A "Small Pox" Party We have heard much about "walk-ing typhoid," but the latest is "dancing smallpox," a case of which made its appearance in the Bernard family at the Floyd ranch, five miles from the city, its victim being the head of the family. Charles Bernard. The neighbors had been invited to a dance the The for last Saturday night and although Mr. Bernard was not feeling well, he determined not to spoil the fun and the dance went on, Bernard doing the grand as host. Of course everybody had a good time; but the aftermath was the most interesting feature of the proceedings, for when a physician was called next day, he pronounced Mr. Bernard's malady "smallpox," Mr. and when his guests learned the diagnosis they immediately proceeded to join in a grand march for disinfectants.-Dalles Chronicle

Will Irrigate and Mine Extensively. County Clerk Combs received arti-les of incorporation through the mails this morning from the Pine Lakes Ditch and Reservoir company. written by Professor Hitchcock, of Amherst college, to his friend, Prof. Henry D. Rogers, of Philadelphia, April 4, 1838.

Correspondence among the geologists and naturalists of those days continued for some time, and finally in April, 1840, the "Association of American Geologista" was founded in Philadelphia. At the third meeting of the Society of Geologists at Boston the naturalists joined, and the name was changed to the Association of American Geologists and Nat Aralists.

In 1848, with a membership of 161, the American Association for the Ad-vancement of Science was definitely founded, and its first meeting was held in Philadelphia. Since that time 52 meetings have been held, those for 1861 to 1865 inclusive being omitted on account of the great disturbance on account of the great disturbance consequent to the civil war. Of the body of men who met in Philadelphia in 1848 there are alive today: Samuel L. Abbott of Boston, Martin H. Boyce of Coopersburg and Wolcott Gibbs of Newport. The con-stitution which was adopted at the Philadelphia meeting remains today in all its essentials, and its first clause sets forth the broad objects for which the association was the association was for which formed.

The association showed a fluctuating membership from its foundation until 1875; then gradually increased ontil 1879, when it numbered 2,037. There was a slight falling off in the There was a sight taking of it of next six or seven years, but the in-crease began again in 1900, and it now numbers over 4,000. The names of nearly all the prominent scientific men of America are to be found in the volumes of the proceedings of the available in a sector. 1 can heartily recommend Acker's Tablets for Dyspepsia and Stomach Troubles. Who Will Succeed T. J. Hickey as Man Bobs Up it is Possible That No President Will Be Elected

Chicago, Dec. 28.—Who shall suc-coed T. J. Hickey as president is the principal matter to be decided at the annual meeting of the American Baseball association, begun today at the Grand Pacific hotel. Circuit changes and other matters of improvements of the statements of the state

Circuit changes and other matters of importance will come up, but the paramount question before the meet-ing is that concerning the presidency. At a meeting of the association in October, President Hickey gave no-tice that he would retire from base-hall and contex from the presidency. ball and resign from the presidency Since then the magnates have been to the present time it appears that they have not been able to decide who it shall be.

It has been reported that Hickey resignation has a string to it and that he is not so anxious to get out of th However this may be, the chances appear to be against his retention of the presidency in view of the strong opposition of Tebeau of Louisville
