PENDLETON AND WALLA
WALLA PLAY STAND-OFF.

Fine Game Witnessed by a Thousand People—Snyder, of Walla Walla, and Sol Baum Are Crack Runners—Complete Line-up, as the Game Was Played.

The football game yesterday afternoon between the Walla Walla team and the all-Pendleton team was a good exhibition of clean ball, and the 1,000 people who witnessed it were well repaid for the time spent in attending.

The teams were more evenly matched than was thought before the game and though the Walla Walla boys were a little the heavier, they were held by the spirit and quick playing of the local players.

In the first half the game was played for the most part around the circle in the center of the field, it being impossible for either team to force their way far from the starting point. The game here was of the line bucking order, and neither line could be opened for large gains. The half ended with the ball in the center of the field.

In the second half the line-up of the local team was changed to some extent, and the men on both sides went in to win the game. Much faster ball was played and the gains were made around the end, time and time again.

Some costly fumbles lost a score on both sides, but in the end the Walla Walla weight seemed to be telling on Pendleton, for their gains were long and frequent. However, their strength was not sufficient to put the ball over the line, and the second half ended without a score on either side.

Some pretty runs were made by Sol Baum, of the Pendleton team, and by Snyder, the left half of the visitors. Had the interference been what it should have been on either side, both of these men would have scored.

Considering the practice the men have had a good game was played, and Pendleton is to be congratulated on the showing she made against the heavy men from the sister city.

The line-up was as follows:

WALLA WALLA EXHIBIT.

Large Collection of Products Ready for the St. Louis Exposition.

Walla Walla, Nov. 27.—The largest agricultural and horticultural exhibit ever collected in this county is now ready for shipment to the St. Louis exposition.

Every variety of grain grown in the county, including the following kinds of wheat: nine varieties of club, bluestem, Sonora, Turkey red, early May, Salt Lake, Lemar, red chaff and Jenkins club, besides six kinds of corn and samples of white face, blue, beardless and bald barley, has been collected for the shipment.

Black, white and English walnuts, Persian nuts, pecans, acorns, hazel nuts and every other variety grown in the county will be seen in the exhibit.

It is one of the most elaborate collections ever sent out of the state, and the people of Walla Walla are going to see that it is placed in an advantageous position in the Washington building at St. Louis.

Recovering From Injuries.

Charles A. Cameron, Sr., who has been in the hospital at Portland for some time, as the result of an injury which he received to his back and foot by being thrown under a handcar, while working with his men on the Elgin branch of the O. R. & N., has returned to his home in this city, much improved in health.

Returned Home.

The Walla Walla football team left this morning for their homes in Walla Walla, after having spent the evening in the city after the game.

WIDOW PENSIONED

SKETCH OF CAPT. MARTIN—
VETERAN AND PIONEER

Came to Oregon Sixty Years Ago and Lived on the Coast Fifty-six Years—Was a Soldier, Frontiersman, Trader and Pioneer Official Until His Death at the Age of 79.

It has just been announced that Mrs. William Martin of this city, the widow of the late Captain William Martin, has been granted a pension of $8 a month by the government for the services of Captain Martin in the Indian wars.

Mrs. Martin is a well known resident of this city, and her husband was one of the earlier pioneers and well known founders of the state. He was born in West Virginia in 1822, and came to Missouri in 1841. In 1843 he came to this state with Judge Daniel Waldo and settled with him in the Waldo Hills, near Salem. He afterwards settled on Howell Prairie, where he lived until 1848, when he went with 150 men to assist in the punishment of the Cayuse Indians for the massacre of Dr. Whitman and his family.

After the battle of Sand Hollow, he was left in charge of the troops in that part of the country in order to guard the immigrant trains that came into the state over that trail, and it was here that he gained his title of captain.

In 1849 Captain Martin went to California during the gold excitement, and remained there for several years, mining part of the time, and engaging the business of buying cattle in Oregon and selling them to the mining towns of California. During his residence in Northern California he was elected sheriff of Siskiyou county, and filled that office for two years.

In 1862, during the mining excitement in Idaho, Captain Martin started for that state, but stopped on the John Day river, where he remained for 13 years. He afterward moved to Camas Prairie, where he lived for some time, moving from there to the Walla Walla valley, and from there to Stewart Creek, where he engaged in the cattle business.

In 1880 Captain Martin moved to Pendleton, where he remained until his death. In that year he was elected sheriff of Umatilla county by a majority of 122. He was a Republican, and at that time this county was strongly Democratic. He held the office for three terms, and declined to run for a fourth term.

In 1888 he was elected judge of Umatilla county, and served in that capacity until his death on June 25, 1899. The funeral was conducted from the court house by Judge S. A. Lowell, assisted by the members of the bar and the officers of the city government.

Captain Martin was also sheriff of Champoeg county, now Marion, in 1846, being one of the first sheriffs of the county. He was one of the public spirited men of his day and had much to do with the advancement of the state.

CATTLE TO THE SOUND.

Shipment From Baker City Was Bought at $2.85 Per Hundred Last Week.

A shipment of 200 head of fat cattle consisting of three and four-year-old steers, passed down the O. R. & N. this morning from Baker City, en route to Seattle.

The cattle were bought in small lots in the vicinity of Baker City during the past week, and the average price paid was $2.85 per hundred. The same cattle at this time last year were selling in the vicinity of Baker, as well as in Umatilla county, for $4.25 to $4.50 per hundred.

