AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Unwelcome Visitors.

The police department made quick work yesterday of a quartet of "sure thing" artists that blew into town Saturday night. The party consisted of "Big Jim," who is known from the Atlantic to the Pacific as one of the most accomplished safe blowers in the country; Charley Barry, another noted crook, and two strangers. They had not been in town long enough to get the lay of the ground when the police spotted them and they were told that their presence here was not required and the best thing for them to do was to make themselves scarce. In other words, they were told that tickets were on sale at the depot for other parts of the country. They stood upon the order of going, but got out at once. "Big Jim" had with him a kit of burglar and safe cracking tools which he had made in Warsaw, Ill., a few years ago, which cost him $1,800. When accosted by the police, they denied their identity, but when they saw that further denial was of no use they gave in and agreed to leave. The police kept a close watch on them and saw them safely on the train.—Boise Capital News.

lector of Internal revenues. The saloon keeper never received a license and a revenue officer was about to make trouble for him, when he explained. The case was reported to the postoffice department.—Baker City Democrat.

A History of Hearts.

Marriage seems to be on the increase in Walla Walla with divorces growing more numerous in proportion. The number of licenses issued in 1901 was 178. In 1902 it was 214. In 1903 it was 229. Divorces for the same period totaled: In 1903, 38; 1902, 36; 1901, 29. The proportion of divorces to marriages in 1903 was about one in six. In Spokane it was one in four, showing that Walla Walla is somewhat more observant of the marriage tie than the sister city. The increase in marriages is accounted for by the natural growth of population and the fact that more and more outsiders are coming here to wed.—Walla Walla Union.

Ministers Form a Union.

The Spokane Clericus, comprising members of the Protestant Episcopal clergy in the city and the surrounding towns, was formed yesterday morning at a pleasant meeting held with Rev. J. Neilson Barry of Trinity Episcopal church. It will not have any regular presiding officer, but will meet with the various priests of the city and in each case the host will act as chairman. The principal event yesterday was an address by Rev. George C. Grove, formerly of Brooklyn, but now of Wallace, Idaho.—Spokesman-Review.

Rest for Drug Clerks.

Even the druggists of the city have decided to take life a little easier and today they agreed to close their places of business each evening at 9 o'clock, except Saturday. On Sundays they will close from 2 to 5 and again at 7. One of the most religiously inclined suggested that a fine of $1.50 be imposed for non-attendance at church, but the others seemed to agree that it was too hard a pill to swallow unless they agreed to turn over a new leaf with the new year.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Health Too Good.

Considering that the health of the community would warrant the move, the council has dispensed with the services of a special health officer, which position C. L. Schmidt has held for the past few months.—Times-Mountaineer.

Inevitable Civilization.

It is estimated that real estate to the amount of $100,000 has changed hands in this section during this year. The most of the farms that have changed hands are on the Big Potlatch, a large German settlement being located there and having purchased heavily. The most of these settlers are well to do and many of them have built fine homes or will build during the coming year. There has been such a radical change of residents upon the Potlatch that it is hard to find the names of any of the old settlers who were the original occupants of the land. In exchange of property Juliaetta has had her share, more real estate having changed hands here this year than at any previous time in her history.—Juliaetta (Idaho) Enterprise.

Forgot to Do His Duty.

Since the publication of the shortage of Postmaster Kelly, of Greenhorn, a whole lot of people have known all about it for weeks past. One story told to the Sumpter Miner is alleged to be the cause of the special examination of the accounts of the office by the inspector. It is related that a saloon keeper at Greenhorn handed the postmaster $25 with which to pay for his government license, requesting him to issue a post-office order and send it to the col-

MARKET REVIEWED

The market situation seems to have been frozen by the cold weather of the last week, for there is hardly a change in any of the prices that have been quoted. The same list holds for this week that held for the past, and everything that could be found in the market a week ago is there now. The apple crop is fast nearing its close, though the prices quoted remain the same so far. There are a lot of apples in the country, but the time is coming fast when they will yield to decay and vanish from the stores. Already the farmers are having a hard time to keep the bad from the good, and it requires frequent and careful sorting to save the good apples now left. Those that are brought into the market are not of the best grade, for they are beginning to show that they are the last of the harvest. In a short time the apple will be a dream of the past and a hope of the future, like the watermelon and the grape.

Cured After Suffering 10 Years.

B. F. Hare, Supt. Miami Cycle & Mfg. Co., Middletown, O., suffered for ten years with dyspepsia. He spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and with doctors without receiving any permanent benefit. He says: "One night while feeling exceptionally bad I was about to throw down the evening paper when I saw an item in the paper regarding the merits of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I concluded to try it and while I had no faith in it I felt better after the second dose. After using two bottles I am stronger and better than I have been in years, and I recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to my friends and acquaintances suffering from stomach trouble." Sold by Tallman & Co.

WOOLMEN GET LOW RATE.

Harriman System Grants Forty-Cent Rate Nebraska to Idaho. Boise, Jan. 7.—The officers of the Idaho Woolgrowers' association have succeeded in securing a rate of 40 cents per 100 in carload lots on corn from Nebraska points. The rate is considered a very reasonable one, and as the rate will only be in force from January 20 to February 29, it is expected there will be a large amount shipped in. The following notice has been sent out by the officers of the association: "Boise, Ida., January 3, 1904.—We are advised that the railroad rates on whole corn only from all Nebraska points on Union Pacific will be 40 cents per 100 in carload lots of not less than 60,000 pounds each. Rate begins January 20th and ends February 29th, 1904."
