

FREE! FREE!
Ladies', Children's and Misses' Shoes
EVERY ELEVENTH PAIR FREE!

Our shoe business has increased to such an extent that we have become satisfied we have absolutely the best wearing and most stylish ladies', misses' and children's shoes that are today manufactured, and many people in Pendleton know this, but we are not satisfied—we want to sell more, and in order to place our good shoes into more families we will give away, absolutely free, every eleventh pair. Should the eleventh pair be a $5.00 lady's patent kid shoe, or a 50c pair, in either case they will cost you nothing. This offer is for the entire month of December. Remember, we have a line of shoes that we can guarantee to give satisfaction. All rips sewed free.

VERY QUIET ELECTION.

Light Vote and Little Interest in the Event.
 At the time of going to press an occasional voter is dodging into the different voting places and while there is scarcely enough business in any of the wards to keep the clerks and judges from becoming sleepy, a fair vote will be cast, considering the registration.
 The only contest that is showing any spirit is between C. E. Roosevelt and W. H. Jones for water commissioner. At 4 o'clock there were 70 voters cast in ward No. 4, 65 in No. 2, 54 in No. 3 and 50 in No. 1, making a total of 239 out of 516 registered.
Shields' Park Drawings.
 The following winning numbers carried off the handsome prizes at Shields' park last Saturday night: No. 451, held by B. P. Dougherty, silver butter dish; No. 395, held by Thomas Mountain, silver cake dish; and No. 402, held by J. R. O'Neill, the beautiful mirror. The drawings will take place every Saturday night.
Notice.
 The firm of La Fontaine & Garrison engaged in the sheep business, has been dissolved, Gus La Fontaine having purchased the interest of his partner. All persons having accounts against the firm are requested to present their bills to me at the Franch restaurant.
GUS LA FONTAINE.

WILL WEAR BUTTONS.

Absurd Order issued by Street Railway Officials.
 Chicago, Dec. 7.—The street railway officials weakened and have failed to enforce the order prohibiting employes wearing union buttons. The union officials say any attempt to enforce the order will precipitate another strike, and instructed the men to continue wearing them.
FIGHT AGAINST UNIONS.
Restaurant Keepers in San Francisco Leading It.
 San Francisco, Dec. 7.—Twenty-eight out of 70 restaurants holding membership in the Restaurant Keepers' Association are today closed. The association is actively canvassing the other 300 restaurants with a view to having them join in the open shop fight.
 There is no question of hours or wages involved, and at present the public is not inconvenienced. The association so far has received little encouragement in the way of obtaining non-union help.

Had No Faith in Banks.

San Francisco, Dec. 7.—Eugene Duffy, doorkeeper of the Hibernia Bank, this morning charged a woman with the burglary of his savings of $40 from a cigar box hidden in his room. When asked by the judge how it was possible he kept his money in that way instead of the huge vaults of the bank, he said he "had no faith in banks."

You perhaps, like many, are at a loss to know just what might be acceptable as a Holiday Present. There are many, in fact very many, useful things to be found at the PEOPLES WAREHOUSE in the way of Ladies' Wear and Gentlemen's Apparel. We will endeavor to tell you in a day or so just what we have.

We would further like to remind you that the day of the Drawing of those Seven Prizes, amounting to $400.00 will be held Christmas Eve, and 'tis well that you have some tickets.

PEOPLES WAREHOUSE

THIS WEEK AT SHIELDS'

Comedy, Music, Song and Drams, Comic Opera and Circus, All in One.
 The Park theater presents a bill this week that is sure to please all, as it blends in perfect harmony all that is novel in the comedy-dramatic and circus world, presenting as it does, the world renowned Jarrett troupe of Royal Maronettes, equaling 29 people in a novelty act of refined specialties of every name and nature.
 Gonzola presents a "talking" act which must be seen to be understood or appreciated. The champion dancers of the world are Winstanley and Sullivan, having a standing challenge open to any and all dancers. If you like good dancing, you'll get it.
 Morris Jones is making a hit on the circuit and is sure to please. Miss Amy Maitlen is a captivating soubrette. Then there is Bessie La Vern and La Vern himself is not near through with his comedy and song, and the moving pictures, the comical contests and funny acts.
 The beautiful presents are to be given away every Saturday night during the winter and they will increase in beauty and value each week.

No Interest in School Election.

Walla Walla, Dec. 7.—The school election passed very quietly Saturday, but little interest being shown, and the total vote being the lightest in a number of years. The number of votes cast was 88, against over 1,300 a year ago.

The Presbyterian church ladies will serve in the church parlors, cake and coffee, Friday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock, and all articles left over from the big sale last Friday will be sold at reduced rates. Those who would like the worth of their money should come early before the rush. Everything that will be on sale will be suitable Christmas presents. Mounted pictures, rugs, handkerchiefs, cases, dolls, pincushions, etc., etc.
