

Shoes - Beautiful - Shoes

Long lived and luxuriously comfortable are not a dream by any means. They can be, and are made. They are scarce only because most stores insist on good fat profits. The best Three Dollar Shoe for Women will not stand fat profits, or they would not be the best. Queen Quality $3.00 shoes for women are such shoes, and we unhesitatingly offer them with the assurance that there are no others so good.

"To Fetch the People you must Serve Them Well"

OUR FAITH

In this doctrine is manifested in the great success we have met with in the sale of good products. We have always tried to serve the public well—not well today, passably so tomorrow, and well enough the next day—but "always good alike."

That we have "fetched" the people there is no gainsaying.

Trade is won and held by the sale of meritorious goods. Evidence of this fact is not far to seek.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Concerning the People of Pendleton and Vicinity • Notes Personal and Otherwise • By Our Regular Correspondent

The festivities of Christmas are now a thing of the past and the pleasure-seeker is looking forward to the enjoyments attendant upon the New Year's holiday.

While social events of the past two weeks have been few in number, many family affairs have taken place, and out-of-town relatives and friends entertained, as is always the custom during the holiday period. The many young people who are attending foreign schools, have returned to their parental abodes to partake of the good things mother makes, and the good cheer incident to the season.

It is rumored that for some time the young ladies have been making preparations for a leap year entertainment of some sort, at which they will act as escorts, hosts and general "good fellows" in an effort to reciprocate for the four years of attention paid them by their masculine friends.

Arrangements are in progress by many of our gentlemen to hold open house at several homes New Year's evening, while their lady friends are anticipating the jolly time ahead, calling on these receivers.

The Year.

What can be said in New Year rhymes.

That's not been said a thousand times?

The new years come, the old years go.

We know we dream, we dream we know.

We rise up laughing with the light, We lie down weeping with the night.

We hug the world until it stings, We curse it then and sigh for wings.

We live, we love, we woo, we wed, We wreathe our brides, we sheath our dead.

We laugh, we weep, we hope, we fear, And that's the burden of the year.

—Eva Wheeler Wilcox.

Open Houses New Years.

New Year's day being the beginning of leap year, it will be the ladies' turn to call on the gentlemen on that day, and a few of them have signified their intentions to keep open house.

Different little parties are being formed by the ladies with the intention of calling on their gentlemen friends who are playing the part of hosts.

At the home of Thomas Ayres, on Water street, the following gentlemen will assist Mr. Ayres in receiving: Dr. Vincent, J. V. Tallman, C. J. Ferguson, G. A. Hartman, Sr., T. C. Warner, Dr. Vaughn, Frank Frazier, Fred Lampkin and Win Stewart.

At the home of Frank Clopton, Fred Judd, Leon Cohen and T. G. Hailey will assist as hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brock will also keep open house.

Arnold-Dupuis.

At 7 o'clock on Christmas eve, at the parsonage of the Baptist church, Miss Hazel Arnold and Edward R. Dupuis were united in marriage by Rev. R. W. King, the pastor of that church. A few of the most intimate friends of the bride and groom were a motive in color, having first a line of Caroline Testout, followed by the pink La France, covering nearly a block, then another of white La France, ending with a longer line of the Ulric Bruner, a beautiful red rose. In all we have four varieties. These have been selected for their good health, good habits and their beauty. They are continuous bloomers from early spring until winter arrives, with his icy touch—a movable season with us, slow-moving this year, for yesterday in inspecting the roses we were enabled to tell which was which by the newly-opened buds, still upon the bushes, even after being transplanted.

Plea for Manual Training.

In local club news there is nothing of importance to report except the fine address of Mr. E. M. Bruce, of the Weston Normal school before the Women's Club on Tuesday afternoon. It was a strong plea for the wider introduction of manual training in the public school. Of the educational value of such training there is no doubt in the minds of many thinking people today. Every year sees its adoption in new places. Through this work the number of pupils is largely increased and boys are kept longer in school.