There are now about 400 head of Harney and Grant county cattle in the vicinity of Baker City, awaiting a buyer. The highest price yet offered for the lot was $2.75, which the owners refused to accept. The herd consists of dry cows, three and four-year-old steers, and is said to be a choice lot of cattle. They are being fed near Baker and will be held over unless a fair price can be realized for them.

FAIR WAS A SUCCESS.

Walla Walla Association Votes $10,000 Additional Stock.

Walla Walla, Nov. 27.—As stated last week, the capital stock of the Walla Walla County Fair Association was increased from $15,000 to $25,000 at a director's meeting yesterday, the additional stock being designed for additional improvements at the county fair grounds.

The secretary's report showed that the gate receipts alone at the recent fair were nearly $6,500, which with other sources of income such as privileges, which brought in $3,710; donations of $784, entry fee of $1,161, and strawing stalls, made total assets of $12,125.15.

The expenses, made up of purses, labor and incidentals totaled $7,778, leaving a net profit of $4,347.

Including the mortgage against the property, the liabilities are nearly $6,000.

THE THANKSGIVING MILE STONE

Day Passed Off Quietly in Pendleton With Large Attendance at All Attractions.

Thanksgiving day was very generally observed in Pendleton. All the large stores were closed for the day, and the attendance at the various church services were well attended. The different churches, as announced in Wednesday's paper, held services in the forenoon, and the crowd at the Trades and Labor dance at night, could scarcely find standing room.

The different hotels and restaurants served special turkey dinners for their patrons, and the day passed off much as the usual run of Thanksgiving days in Pendleton. Business was very generally suspended and the crowd coming from Walla Walla gave the streets a distinct holiday appearance about 2 o'clock, when the line of people started for the Alta street ball grounds.

One very noticeable feature of the day was the absence of any drunken men on the streets. This feature of Pendleton holidays is almost totally eliminated.

CHARLES KIMBALL DEAD.

Death Came Suddenly While He Was Away From Home.

Charles Kimball, one of the prominent stockmen of Camas Prairie, died about 23 miles north of Pendleton on a stock ranch, yesterday morning, of kidney trouble.

Mr. Kimball left his home a few days ago to look at some stock north of this place, and while away from home was taken sick and died. His family was notified and went to him this morning. The deceased was about 40 years of age, and leaves a wife and children. The funeral will be held at Helix, the body being on its way to that place at the present time.

TRADES COUNCIL BALL.

Very Enjoyable Affair—Prize Given the Best Waltzers.

The ball given last night at Music Hall by the Trades and Labor Council was a great success. The hall was packed to the utmost, and, with the good music furnished, everyone had a splendid time.

The prize for the best waltzers was won by William Krassig and Mrs. Darr Phelps, both of this city, over several competing couples.

The council is to be congratulated on its efforts, and for the way in which they handled the large crowd that was present.

ARM BROKEN.

Man Thrown from a Horse Out at Cunningham's Ranch.

James Arnthegen, a man working for Charles Cunningham, on his ranch at Pilot Rock, was thrown from his horse yesterday morning and his arm was badly broken. He was brought to this city, where Dr. Smith dressed the hurt, and he is now resting easily.

Guest From Portland.

Carl Griffith, of Portland, is in the city a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Fletcher. Mr. Griffith is a brother of Dr. Frank Griffith, the first assistant physician at the insane asylum and is himself a student of medicine in the medical department of the State University, at Portland. He will visit in this city for a few days and then leave for Weston, where he will be the guest of Professor and Mrs. George W. Peebles, who are relatives.

Mountain Range Good.

E. J. Wilbur, of Duncan postoffice, on Meacham creek, is in the city to spend Thanksgiving with his family. Mr. Wilbur says the fall of snow in the mountains at Wilbur and Duncan laid on about 10 days, but is all gone now, and the fall range is better than ever before at this time of year in that vicinity. There is plenty of feed in that locality for the stock that will be held there, and the condition of stock is excellent.

Bought Athena Saloon.

William Davis, who has been for some time employed as the day man at the Hotel Pendleton bar, has purchased the Exchange saloon at Athena, and has gone to that city to take charge of his new property.

Men's Resort Street Lamp.

The Men's Resort has added a very valuable improvement in the way of a street lamp, with directions to the rooms, lettered upon the globe at the foot of the stairway, leading to the resort, in the Despain building.

Returning from Baker.

Miss Mara Ferguson of Weston was the guest of friends in the city yesterday while en route to her position in the Normal school, after having attended the teachers' institute at Baker City.

George Smith and wife, aged 60 years, were cremated in their home at Grand Rapids, Mich., Tuesday. The fire had an accidental origin.

TEACHERS CHOOSE PENDLETON.

Eastern Oregon Association Comes to Umatilla County in 1904.

The Eastern Oregon Teachers' Association adjourned at Baker City Wednesday night, after a most successful session of three days.

Pendleton was selected as the meeting place for 1904, but the new officers of the association were not selected. A committee consisting of Professors Bragg, of Union county; Churchill, of Baker, and Gardner, of Walla Walla, was named and assigned the task of filling all the offices by appointment, just before the next meeting, the object being to secure officers who could be present at the meeting.

It is the intention of the association to fix the date of the meeting in this city, to correspond to the date of the meeting of the Inland Empire Teachers' Association, at this place next fall.

COMING EVENTS.

Washington Teachers' association, Tacoma, Dec. 28-30.
