AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Umatilla Against the World.

There have been many stories told about the Oregon climate and Oregon winters, but for something that can be proven beyond doubt, how is this? Mr. Todd, who has his cattle wintering south of town says that in the Dave Dorio field, where the corn shredder was at work a short time ago, some of the shelled grain was dropped and that he can there show green corn sprouts four inches long that have grown in the last two weeks. This would show that the entire growth has been made in the month of December. It is to be presumed that this corn will meet with a frost before it matures, but just the same these grains have sprouted and sent forth green shoots over four inches long in the middle of an Eastern Oregon winter. We are now ready to hear from the next man.—Adams Advance.

What Idaho Women Are Doing.

The Woman's Columbian club met in regular session this afternoon with a splendid attendance. The report of the committee appointed to raise funds for furnishing the room in the woman's building at the St. Louis exposition was read and approved. The total amount which the Second District federation of women's clubs has pledged is $1,000, and with the rapid strides already made by the clubs the sum will soon be forthcoming.—Boise Capital News.

Progressive Idaho Towns.

Two carloads of electric supplies, including the generator, street arc lamps and other fittings, arrived in Rexburg, Monday, and early Tuesday morning a force of men were at work unloading the cars, while another force was hanging the arc lights along the streets. It is expected that the machinery will be installed and everything in complete condition to turn the lights on by Christmas Eve.—Rexburg Current.

Irrigation Activity.

One of the largest mass meetings ever held in Caldwell was called to order at Armory hall last night by R. A. Cowden. The meeting was called for the purpose of devising plans by which the United States government might be encouraged in its proposed plans for the watering of arid and semi-arid lands in Boise and Payette valleys.—Boise Capital News.

Hot Shot from Mars.

Wednesday night Robert Wilson of Fossil, saw a meteor fall on Mule Shoe butte, 22 miles southeast of Fossil. He secured it next morning and placed it on exhibition at the Fossil public school. It appeared to be round and about the size of a man's fist when falling. It was flattened by the fall, and the present size is 12x24 inches and 4 inches thick.—Dalles Chronicle.

Anti-Smoot Petitions.

Blank petitions have been received here for signatures requesting the expulsion of Reed Smoot from the United States senate. If he is found to be a polygamist, a copy will be placed in the hands of each of the local ministers and they will probably be actively circulated around the city.—Walla Walla Union.

Outgrowing Her Old Shell.

The court house is now the actual property of Gilliam county, the building having been inspected and accepted by the board of county commissioners on Monday and final settlement being made with the contractor, A. F. Peterson. The job done by Mr. Peterson is altogether satisfactory to the county authorities and the building is one of which every citizen of the county may feel justly proud. The county offices are being moved this week from the old shack which has for so many years been honored with the title of "court house," and the officials will soon be settled down to business better prepared than ever before, so far as surroundings and conveniences are concerned, to attend to public business.—Condon Globe.

Official Brand Book.

Work is progressing as rapidly as possible on the Wallawa county brand book. It cannot be completed as soon as was calculated for the reason that the number of brands secured is twice as great as was calculated in the beginning. It was figured at first that there were about 300 in use in the county, but when they were collected it was found that the number almost reached 600, which of course necessitates twice as much work when it comes to printing. The book, however, will be twice as valuable to the subscribers when they receive it.—Wallowa Chieflain.

THE LONDON POOR

INCREASING NUMBER OF THE UNEMPLOYED

System of Relief Heretofore Used Was Faulty and Amendments to It Are Proposed—"Potato Pingree's" Plans May Be Put into Execution to Relieve the Congestion of Idle Folks.

London, Dec. 21.—Though everyone in the great English metropolis appears to be preparing for the Christmas festivities just now, with the shops doing a big business and everyone apparently spending money freely, those who see under the surface of things detect unmistakable evidences of the approach of hard times. Though London always has a standing army of unemployed, it is quite evident of late that its ranks are being recruited at a startling rate.

The fact that it has been deemed advisable to resuscitate the old Mansion House committee on the unemployed shows which way the wind is blowing. Those interested in the matter express the hope that the committee will change its plan of procedure so that substantial and beneficial results may be accomplished. The committee was formed a number of years ago just after the West End had been terrorized by the crowd of hungry men marching in riotous procession from a meeting in Trafalgar Square.

The alarm created by this demonstration opened the pockets of the millionaires of Mayfair and Belgravia, and money flowed freely into the committee's treasury. It was distributed, however, in so foolish and indiscriminate a manner that, in the opinion of many expert workers among the poor, it did more harm than good. It undoubtedly attracted to London a while army of loafers from the provinces and the result was that the worthy unemployed were cheated out of their share of the relief funds.

A novel plan for the relief of the rapidly increasing number of unemployed has been proposed and is just now the subject of much discussion. This is that the government acquire the large areas of derelict lands in Essex and Suffolk and gave profitable and healthful employment to many thousands of men in the work of foresting the lands.

FOR LEWISTON CANNERY.

Citizens Have Already Subscribed $3,000, but $1,000 More is Needed. Speaking of Lewiston's proposed fruit cannery, the Lewiston Tribune says:

Mr. Walsh reported that $3,000 had already been subscribed and that but $1,000 more was needed to bring the cannery to Lewiston and place the machinery in readiness for operation. It would then be necessary to have $4,000 more to commence the operation of the plant, but this money could be raised after the plant was in position, and the people could see in what they were investing their money.

The plant is to be turned into the company for $7,500 in stock, but this will not give Mr. Walsh a controlling interest, as each stockholder will be entitled to but one vote and the company will be formed before the Walsh stock is issued. The compensation of Mr. Walsh is fixed at $75 per month as manager of the cannery until the stockholders have received a 10 per cent dividend upon the investment, after which Mr. Walsh's wages are to be advanced to $150 per month.

CREAMERY FOR LEWISTON.

Salem Company Proposes to Start a First Class Business.

A movement is now on foot for establishing a large creamery in Lewiston that will serve the entire reservation country, a large portion of the Potlatch country and the country in the immediate vicinity of the city.

The plan is being promoted by the Salem Creamery company, of Salem, Oregon, and the details and arrangements here are in the hands of A. Hansen of East Lewiston. George D. Goodhue, manager of the Salem Creamery company, visited Lewiston during the fair and spent about two weeks in the country after the fair closed.

From a careful canvass of the resources of the country, Mr. Goodhue is confident that no better field exists in the Northwest for the creamery business than in the Lewiston country.—Lewiston Tribune.

The Lone Star State.

Down in Texas at Yoskum is a big dry goods firm of which Mr. J. M. Haller is the head. For the "dark brown" taste, headache and that lousy feeling DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills to use. Sold by Tollman & Co.
