AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

Endless Fight Against Depravity.

The meeting of the Good Templars tonight will decide whether the petition to make Walla Walla a closed town shall be presented to the city town shall be presented to the city council or the local ministerial union. The Good Templars intend making a determined effort to remedy what they call the "wide open" manner in which the town is run.

At the last regular meeting of the Good Templars of this city it was de-Walla Walla a closed town in time Walla Walla a closed town in the noar future. With this end in view, a committee was appointed to draw up a pecifion and submit it to the members at the meeting this evening.

R. M. Palmer, deputy of the order, R. M. Palmer, deputy of the order, when interviewed on the subject last evening, was very enthusiastic, and declared it to be only a matter of time when it would be possible for the ladies and children of this city to have along Main street on the Sabto pass along Main street on the Sabbath without seeing the alleged sight of men in an intoxicated condition going in and out of the side doors of the various saloons on the principal thoroughfare of the city.—Walla Wallary Lines. la Union.

Telephone Line to Bend.

A company composed of W. A. Booth, P. B. Davis and G. M. Cornett, with a capital of $10,000, has been incorporated for the purpose of build-ing a telephone line between Prineville, Hend and Sisters. It is the present intention of the company to build to Cline Falls by the way of the Forest ranch, thence to Sisters and from there to Bend. Later it is expected to extend the line from For-est's place into the Haystack coun-The proposed line will be about miles in length and will meet decided approval by the different com-munities through which it passes.— Crook County Journal

Will Make Millionaires,
The American Hare Packing and
Cold Storage company has received the bills for boxes, laquer and paste and the fine lithographed labels are expected today from Portland. On Wednesday the cannery put up $200 worth of its product and there is now on hand $2.000 worth of stock which will be shipped as soon as labeled and cased. The company expects soon to sink its well 15 free degrees and cased. The company expects soon to sink its well 15 feet deeper and put up two large tanks like the one here belonging to the railroad, so that at all times they will have an abundant supply of water for all purposes.—Echo News.

Have Eyes on Sumpter.

J. C. Hillman, who recently purchased the Baker market, returned today from a visit to his family at Walla Walla.

Mr. Hillman reports quiet times at Walla Walls and says he received much inquiry in regard to business much inquiry in regard conditions in Sumpter from people conditions in Sum he fold them to come over and se-for themselves. He had investigated before investing, and was well satis-fied with the business he has ac-quired.—Sumpter Miner.

Portland, Jan. 9 .- The prospect of a war between Japan and Russia has caused a noticeable strength in the local wheat market and the quota-tions on all grades are higher toda/. Up the valley the smaller millers are still paying a premium over those prices quoted in this city. The ruling wheat prices today are: Walla Walla. 73 @74; bluestem, 78 @79; vailey, 77@78c. The market is firm at the new lists.

All Coffee Now Advanced. Late yesterday afternoon the local wholesale grocers were notified of an advance of 50 cents a hundred in the quotations on Lion brand of package coffee. This makes the list on East-ern package coffee stand at $14.25. The market is firm at the new lists.

Doings in Eggs. Many prices are still being quoted in the egg market today—from 26 to 28 cents. Receipts, although quite ineral, are not over large and the demand semes to be slightly improved with the lower figures now ruling. The very best eggs are today seiling from 274 to 28 cents, while the un-candled stocks, or under grades, are going from 26 to 27 cents,

BETTER GAS PLANT.

Walla Walla People Extending Electric and Gas Systems.

Carrying out a program of exten-sive improvements formulated at the time of the purchase of the system, the Northwestern Gas & Electric Company is replacing several thousand feet of antiquated and inade quate gas mains in the business cen-ter and preparing to extend the service to many other resident districts of the city at present unsupplied, says the Walla Walla Statesman. A force of men were set to work vesterday excavating for a new sixinch main to extend from First street to Boyer avenue and another force to replace the two-inch fibre pipe in Boyer avenue with a four-inch cast main. The East Main street pipe will replace a two-inch pipe that has done service for several years and become totally inaucquate to supply that section of the business district Following closely on these extensions will come the building of the company's new plant on the Walla Walla river and a subsequent bettering of the lighting system of the city. The exact location of the new plant is expected to be selected within a very few days as all the estimates made by the party of engineers and surveyors who spent several months on the stream last summer and fall have been filed with the head offic-tomorrow.

Thousands of men engaged in th liquor business in Ohio are affiliated with the Odd Fellows, and it is believed they will make a determined effort to resist the order of the grand master. That the latter is equally determined in the stand he has taken against the saloonkeepers is evi-denced by the forcible language of the order, which says:

"Any noble grand (presiding offi-cer) who shirks or refuses to do his duty will be suspended—they must convict and expel from the order all such members, and any lodge puts on trial and convicts such member and falls to suspend shall have, its charter arrested
