

Grand Concert

Prager's Theatre

Wednesday Evening, Dec. 16

At the head of this concert is Mrs. Walter Reed, the famous singer, assisted by Mrs. Sherman D. Brown, one of the greatest violin players in the west. These two ladies are recognized as the leaders of music in the west.

Prof. E. Motschman, the pianist of exquisite touch will render Lohengrim, Wagner's masterpiece, and will also play accompaniments.

This event should be attended by all Pendleton people as it is an opportunity to hear a concert of the highest order and one that does not come often.

It was only by special effort and by guaranteeing the participants in this concert that they were induced to come.

Mrs. Reed will render the following selections during the evenings entertainment.

- Shadows.....Carrie Jacobs Bond
- Shouggie Show, Ma Bairnie, a mother's song.....Henschel
- La Danza, [Tarantella Napoletanna].....Donzetti
- The Danza.....Chadwick

STATUE OF HEROES

ARTISTIC FOUNTAIN TO BE ERECTED IN PORTLAND

Memorial to Lewis, Clark and Sacajawea Designed for the Exposition by B. J. Barrett of Portland—Figure Will Be Forty Feet High and on Magnificent Plan.

Portland, Dec. 15.—Representing discovery, exploration, development, the conquerors and the natives, there stands in the studio of B. J. Barrett, a Portland sculptor, a model in clay of a fountain, for the Lewis and Clark fair grounds, which for originality in design and perfection of execution has seldom if ever been equaled on the Pacific Coast.

The plan calls for a structure 70 feet long and 40 feet high, surrounded by a deep basin. The main portion of the fountain will represent cliffs surmounted by a rugged plateau upon which is depicted "Civilization" mounted on a thoroughbred horse, and an Indian maiden, "Sacajawea," pointing to the great beyond.

At the feet of the life-sized figures, babbling brooks will send their waters down the rough sides of the cliffs in two waterfalls, one representing Bridal Veil and the other Multnomah.

Here and there, where nature might enable a tree to take root among the shelves of the rough hillside, fir trees are designed and will be cut from sandstone. From crevices in the rocks bears, cougars and other wild animals protrude, while at the base of the fountain stand deer and buffalo, in the act of drinking the sparkling waters that flow from above.

On another side of the base is a miner's cabin close to an Indian camp. Here are shown conditions as they were in the early days of Oregon.

The design has been submitted to the Lewis and Clark art committee for consideration. If accepted, Mr. Barrett proposes to erect the fountain of Oregon sandstone and leave it as a lasting monument to Lewis and Clark. Miss Lizzie O'Neil of Portland and Miss Rose Wilcox of Hillsboro are assisting Mr. Barrett in his work.

DESERTER CAPTURED.

City Marshal of La Grande Captures Soldier Wanted in 'Frisco.

La Grande, Dec. 15.—Marshal Rayburn left last evening for Walla Walla in charge of a man who is charged with being a deserter from the United States army. The man has been in the city the greater part of the time for the past year and a half. A part of the time he has been working at the various chop houses, but for the past few weeks he has been tending bar at the Blue Front saloon.

His true name is G. W. Beken, but he has been using George French as his name here. He deserted from San Francisco, but escaped from the officers before he could be returned to the fort.

EXECUTION AT CALGARY.

Ernest Cashel Pays Penalty for Killing Isaac Rufus Bell.

Calgary, N. W. T., Dec. 15.—One of the most cold-blooded murder cases in the criminal annals of the Northwest closed today with the execution of Ernest Cashel. Cashel's crime was the murder of Isaac Rufus Bell, a settler in the Red Deer district, who had befriended him. The body was thrown in the Bow river.

The crime was committed in October, 1902, but the body was not discovered until last July, when it was identified by relatives. Cashel was traced from place to place by the mounted police and finally arrested near Calgary.

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

for $500 on the Scandinavian-American bank, and who afterward tried to create the impression that he had crowded himself, was arraigned yesterday before Judge Cann on the charge of forgery.

His bond was fixed at $1,500, in default of which amount he was sent to the county jail. A hearing of the case will be given December 22. The boy's mother pleaded for his release.

ILLINOIS ORCHARDISTS.

Forty-Eighth Annual Convention at Champaign.

Champaign, Ill., Dec. 15.—Prominent fruit growers of several states were present today at the opening of the forty-eighth convention of the Illinois State Horticultural society. The sessions, which are to continue three days, are being held in the agricultural building of the University of Illinois.

The program of the opening day included the reading of papers as follows: "Gem Melons for Profit," W. S. Ross; "The Apple Package," Prof. J. C. Blair; "The Development of Illinois Horticulture," Dean Davenport of the University of Illinois; "Effects of Frost on the Foliage," W. S. Perrine.

A leading feature of the open session this evening is to be an illustrated lecture on "Some Winter Studies of Apple Orchards," by Professor Whittem, of the University of Missouri.

When the annual meeting of the Northwest Fruit Growers' association takes place in Portland, January 12, 13 and 14, the question of freight rates, an important one for the Walla Walla valley, will be brought up not only by the Walla Walla delegation, but by many of the rest of the members.—Walla Walla Union.

GUARD HEALTH

Every woman should see that the periodical function is kept in a healthy condition. The way is to take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui.

Every woman is subject to conditions which bring on female weakness. Wine of Cardui gives women strength for all the duties of life. It gives them strong nerves and freedom from pains.

Wine of Cardui not only cures but guards the health. The organs quickly respond to the healing vegetable ingredients of which Wine of Cardui is composed. A healthy woman does well to take this medicine on approaching her periodical sickness. Wine of Cardui cures the worst cases of prolonged female troubles and has cured thousands of them quickly and completely in the privacy of home.

CHICAGO, MISS., May 1, 1902.

Wine of Cardui and Thesford's Black-Draught is a sure cure for all female diseases. I recommend your medicines to all my friends everywhere I go. Five months ago I could not walk across the house without great pain but I am well again. I have only taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui but feel better than I have felt in two years.
