AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE !!

ment has discontinued the office at Auburn recalls to the minds of oldof that camp. Incidents of the pio-neer days crowd thick in the mem-ory of that once flourishing town. No voice sounded louder in those days voice sounded louder in those days than that of Dave Littlefield, known as "the Sage of Auburn," and many stories are told at his expense.

Free-hearted and neighborly he was always among the first to call on the new arrivals and welcome them, from the grandfather to the babe in arms, to the new Eldorado. On one occasion to make the call of the cal sion he made the acquaintance of a miner who had just completed his cabin and was expecting his family the next day, and Dave accepted an invitation to call on the ladies when they arrived.

Prompt in keeping his engagement, he called early the next evening and had a pleasant time talking to the father and relating to the children stories of local interest. He was informed that the mother was not feeling well and had retired for the night, to which he responded;

"Don't disturb her; she is tired from the trip; I know how she feels, I have fell just that same way myself a hundred times."

It was still early in the evening, so he went up town and spent a few hours with congenial friends. On his way home he was passing the cabin of his new friends and the miner alepped out and informed him that the first white child had just been born in Auburn, and, but for the fact that it was a girl, he would have named it Dave -- Baker City Democrat.

Brief Season of Bliss

Last Monday afternoon, during the hours of the election, City Recorder Judah was called upon to perform a wedding ceremony, J. W. Conner of Polk county and Miss Mary Morgan or Salem being the candidates for matrimony. They were married at 3 o'clock that afternoon, and this morning, after a honeymoon lasting less than 40 hours, the bride appeared at the recorder's office and announced that she had left her husband and would not live with him. The man later also came in, and made the same statement. It seems there had been a misunderstanding, and the girl de-clined to go to Sheridan with her husband, where it was planned they would reside. The bride brought in her wardrobe to the city hall, where she left it temporarily, before return-ing to her parents' home.-Salem

The modus operandi of these people is simple enough: They have a regular constituency of so-called land-ladies or madams, who pay them well for adding to the inmates of their houses. The younger the girl is the better the procurer will be paid for his trouble. Twenty-five dollars for each girl is the usual sum paid, although those who are sent to nearby towns only bring $10 in this traffic.

The fact that the postoffice department has discontinued the office at fish. The prices of course were myta-ical, for the reason that rival interests could not deliver the class of goods on which they quoted figures.— Daily Astorian.

More Arms for Boise, Adjutant General Vickers received shipment of sabers and revolvers this morning to supply the deficiency in the Idaho regiment. The sabers are the regular infantry saber and cost about $5 each, the belt attached costing $3. A case of new Colt's .38-caliner revolvers costing about $15 each completed the shipment, which was made from the Springfield armory, Massachuselts. General View ers sent out a saber this after. the regimental quartermaster, A. L. Dunn, at Wallace, and one to A. F. A. McCall at Rathdrum. The others will be sent out as occasion demands.—Boise Capital News.

Vandais Steal State Flowers.
The state house gardener has had to strip all the red berries from the holly bushes on the state house grounds to keep boys, and even grown people, from cutting these beautiful shrubs all to pieces. They go along and slash off branches with meir pocket knives, and even go at night and back them with hatchets. Such Such vandalism does not speak highly of the persons guilty of such a trifling theft, and yet apparently animated by a desire to possess something beautiful, and at the holiday time of the year. Such persons cannot estimate the influence of their example very highly.—Salem Journal.

Riddance of City Boarders.

John Donnelly, an ordinary vag, was brought before Police Judge Levens this morning and received a sen-tence of $15 or seven days. He said he thought he could raise it and the judge turned him loose to go and make a raise. The last seen of him he was hitting the high places up the track, which was what the judge had counted on. It is the easiest and the cheapest way of getting rid of this class of gentry.—Baker City Herald.

Wool Growers Prosperous. The meeting of the Idaho Wool Growers' association was held in Boise this week. President McMillan and Secretary Gwynne addressed the meeting and reported the condition of the association. It was shown that he association was on better footing than ever. Over 100 new members have been added to the roll and the organization was on a sound financial basis.—Boise Capital News.
