MRS. HEWETT'S FUNERAL.

Conducted by Rev. M. P. Howard This Afternoon.

The funeral services over Mrs. J. H. Hewett were held at the M. E. Church, South, at 10 a. m., in the presence of relatives and friends. The sermon, by the pastor, Rev. M. P. Howard, was preached from John 16: 12 and 22. "I have many things to say to you, but yet cannot bear them now. Your sorrow shall be turned to joy."

Mrs. Hewett was a Christian and left evidence of her salvation through our Lord, Jesus Christ. She was buried in hope of a better resurrection.

FIREBUG CAUGHT.

Man Who Set Fire to Glenn's Ferry Hotel Now in Jail.

Mountain Home, Dec. 4.—Through the efforts of Sheriff Fountain and Daniel McLaughlin, the county attorney, one of the men who started the fire that consumed the Stockton house at Glenn's Ferry on November 18, and cost one life, has been arrested and is now in jail here. The officers are satisfied as to his guilt. He had two accomplices and the sheriff is now on their trail.

It seems that shortly after the fire broke, while drunk at Glenn's Ferry, stated he and two pals set the place on fire. They had expected to make some money but were disappointed, he said. He did not state whether they were to be paid for the job or whether they expected to gain by robbery, although the robbery theory is the one the officers here entertain. He also said the unknown man who lost his life in the fire was "an old stiff and good for nothing and we cared nothing about him."

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.

Man Killed Because He Refused to Hold Up His Hands.

Seattle, Dec. 4.—Emil Schmidt was shot and killed by a highwayman about 11 o'clock this morning in the Maple saloon at Van Asselt, a few miles south of Seattle.

The hold-ups, two in number, entered the saloon and ordered the 12 men in it at the time to hold up their hands. Schmidt and another man started for the robbers with chairs. Schmidt was shot through the brain. The chair was knocked from the other man's hand and the highwaymen then made their escape without securing any booty.
