SUDDEN DECEASE

FRENCH TAILOR PASSES AWAY WITH HEMORRHAGE.

Was On His Feet and Making Very Little Complaint Up to the Hour of His Death—Was Employed by Emil Schiffler and Was an Industrious, Reliable Man—Had No Relatives in This Country.

Frank Sweitzer, who for three years has been one of the tailors for the Schiffler Tailoring Company, of this city, died suddenly last night at 3 o'clock at his rooms in the Eastern Hotel, from hemorrhage of the lungs. The deceased was a Frenchman, about 60 years of age, and has no relatives in this country as far as is known. He has been in this city for the last three years and was a steady and reliable workman. Yesterday he was at work until noon on a rush order and though he had been feeling badly for several days, thought nothing of it. He went to the hotel in the afternoon, and while talking to some of the boarders had a slight hemorrhage and started for his room on the second floor. As he reached his room he had a second and severe attack, and died in the arms of one of the boarders, who helped him onto his bed. Dr. C. J. Smith was called, but the man was dead before he reached the place. The body was taken to the undertaking parlors of Baker & Folsom, where it now lies. The arrangements for the funeral have not as yet been made, but as the deceased had no relatives in this country, and is not a member of any lodge, it is probable that the matter will be under the care and direction of Mr. Schiffler, his late employer.

CHARLES OGILVY DEAD.

Passed Away With Violent Attack of Pneumonia. Charles Ogilvy, of Pilot Rock, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ogilvy, yesterday morning, after a two-days' illness with pneumonia, aged 21 years. The deceased was a well-known young man and his death was an unexpected one. Two days before he was taken sick he joined the A. O. U. W. The funeral was held from the family home at Pilot Rock this afternoon at 2 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. R. J. Diven, of the Presbyterian church.

L. B. Reeder to Portland.

L. B. Reeder has gone to Portland, where he will make arrangements to open his law office in the near future. His furniture has already been shipped to the city and Mr. Reeder went yesterday to look after its installation in the office. He will return in about a week, when he will close up his business and move to the metropolis permanently.

Men's Resort Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Men's Resort held at their parlors, Wednesday evening, January 13, at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present as business of importance is to be transacted.

TAYLOR FOR CASHIER

PROBABILITY THAT HE WILL SUCCEED C. B. WADE.

All the Local People Interested Favor Him for Cashier of the First National, and Several Outsiders Are Known to Take the Same Stand—Decision Rests With Him.

There is a strong probability that T. C. Taylor, of this city, will be the next cashier of the First National Bank. The matter has been talked over by those interested, and it is the unanimous desire of the local directors and stockholders and all of the depositors who have spoken of the matter, that Mr. Taylor be given the office.

W. F. Matlock, the vice-president of the bank, was seen in regard to the action of the directors, and stated that all of the local men who had to do with the appointment had expressed a preference for Mr. Taylor, and that it was now up to those directors and stockholders outside of the city as to whether or not Mr. Taylor would be named.

It is known that several of the outside men are in favor of Mr. Taylor having the appointment, so that it in reality rests with him as to whether or not he will take the place. If it is acceptable to Mr. Taylor, he will be made the permanent cashier of the bank in a short time.

SHOULDER BLADE BROKEN.

Sad Accident to a Lady 71 Years of Age This Morning.

Mrs. W. Wohler, the mother of Mrs. H. J. Wilkinson, of East Court street, had the misfortune to fall through a trap door into the cellar this morning and fracture her shoulder blade. Mrs. Wohler, who is 71 years of age, went into the pantry to get something from one of the shelves, and not noticing that the trap door leading into the cellar was open, stepped into the hole and fell a distance of nine feet onto the hard floor of the basement, striking on her right shoulder and fracturing the bone. She was carried to her room and a doctor summoned, who reduced the fracture and the injured lady is now resting as easily as could be expected. Owing to her advanced age it will be some time before Mrs. Wohler has entirely recovered from the shock and the result of the injury.

POLICE COURT.

Jail and Fine Sentences Imposed Upon Drunks and Disorderlies.

Judge Fitz Gerald had a busy time this morning for a few minutes when he called the docket of the police court. Five Indians who had taken more of the water that warms than was good for their equilibrium each paid $5 into the hungry maw of the city treasury and were allowed to depart to their homes on the reservation.

George Treacott and Wm. Brown, who were arrested Saturday afternoon for fighting, were called before the court and the former was fined $10, which he paid. The latter was fined $14 and in default of the amount went to the city jail for seven days.

Three hoboes were also up for being drunk and disorderly and were sent to the city jail for four days each.

EXCESSIVE FEES.

Law is an Imposition Upon Those Who Have Instruments Recorded.

The new law that has gone into effect in relation to the recording of instruments, is proving a money-maker for the county and a source of robbery to those who have to have instruments recorded in the offices of the county. So far this month the fees for recording mortgages and other instruments that have come in to the office of the county recorder amount to $171.00 for a total of eight working days, or an average of more than $21 a day. This is entirely too much, and the people are feeling the undue pressure.

LARGE TRACT SOLD.

Peculiar Terms of an $11,500 Purchase Secured by an Agreement.

Mary Campbell and George R. Campbell, of Walla Walla, have sold to W. H. Webber and Lillian Webber, his wife, for $11,500, a large tract of land in the vicinity of Spoford. The instrument recorded is in the nature of an agreement for a warrant deed, and by its provisions the buyers are to pay at the rate of $1,000 each year from now until 1922 until they have paid out on their land.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Plaintiff Alleges Incompatibility and Desertion.

