But back to shirt walsts! White will continue to reign unrivalled.

That much is assured. The new de-signs, whether of silk, or organdie, or satin, or the cheapest lawn, are in white. Trimmed? Most elaborately.

Lace is used with lavish hand and mingled in every imaginable way with other delicate and artistic trimmings.

Yokes will be a modish trimming for spring shirt waists, the round shapes sharing favor with irregular designs. This gives a splendid op-portunity to use the dainty insertions with famey stitchings.

New and Delicate Designs. Several delicate designs in organ-die, suisse and mousseline de soie have been noted. One that was parficularly pretty was of the first-nam al material with a yoko formed of Val-enciences tasertloa joined with featherst crue with white and gold silk. The yoke was finished on points bordered with a ruffle com-posed of Valenciennes insertion alternated with chiffon embroidery, then bound along the edge with organdie.

Another fetching model was shown in dead white liberty volle, a new maerial of diaphanous weaves and high duster. There was no yoke, but bands of irregular lengthed insertion these bands the blouse was tucked around and around the figure. The sloever were trimmed in the same way and caught into cuffs of lace m sertion. The latter is very becoming, espe cially to slender figures, but the round and round tucks are fatal to the outline of robust forms. Some beautiful belts and stocks ac of the latest neck finishings. Mexican Drawn Work. Nothing has held its own among fashionable trimmings like Mexican drawn work. This fact is no double due to the difficulty of imitating the descriptions and its well sustained price. It is shown in frocks of all descriptions and appears to especial advantage on a tailored design in coarse, wiry canvas. The Mexican drawn work is executed on the fab-ric itself, combined with crewel em-broidery. The canvas is a queer broidery. The canvas is a queer shade of light brown suggesting mlle or putty, it is uncertain which, and the embroidery is pale rose. A rose colored suede belt confines the bod-ice and is clasped with a big coral buckle. Matching the gown is an elegant moleskin coat lined with rose

IS IT ROCKEFELLER

Spokane Wonders Who is Back o the Famous Graves Road.

Spokane, Jan. 8.-Is the Rocketel-ler system behind the Graves road? The plan seems to be, says a man on the inside, for the O. R. & N. to work in harmony with the Graves people. The electric franchise also carries the right to haul freight from the Coeur d'Alene region to the boundary of Spokane. No route would be better for a link in a transcontinen-tal road. The Graves line is now surveying toward Wallace.

The large interests of Rockefeller in the lead mines makes it probable, it is said, that the carrying business will be also controlled. The maxim of the Rockefeller crowd is "neve allow anyone else to make a profit. The new road would be a great help to Spokane. It is also recalled that all supplies for the Graves road came over the O, R. & N.
