THEATERDOM

Plays and Players and Their Realm

"The Head Waiters" will be seen at the Frazer tonight in all its effulgent completeness and brought up to date. "The Head Waiters" has enjoyed the greatest universal popularity ever accorded to a musical cut-up. Year after year it has been greeted by packed houses in every city. This popularity has in no wise diminished with age, and now, rejuvenated, entirely new with no part of the old show left except the name, it has been launched once more upon a gigantic scale.

In this new exposition of ebullient humor there will be marshalled an unusually large, talented and versatile company, headed by Joe Kelly, and includes Inman and Vincent, Dolly DeVyne, Franzina Hayford, Elsie Harvey, Pierce and Roslyn, Charles Burkhardt, Eureka comedy four, Bert Wain-

Shirley being an ideal Trilby, while George McQuarrie's Svengali was a most remarkably strong performance, and the other parts made possible the good showing of the entire company.

On Monday night the Jessie Shirley company will present "A Modern Magdalen" at the Frazer, on Tuesday night "Camille" and on Wednesday night "Trilby." It is useless to say anything further in commendation of the able artists comprising this company. The exacting critics of Butte have removed all doubts about the wright, Lew Kelly and twenty-five chorus girls. Comedians whose names are synonyms for bright, keen-edged wit and quaint humor and feminine members who in point of talent and popularity rank equally with their male confreres.

"Jessie Shirley can, like Caesar, exclaim, 'I came, I saw, I conquered,' for she has certainly broken through a wall of apathy which seemed to obstruct her progress towards a successful engagement on her first appearance in Butte," says the Miner. "That her mana ger has full confidence in her capability to win over the public, the company seldom books for less than one week and consequently plays only the larger towns, where superiority of the performances and Pendleton is promised three nights of genuine dramatic art, in the production of these three masterpieces of the stage.

At the Park theater tonight, aside from the regular interesting program, Miss Gale Dauvey, elocutionist at the park this week will recite in Indian costume Bert Hoffman's poem, "Sakajawea." Miss Dauvey is an elocutionist of a high order of ability and has been a favorite at the Park all the week. Tonight will be her last appearance in this city. The new professional bill which has been seen at the Park this week has been one of the very best of the season and one fully as good is promised for next week.

World's Population.
The New York Sun says that the estimated population of the world in 1903 is 1,547,423,000, which is an increase of 39,505,000 over the estimate for 1897, or an average increase of 6,584,166 a year. At this rate the world's average growth of population amounts in less than eleven years to the number of persons now living in the United States. In the merely business aspects of this rapid growth it is easy to see that the large increase in the number of human beings has been a very important element in raising the value of the international exchanges of commodities in the past forty years.

CURED WHEN OTHERS FAILED

1056 Winnomac Avenue,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 25, 1902.

Wine of Cardui can always be relied upon to cure when everything else fails. It is a certain cure for female diseases in their worst forms. I suffered for years with ulceration. Intense pains in the womb and ovaries and dreadful headaches unfitted me for my work. Finally I grew so ill that I had to keep to my bed. The pains were so intense at times as to cause spasms and a disagreeable discharge drained my life force. In my extremity after all else had failed, I tried Wine of Cardui. After using it for two weeks I began to improve so rapidly that I felt encouraged to keep up the treatment, which I did for eight weeks, but at the end of that time I was entirely cured. What a relief was mine and how new and beautiful life looked to me when my health was restored. Only those who have passed through such a siege of sickness as I have will understand how much I value Wine of Cardui. It is indeed a boon to sick women.

Frances Mitchell

Secretary, North Chicago Frauen Verein.

Every weak woman needs Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui cures disordered and painful menstruation, periodical headaches, falling of the womb and leucorrhoea. It cures extreme cases of these troubles. It strengthens girls approaching womanhood, helps bring children to barren homes, makes pregnancy and childbirth easier, prevents miscarriages and is the best medicine ever made for use during the change of life. Why permit the good women in your home to suffer another day? Every druggist has $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