W. H. Catherman, of Umatilla, was in the city today and filed a suit for divorce against his wife, Mrs. Jessie M. Catherman. The cause of the complaint is given as desertion and incompatibility of temper.

The parties were married September 28, 1889, and from the union there have been four children. The plaintiff asks for the custody of Jessie L. Catherman and William O. Catherman, while the defendant wishes to have the care of Lillian May Catherman and Fredia Catherman. H. J. Bean is the attorney for the plaintiff.

BACK FOR NEW TRIAL.

Two Men Who Were Convicted of Murder at Baker City.

Baker City, Jan. 11.—Sheriff Tom Allen, of Harney county, passed through Baker City yesterday headed for Salem, where he goes for Miller and Cowell, who are serving a sentence for murder in the second degree, but who have been granted a new trial. They were convicted of killing Warren Curtis two years ago and were found guilty of second degree murder.

The new trial was granted by the supreme court on an error of instruction to the jury and other technicalities. The case will be heard in the circuit court for Harney county at the April term.

JACOB PARRISH DEAD.

Died of Consumption, Aged 28, at Cold Springs.

Jacob Parrish, of Cold Springs, died at his home this morning after a long illness with consumption. Mr. Parrish, who is the brother of Bruce Parrish, the man who was injured by a horse not long ago and taken to the hospital, was a man 28 years of age and leaves a wife and two children.

He will be buried tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, the interment being had at Holdman.

High Water at Helix.

It was reported this afternoon that there had been a bad flood and wash-out in the vicinity of Helix, but the report seems to have been exaggerated, for nothing could be learned of it from that place. There has been a little high water in that part of the country as a result of the melting snow and the rain of the past few days, but aside from the washing out of a few culverts there was not much damage done.

Bert Huffman, the editor of the East Oregonian, left this morning for Portland, where he will report the doings of the National Livestock convention for this paper.

Son Was Born.

A son was born to the wife of C. Rohman this morning at the family home on East Court street.

DROWNED OFF SMITH ISLAND.

(Concluded.)

Captain Roberts and the officers of the Clallam, who stayed with the steamer to the last, were all saved. Captain Roberts says he thinks that he had 55 passengers and the crew numbered 32.

Women and Children Perish.

Seeing that all efforts were futile, the safety of the passengers, particularly the women and children aboard was looked after, and in boats properly manned all who desired were put off from the steamer.

The heavily laden boats were as corks, however, in the choppy sea, and one after another, after succumbing in getting away from the vessel, were either capsized or swamped, and as a result not a woman or child of all those aboard has lived to tell the tale. The apparent discrepancy in the numbers from the list of fatalities herewith is accountable to the fact that only such children as paid half fare were enrolled in the passenger list.

Tugs Attempt to Save Vessel.

Meanwhile word had reached Victoria of the Clallam's trouble, and tugs were sent to the rescue. The Richard Holyoke, in command of Captain Robert Hall, was the first to reach the Clallam, which was found to have careened partly over from the lurch of water, which had put the engines out of commission. The Holyoke reached the Clallam about 11 o'clock last night, and sent a bawser aboard with which she started to tow the steamer to safety.

Clallam Goes Down.

Before all of the struggling people had been taken off the Clallam commenced to break up, and soon after went down, leaving a swirling eddy in her place on the waves.

All possible assistance to the rescued people was given by the two shipmasters and their crews, and the tugs hurried here, arriving at 10 o'clock. The passengers surviving and the remainder of the crew then took passage on the Dirigo bound for Seattle.

Bodies Recovered.

The bodies of Mrs. Mary Reynolds and Mrs. H. W. Lapland have been recovered, the former of Seattle. Forty-one victims are still missing.

At the Inquest.

Victoria, Jan. 11.—Inquest over eight bodies recovered yesterday is being held today. Rigid inquiries as to the seaworthiness of the Clallam are being made. A fleet of half a hundred vessels, tugs, steamers and small boats is now patrolling the vicinity of the disaster for more bodies.

COLLISION IN CHICAGO.

Two Men Killed and Others Severely Injured.

Chicago, Jan. 11.—In a collision of a trolley car and a Milwaukee & St. Paul train at Irving Park boulevard this forenoon, Carlos Fagin, motor-man and George Walker, a passenger, were fatally, and 20 others less seriously injured.

Fairly Warned.

An old circus man says that he once arrived at Steelton, Pa., early in the morning to make arrangements for a circus performance at that place. To obtain his license it was necessary to see the burgess of the town. The first person he met was a large, burly Virginia negro, who was on his way to work at the steel works. He approached the fellow and said, "Captain, can you tell me where I can find the burgess of Steelton?"

"Say, boss, I is a stranger around here myself, and all I can say is keep away from dem Burgesses. I was engaged to be married one time to Mary Elizabeth Burgess, and dey is a peaky lot of niggers."

COMING EVENTS.

National Livestock convention, Portland, January 12, 13, 14 and 15. Oregon State Horticultural society, Portland, Jan. 12-13. North Pacific Fair association, Portland, January 15-16. Walla Walla Poultry show, February 3-7. Oregon Christian Endeavor convention at Pondleton, February 19-22, 1904. Whitman-Oregon debate, Eugene, January 15, 1904.

County Court.

The county court has been busy most of the time today in looking over a few more of the bills that have been coming in for the month that has passed. The court allowed the petition in the matter of a new road asked for by William Mills and others in section 12, township 5 north, range 32 east, being in the country a little to the west of Stanton.

Marriage License.

A marriage license was issued this morning to William B. Deardorf and Miss Amanda M. Pruitt. The parties are residents of Weston.
