Rate War Ended. It is announced by the O. R. & N. company that the Spencer, the independent boat that has been causing the rate war from The Dalles to Portland, has been taken from the river and that the Bailey Gatzert, the O. R. & N. boat, had also been taken off the run so that now the same normal rates exist from Portland to The Dalles and all intermediate points as were in effect on and before September 1. Only the boats of the Regulator line will now be run.

USE ARTIFICIAL ICE BREAKS THE RECORD

IS SUPERSEDING ICE FROM NORTHERN SOURCES.

Only Natural Ice That Will Be Used in Pendleton Next Year Will Be Put Up by the O. R. & N.—Brewers and Other Heavy Consumers Will Use Product of the Pendleton Ice & Cold Storage Plant.

The North Powder ice is a thing of the past in this city, for it has been decided by Mr. Kopittke that he will not ship ice from that section into the city this winter, but will handle the artificial ice if he is in the business at all.

Last year he shipped into the city about 300 tons of ice from Meacham and other points, for the local trade. This is about the amount that was sold to private consumers, though the estimated consumption of ice in the city for the year will reach close to the 5,000-ton mark. A great deal of this amount was natural ice which had been furnished to the brewery here and to the other places where a large amount of ice was used. This year all of these places will use the artificial product, the local output having a practical monopoly on the trade.

The O. R. & N. company will put eight carloads of ice into the storehouse at the depot, and all this will be sent in from their pond on the North Powder.

It will make an iceberg of about 160 tons or more, and while it is a small amount, it will be enough for the use of the company at this station. The other points along the line will also be supplied from the North Powder, so that the loss of the local trade will not mean much to the men who each winter make a little pile of money from the work of gathering the ice from the ponds at that place.

During the cold part of the winter over 100 men are each year employed by the company at North Powder to harvest their ice crop and load it for shipment over the line to where it is needed during the heat of the summer. At each station where the trains stop for a change of crews the ice tanks are refilled and at these places the company has store houses where they each year store enough ice to last them through the summer, and until the cold weather has made it possible to restock their houses.

These men will find but little change in the amount of their labors by the installation of the ice plant in this city, for what they sent here was but a small part of the total output. Pendleton will be cooled by artificial ice next year at every point except the depot, as both of the icemen will get their supply from the same source. The new brewery will have a plant of its own, and all of the people will have ice for every event fresh from the distillery and guaranteed to be pure.

BUSINESS COLLEGE MOVEMENTS

Matter of the Reorganization of the Modern School of Commerce Will Be Discussed by Commercial Association.

The matter of the reorganization and incorporation of the Modern School of Commerce, including the branch in this city and the one at La Grande, is progressing satisfactorily.

The citizens of La Grande have shown great interest in the incorporation of the two schools and considerable of the stock has been subscribed there already.

The matter will be brought before the meeting of the Pendleton Commercial Association by the promoters of the plan, on next Tuesday night, in view of securing encouragement from that body in establishing the school on a firm foundation in this city.

The school is in good condition, and if the plan for the formation of a joint stock company succeeds, it will be enlarged and placed in position to teach more fully all the branches included in a full business course. Several prominent citizens have taken an interest in the matter in this city and there is every prospect that the incorporation will be effected.

FALLS FAMILY ILL.

One Sick With Inflammatory Rheumatism and Four With Typhoid Fever.

The family of M. C. Falls, who lives in the west end of town below the Walters flour mill, is almost entirely out of commission with sickness. Three of the children are now down with typhoid fever, one is just recovering from a severe attack of typhoid and Mr. Falls himself is confined to his bed with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.

Mrs. Falls is about the only well member of the family left to care for the sick. Mr. Falls is a member of the G. A. R., and that order has visited and cared for the family this week, but further attention must be given them by their friends.

Harney County Murderer Repents.

A Salem special says Harry Egbert, the convicted murderer of Deputy Saxton and West, and sentenced to be hanged at the penitentiary, January 29, 1904, has confessed religion, made a clean breast of all his crimes and professed to be sorrowful and repentant. In the seclusion of his death cell, on Thursday last, he was baptized by Rev. E. W. St. Pierre, the prison chaplain.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned desires to express his thanks to the many friends who kindly assisted in the illness and death of his son, Charles E. Walker.

RECEIPTS FOR TWO MONTHS IN THE RECORDER'S OFFICE

Nearly Nine Hundred Dollars Taken in Luring November and December as Fees for Recording Deeds, Mortgages, Releases, Etc.—On the Contrary, Business Has Been Slow in the Clerk's Office.

The county recorder's office has been doing more business this month and last than it has before in the history of the office. The fees that have been received in these two months for the recording of deeds, mortgages and other instruments amount at the present time to nearly $900, which is by many dollars the largest amount that has ever been taken into the office in two consecutive months.

The fees in the office of the county clerk and recorder are turned into the hands of the treasurer as soon as the day's work is done, and at the end of each two months the books are gone over and made to tally with the accounts of the treasurer. Each day the treasurer signs a receipt for the amount that he receives from both of the other offices, and at the end of the two months he again O. K.'s the books when they are submitted for the approval of the county court.

While the business of the county recorder's office has been the busiest since the opening of the office, the clerk across the hall has not had so much to do. He depends to a great degree on the suits and actions at law which are filed for his office receipts, and it has been noted in the past few months that the people of the county seem to be more at peace with each other than for some time. Very few suits have been filed and the business of the office has suffered in consequence. However, it has not fallen far below the standard for this time of the year is usually a quiet one in this office.

AGAINST CATTLE STEALING.

Grant County Cattle Men Will Organize to Prevent "Rugging."

John Day, Dec. 30.—The growers of cattle in many sections of Grant county are considering the matter of forming local associations, one of the principal objects of which is to prevent and put a stop to the work of rustlers in this county.

It is not known, nor can one realize the number of cattle that disappear from the county each year, and possibly while only a small number of cattle that disappear from the county each year, and possibly while only a small number are stolen outright.

A large number of head drift into adjoining counties and on to strange ranges, and are never again recovered by their owners.

THE MASQUERADE BALL.

Grand Event of the Season at Music Hall Tomorrow Night.

The grand masquerade ball to be given at Music Hall tomorrow evening, promises to be one of the most largely attended and brilliant events of the kind ever given in Eastern Oregon. The gentlemen at the head of the ball are leaving nothing undone to make the affair a success, and will show all who attend a delightful evening. Good music has been arranged for and a fine program of dances will be given.

In order that all can get suitable costumes for the event, a representative of the Chicago Costume House, of Portland, has been brought to Pendleton with a very liberal supply of suits and masques, which are now displayed in the corner room in the Judd block, where selections can be made.

The costumes are offered at very low prices. The public is invited to attend the masquerade, and pass from the old year into the new, amid a scene of merriment. Cash prizes of $5 for the best lady character, and $5 for the best gentleman character, will be given.
