AT THE PARK THEATER.

Manager Le Vern Will Present a Novel Attraction Next Week.

Gerald and Errol's specialty company will hold forth at Park theater all next week, presenting new and up-to-date comedy, music and mystery, representing some of the best talent in the vaudeville profession.
 Gerald and Errol themselves are exceptionally fine German-salut comedians of "Webberfield" nature.

Miss Catherine Gray is an elocutionist of no mean ability. Burt Vincent, a Pendleton favorite, is much improved and will sing "Anona" from Arizona and "Congo Maid" with illustrations, in his own splendid manner.

There will be beautiful dissolving pictures from the Projectograph, and last, but not of least, Achmed-All-Bey's masterful illusion, the new black art. The most wonderful and seemingly supernatural exhibition ever presented, requiring the use of 300 yards of velvet.

A comical contest for boys, and presents for the lucky numbers, as usual.

Probach-Mechtel.

Frank A. Mechtel and Miss Mary Probach were married this morning in the Catholic church by Rev. Van der Velden, the pastor of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Mechtel left this morning for Wenatche, Wash., where the groom is engaged in the bakery business. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Schwartz, of this city.

Kamrath-Allyn.

Thomas A. Allyn, of Morrow county, and Miss Hulda M. Kamrath, of Birch Creek, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Carmichael, of Weston, on the afternoon of the 25th, by Rev. W. S. Payne, of the United Presbyterian church of Weston. The groom is a brother of Mrs. Carmichael, and is a well known young man of Morrow county.

Wiley-King.

Cards have been received in the city by relatives announcing the marriage of William W. King, of Ritzville, to Miss Victoria Wiley, of Spokane. Mr. King is a well known merchant of Ritzville, and his bride is an Eastern girl. Mr. and Mrs. King will be at home in Ritzville after December 25.

Dunn-Adams.

Dickie O. Adams and Miss Prudence A. Dunn were married this afternoon in the office of the recorder by Justice of the Peace Thomas Fitz Gerald. The principals are residents of McKay creek, and will make their home on a ranch there owned by the groom.

Pocahontas Will Entertain.

The Order of Pocahontas will next Monday evening have a special session at Redmen's hall, beginning at 7:30 p. m., to which all the Redmen are invited to partake of refreshments and listen to a program. Important business is to be transacted and a full attendance of the auxiliary is requested.
