OLD 'FRISCO FRIENDS.

John McGuire, of the Jessie Shirley Company, Meets Old-Time Friends in Pendleton.

John McGuire, advance agent and business manager for the Jessie Shirley theatrical company which comes here on next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, met a host of old friends in this city, since his short stay here.
W. H. Holley, of the Alexander Department Store, and Mr. McGuire are old friends. Mr. McGuire having known Mr. Holley's father and family when Holley was a child. Sam Roberts also recognized Mr. McGuire as an old friend and associate of the '70s in San Francisco, when Mr. McGuire was playing on the coast and conducting the business affairs of the pioneer theatrical companies of California.

Mr. McGuire is taking advantage of a few days' rest, as his company plays here for three days next week. He met Jefferson de Angelis again last night, the first time for several years.

ELEVEN DEEDS.

That Number Necessary to Transfer One Tract of Land.

Mary L. Lynd and husband have sold to R. M. Dougherty for $2,400, a tract of land in section 3, township 5, north of range 35 east, being in the vicinity of Freewater. There is a eleven-thirtieths interest conveyed in the deed, and there have been 11 deeds filed in the last few weeks conveying the one-thirtieth part of the land to Mrs. Lynd, in each instance for the sum of $100. The deeds came from various places where the holders of the land had moved since receiving their share of the estate.

DESIGN FOR WORLD'S FAIR.

Mrs. Grigg Doing Expert Decorating for Montana Exhibit.

Mrs. Johana Grigg, of Butte, left yesterday for Seattle, after a short visit in this city at the home of her brother, Dr. J. L. Miller. Mrs. Grigg is an expert china decorator, and has been asked to furnish some specimens for the Montana exhibit at the St. Louis fair, and is now on her way to Seattle to consult with a well known decorator there as to the designs for her work.

Before returning to her home in Butte, Mrs. Grigg will again spend a short time in this city as the guest of her brother.
