AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Troublesome Technicalities.

For several days there has been great woe and gnashing of teeth among the patrons of the Boise post-office, all because of departmental rules. People have been going up to the registry window of the office with all kinds of packages of Christmas goods which they desired to have sent to their friends in distant places. The rules of the department require that all registered packages or letters must show in one corner the sender's name and address, and where this has been omitted by the mailer of Christmas gifts he or she is necessarily sent back to supply the deficiency, and if there is a line waiting to be waited upon by the stamp and registry clerk the delinquent patron is compelled to again get in line and slowly work the way back to the window—Boise Statesman.

Long Creek Justice.

A small boy crawled under the bed one day when his mother wanted to punish him. She could not get in without considerable difficulty, and decided to let him remain there until his father returned from work in the evening. When he arrived and was told about the case he started under the bed to bring out the disobedient son, but was very much astonished when the little fellow called out, "Hello, Dad, is she after you, too?"—Long Creek Light.

Taxpayer Pays the Bill.

Judge W. E. Richardson of the superior court of Spokane county, the clerk of his court, two bailiffs and 12 jurors were occupied all day Friday and far into the night over a suit for $1.65. Costs for the maintenance of the court for that day, amounting to at least $50, must be paid from the pockets of the taxpayers, that two men might determine the ownership of $1.65 and some lawyers get an attorney fee of $10.—Spokesman-Review.

A Real Menagerie.

A trapping story that goes the limit comes to us this week through C. H. Burkholder, who vouches for the truthfulness of the same. E. D. Handy, who lives south of Latham, one day last week set 12 traps and on his first visit to them he found each one to have captured game, the variety of which makes the story more interesting than common. Of the 12 traps, one contained an owl, three a flying squirrel each, three a polekettle each, and two a skunk each, one a woodrat, one a yellowhammer and one a marten, the fur producers, for which Mr. Burkholder paid Mr. Handy $2.50 for the hide. Mr. Burkholder states that the marten is so rare that properly dressed and put on the market they sell for $50.—Cottage Grove Leader.

To Benefit the Girls.

The Sociological society of the First Presbyterian church, after its regular banquet, last night, decided to take up the cause of the working girl of Seattle, and will endeavor to secure an agreement from all the large department stores to close at 6 o'clock on Saturday evenings. The movement toward this splendid crusade grew out of an eloquent address by Attorney E. H. James, who has thoroughly investigated the condition of the working girls in Seattle—Seattle Star.

Sugar Bounty War.

If ever a man got himself cordially disliked, that man is State Auditor Turner, of Idaho. Numerous stockholders in the Idaho sugar companies were flabbergasted at his action over the bounty question last week. Those who do not own shares are grinning a broad and expansive smile and are inclined to "rub it in" to those who got in on the ground floor when the Idaho companies were first floated.—Boise Capital News.

Danger on Mountain Trails.

L. R. Rusk, foreman in charge of the Platts group of mining properties, located on the North Pole divide, was in the city yesterday on business. Mr. Rusk crossed the divide on the hard snow, without the aid of snow shoes, as the crust formed is quite firm. A few days past he was caught in a small snowslide, which carried him 200 feet, but without injury, as the snow has not sufficient depth yet to move freely on the steep slopes.—Sunset Reporter.

Wheat, loose, per ton, $12. Timothy, baled, per ton, $20.

LOCAL HIDE MARKET.

The following are the prevailing average prices for hides in this market: beef, green, 4c per lb.; beef, dry, 10@13c; mink, 50c each, with a possibility of $1 each if t.e. size is good and the condition prime; coyote, 50@75c; bear skins, according to quality and size, from $3 to $15; coon, 35@40c; horse, $1@1.25; with head, tail and mane, $1@1.25; sheep, green, 6c; sheep dry, 7@8c; lynx or bob cat, 15@20; skunk, 25c; badger, 15@30.

TO SETTLE PLANT ESTATE.

Big Fight Over Seventeen Million Dollar Estate Coming to an End. New Haven, Conn., Dec. 15.—The contest over the $17,000,000 estate of the late Henry Bradley Plant, the Southern railroad and steamship magnate, is probably at an end, the case coming up for a final hearing before Judge Cleveland here today.

The will of Mr. Plant, who died in 1899, provided an annuity for Charles E. Hoadley and Horace G. Hoadley, of Waterbury. When the executors won the New York court's approval of the claim that Mr. Plant was a resident of that state, they placed with a trust company a fund to secure the payment of the annuity to the Hoadleys. Contest was brought by the latter in Connecticut to prevent the further removal of the estate, and also a suit was brought praying for the removal of the executors on the ground that they were acting illegally.

Today's hearing was on a petition filed by the Hoadleys, asking that the proceedings in this state be made ancillary to those in New York, which action indicates that a settlement has been effected, and that the suits brought by the Hoadleys will not be pressed.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her." Guaranteed by Tollman & Co., druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.
