BAPTISTS INVITE A MINISTER. Call Extended to Rev. W. T. Jordan, of Denver, to Accept Pastorate in Pendleton. The members of the Baptist church at a well-attended business meeting last evening, extended a call to Rev. W. T. Jordan, of Denver, to accept the pastorate of the church in this city. They have every reason to believe that Rev. Jordan will accept the invitation, and are highly pleased at the prospects of securing such an able minister for the church here. Rev. Jordan is accredited with being one of the ablest Baptist ministers on the Pacific Coast, having held important assignments in California and later at McMinville, Or., where he is well known, and from where he comes highly recommended. The members are awaiting his reply with much interest, and hope to announce his acceptance of the offer soon.

MORE BUSINESS SHOWS LARGE INCREASE

Not Only Over October, but Over November of Last Year—Free Delivery System, Registry, Stamps and Money Order Departments All Yielding Increase in Revenue—Holiday Rush Has Begun.

The postoffice for the past month has shown a general increase in all the branches of its work over the reports of the months preceding, and a very noticeable one over the report of the same month for the previous year.

The increase in the free delivery system for the month has been noticeable, as has the increase in the general amount of mail handled. This is to be expected, however, at this time of the year, and does not denote so much a general and permanent increase as the reports of some of the other months of the year.

The registered letters, the postal receipts and the money order department have all had an increase in their business, and, in fact, every branch of the office has increased figures to show for the month of November.

From now on until after the New Year the force will be rushed to their hardest efforts in handling the mail and package business of the holiday season. After that is over, the business of the department is generally dull for the next month.

The Elks will hold their regular meeting on the evening of Thursday next, at which time it is desired that all of the members who can attend be present as business of importance will be transacted as well as initiation be given. Books for boys and girls. Never was our line so large. Nolf's.
