he married a millionaire's daughter, who died before his downfall. It was in 1890 that Carter, then a lieutenant, presented to congress his plans for the improvement of Savannah harbor. He had thought it all out unaided, and Savannah went mad, almost, with joy when the news was brought to the town that nearly $2,000,000 had been appropriated to carry into concrete effect the ideas that originated in the mind of the brilliant engineer.

Carter returned to Savannah to take up the work on the harbor. From that very moment, it was shown, the swindling began. He conspired with the contractors who were doing the work, realizing, with his accomplices, hundreds of thousands of dollars. After the work was fairly under way the young lieutenant fairly bloomed as an entertainer and a good fellow. He took parties of his friends down the bay in a government yacht, on which occasions the champagne flowed like water. Meanwhile his expenses grew at an amazing rate.

It developed at the trial that he was in the habit of signing claims against the government that were totally false, and that the payrolls contained the names of innumerable laborers that did not exist.

In 1891 Lieutenant Carter became Captain Carter. He was later appointed military attaché to the American embassy at the court of St. James. He was occupying that post when informed that charges against him had been preferred by Captain C. E. Gillette, who was sent to Savannah to carry on the work. The papers made such direct accusations that Secretary Alger thought the matter should be thoroughly gone into, and therefore sent a commission to investigate. Its report led to the court-martial.

The court-martial was presided over by General Elwell S. Otis. The court labored four months, and Carter was convicted. After long and patient examination of the record by distinguished jurists, President McKinley approved the sentence. On September 29, 1899, Carter was dismissed from the army, and the government advertised in the newspapers that he had ceased to be "an officer and a gentleman." The next day he was arrested and his imprisonment began.

Afterward Messrs. Greene and Gaynor, prominent New York contractors, were indicted for complicity with Carter in the Savannah harbor frauds. They fled to Canada to escape arrest and are believed to be still in hiding there. Carter is said to be bitter against Greene and Gaynor, and it is believed he would willingly appear against them if they were brought to trial.

THERE ARE NO FAILURES.

Dr. Garfield, of Victoria, B. C., Tells of Three Hundred Cases Wherein He Recommended the Use of Trib. Dr. James G. Garfield, of Victoria, B. C., when asked, do you endorse TRIB as a cure for the liquor and tobacco habits, said: "I do. I have known your remedy long before it was sold to you, and can tell you of three hundred people that I have advised to take it. I never knew of a failure to cure where the party taking it was sincere."

created no end of merriment in the many laughable situations in which he is placed during the course of the play. Edgar Norton, Margaret McKinney, Edna Burd, Bertha Ricci, Norma Bell, Edward Metcalf and John Dudley have all added to their reputations in their clever impersonations of agreeable characters. Sam S. Shubert and Nixon and Zimmerman, it is said, have furnished a most elaborate and picturesque production and provided a splendid singing chorus of dainty pretty girls.

Sailor Meets Death.

Seattle, Nov. 25.—Jean Campet, a sailor of the French bark Andre Theodore, docked at the Seattle Shipyards company's plant in Ballard, fell from the rigging of the ship to the deck and was instantly killed last evening at 5:30 o'clock. Campet went up the ladder to untangle some ropes. When near the top, about thirty feet from the deck, he lost his hold and fell backwards and struck on his neck and shoulders.

Robert Fitzsimmons won the fight from George Gardner at San Francisco, on Wednesday night, in the 20th round.

"I have gone 14 days at a time without a movement of the bowels, not being able to move them except by using hot water injections. Chronic constipation for many years placed me in this terrible condition; during that time I did everything I could but never found any relief, such was my case until I began using CASCARETS.
