Satisfactory Boat Service.

Judge W. J. Mariner of Bialock, and Smith Brothers of the same place are the men behind the steamboat now running on the middle Columbia, now running on the middle Columbia, the enterprise being a private ven-ture, partly experimental, but deemed sufficiently promising by the operat-ors to warrant their bringing a ship-builder from Portland to put the boat up. While preparations did not be-come known to any extent while in progress, a boat was constructed at Bialock. This winter Smith Brothers and Judge Mariner will enlarge and and Judge Mariner will enlarge and improve it for still more active serbaby actions.-Weiser Signal

It secures wheat car-goes principally from the Washington side in Klickitat county, carrying them to Biggs and turning them over to the O. R. & N. at that point. It is claimed that $1 a ton is saved on wheat from Bialock to Biggs by the more difference in fesiely rate. Conmere difference in freight rate. Cor-responding economies are effected from points either way-Walla Walla Union.

Rent Business Booming.

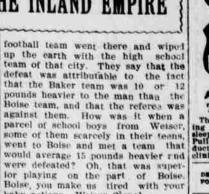

The quietness of Chase avenue was disturbed yesterday by a unique in-cident that was more amusing to spectators than to the participants. A house for rent had been placed with two real estat spectators than to the participants. A house for rent had been placed with two real estate agents, one of whom rented to a tenant early in the morn-us and the state agents are as a spectrum of the morn-the morn the state agents are as a spectrum of the state agent and the morn-the state agent age ing and the other to a second tenant an hour later.

The tenants arrived simultaneous-c. perched on drays carrying their household goods. Expostulations and assurances that each had rented the house were in vain and complications were increased when a delivery wagon arrived with groceries for one the c renter. The tangle was not straightened until one of the real estate agents was called upon to settle the right of tenantship. The matter was satisfactorily ad-justed and the tenant who was mov-ing in first got the hruse—Walla Walls Union

Trunkful of Nuggets,

W. D. Cross, who has the distinction of having discovered the new Owl creek gold fields, 60 miles north-west of Salmon City, Lemhi county, Idaho, has reached his home at Port Crane, N. Y., where he is evidently driving the natives crazy with exhibi-tions of golden nuggets and quartz inden with the precious metal. The district is reported by Idaho mining men to be one of unusual merit, but it is doubtful if there is anything to warrant the exodus that is being planned from the vicinity of Mr. Cross' home.—Boise Capital News.
