HOME FOR VETERANS.

Transformation of Jefferson Davis' Old Homestead. Jackson, Miss., Dec. 1.—The project for converting the old Jefferson Davis homestead at Beauvoir into a home for indigent Confederate veterans, which has been a dream of the United Daughters of the Confederacy for a number of years, today became an accomplished fact. Simple ceremonies marked the formal opening today when nearly two score of indigent veterans were admitted as inmates, and captain James Stone, of Greenville, assumed charge as superintendent. The home is to be presented to the state of Mississippi at the session of the legislature next month, and until that time the expenses of the home will be borne by private contributions.

There will be special meeting of Blue Mountain Court No. 2, Tribe of Ben Hur, Thursday evening, December 3, 8 o'clock, in room 5, E. O. building. It is earnestly desired that all members of the court be present to elect officers for the ensuing year. ALICE FLETCHER, Chief.

It is not strange if the reader of Ads is at a loss to know who is right and who is not, when each and every store is advertising that it is the place to save money. It has the right goods at lowest prices.

In the light of past events we hope you will pardon us, if we say THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE is the store in Pendleton which leads in introducing new and desirable clothing for Men, Boys or the Little Fellows. And in making you feel that you are paying for VALUE and NOT for a NAME.

If our boy has not left you one of our monster price circulars please call and get one.

Our art department has received new pillow tops, new linens for stamping, new cords, new silks, looms for indian beads, the filo silks, the rope silk, the Dresden silk.

In fact everything that ought to be in a modern up-to-date Art Department, with a competent instructress.

WHERE IT PAYS TO TRADE

BRANCH AT PILOT ROCK.

Pendleton General Store Doing an Expanding Business.

The Peoples Warehouse has placed a branch house at Pilot Rock, which will be kept there permanently, providing the business of the store justifies the expense. The store was opened November 28 and fills a long felt want in that part of the county, where it has been impossible to get clothing goods before. The store is in charge of Fred Earl and Norval Jones, formerly clerks in the main store in this city.

The Tongue Memorial.

A copy of the memorial address in congress in memory of Congressman Thomas H. Tongue has just been received.
