The main ceremonies will take Arrangements Being Made for State Editor of the east Oregonian.

Dear Sir:—For many years an editor myself, I address you by request Grays' Harbor Com. Co. Place in the Cabilloo, the government house under the Spanish and French nouse under the Spanish and French regimes, now the supreme court building. It has been furnished exactly as it was on the day of the transfer. The exercises will include the reading of the original transfer, and Loussat, Ciaiborne, Wilkinson and other commissioners will be represented by prominent citizens in the costumes of the times.

The religious ceremonies in the St. Louis cathedral will be identical with those of a hundred years ago, and the salute will be ared from Jackson Square (formerly the Face d'Armes) and from cannon a centery old.

The Colonial exhibit will remain open a month in the Archiepiscopal palace, formerly the Ursuline con-vent, the oldest public ouilding in the Mississippi valley. The exhibit will include a large number of interesting relies which have been preserved by the Creole families of New Orleans.
The program as finally completed to the amount of fully $300,000 a reception and ball in the Cabildo The celebrated beauties of New Or-leans will dance the minuet in costumes duplicating those of colonia days, and an old fashioned New Or colonial leans supper will interrupt the danc-ing at midnight. This event is in charge of the ladies of the Historical society, its patronesses representing the best and oldest families of New Orleans.

Saturday morning the commemorative exercises will be held in the Cabildo at which there will be addresses by Governor Heard and the French and Spanish ambassadors, followed by a military parade and a navai review before the city. In the evening the guests of the city will attend a special gala performance at the French opera house.

Sunday, which will be the real cen-
