MRS. REED'S CONCERT.

Noted Singer Will Be at the Frazier, Assisted by Mrs. Sherman Brown, Violinist, on Wednesday Evening.

Mrs. Walter Reed, of Portland, the noted singer, who has charmed Pendleton audiences several times in the past, will appear at the Frazier on Tuesday evening in a high-class musical program, assisted by Mrs. Sherman Brown, also of Portland, one of the popular violinists of the metropolis, and Miss Gertrude Whittemore, of this city, accompanied as pianist by Professor Marshall, of Portland.

H. Nelson has arranged the program and has secured a large number of subscriptions to the concert, which will be under his direction.

Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Brown are the leading musicians of the Portland theatrical circles and Miss Whittemore has just returned from a six months' course in voice culture at San Francisco, and the program promises to be highly entertaining. Those who have subscribed to the concert are requested to secure their seats early.

SUIT TO RECOVER.

Action Brought for Over Twelve Hundred Dollars.

A suit was filed this morning by H. E. Collier in the case of Elmer Payard vs. Adalard Payard and W. McBride. It is a suit to recover on a list of cattle and other chattels owned by the plaintiff and taken by the defendants. The property is valued at $1,175.50.

The plaintiff asks for $100 additional damages and for the costs and disbursements of the action.

Musical and Educational Treat.

On Monday evening, December 21, a program of unusual interest will be given in the Presbyterian church. Prominent among the various features of superior merit will be the reading by Mrs. W. H. Bleakney, a graduate of King's School of Oratory, Pittsburg, Pa., and the musical selections by Miss Gertrude Whittemore, a Pendleton young lady, who is winning her way to wide popularity as a whistler and vocalist. All over the genuinely artistic in these lines, are offered an evening of thorough enjoyment. One of Mrs. Bleakney's selections will be "The Charlot Race, from "Ben Hur." The complete program will be published later.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the kind friends and to the Masonic lodge, who have extended their help and sympathy during the illness and death of our brother, Carl Mueller.

ECHO SCHOOL BONDS CARRY.

Citizens Vote $3,500 for a New School House in the "Rabbit City."

Echo, Dec. 14.—At the special school election held here Saturday afternoon, the bond issue of $3,500 was unanimously carried, and work on the new schoolhouse will begin at once.

The foundation is already complete and the building will probably be ready by the first of the year. There are now 79 scholars in the two rooms and the school is in a very prosperous condition, under the able management of Miss Celestine Moorhouse, of Pendleton, and Miss Duncan.
