ASSESSORS OF IDAHO

RECOMMEND ASSESSMENTS
AT FULL VALUATION.

Progressive State of Idaho Will Follow Umatilla County and Raise Valuations—Assessors Ask That Real Estate be Assessed at Market Value—Ask for Better Laws Governing Assessors.

The county assessors of Idaho adjourned last evening after a most profitable and harmonious meeting, says the Boise Statesman.

They came in search of information and were primed with questions, some of which they settled among themselves, the more perplexing being referred to Attorney General Bagley who will have his work cut out for some time to come.

During the afternoon session the reports of the various committees were submitted and adopted as follows:

Livestock Values.

The committee on livestock recommended that stock cattle be assessed at $15 per head, milch cows at $25, beef cattle $20, stock sheep $2, thoroughbred horses $60 and upwards, graded horses $25 to $60 and range horses $10, swine $4.

Real Estate.

The committee on real estate reported that for the purpose of taxation and assessment for 1904, the actual cash value of real estate in the respective counties shall be the value placed upon real estate of each county for the year 1903 by the state board of equalization, and that any and all lands not assessed for the year 1904 at the same price as the same quality and quantity of lands were assessed at for the year 1903.

Resolutions.

The following resolutions were submitted by the committee appointed to frame them:

Whereas, We believe that the office of assessor and tax collector charged with the duty of assessing and collecting the public revenues of the state is one of the most important offices in the state in its relation to the people; and,

Whereas, Under the present condition of the law the assessor and tax collector cannot be given assistance at the public expense, and the work of the officers in the various counties is more than can properly be performed by one man; therefore, be it

Resolved, 1st That it is the sense of this assembly that the public interest requires that the constitution of the state be so amended as to permit the enactment of laws giving assessors and tax collectors deputies and clerical assistance at the expense of the several counties in the same manner as is now provided for sheriffs and auditors.

Second—We favor the amending of the constitution in such a manner that it will permit all county officers to succeed themselves in office.

Third—We favor the amendment of the Idaho session laws of 1901 so as to change the date when taxes shall be delinquent from the first Monday in January to the second Monday in December.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows, sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

REPUDIATES ITS WARRANTS.

Malheur County Will Be Sued for $14,000 Worth of Unpaid Warrants.

Some time ago the county court of Malheur county cancelled county warrants to the amount of $14,000, and after consideration, allowed the matter of rescinding this order to be brought up at the last meeting.

After fully considering the matter, the court yesterday refused to rescind the order, and the amount stands cancelled. Parties owning the warrants now threaten to bring suit for the collection of the money, and a tedious and costly law suit is probable.

Burning Love Letters.

It is done! In the fire's fitful flashes The last line has withered and curled; In a tiny white heap of dead ashes Lie buried the hopes of your world. There were mad, foolish vows in each letter;

It is well they have shriveled and burned. And the ring? Oh, the ring was a fetter! It was better removed and returned.

But, ah, is it done? In the embers, Where letters and tokens were cast, Have you burned up the heart that remembers

And treasures its beautiful past? Do you think in this swift, reckless fashion To ruthlessly burn and destroy

The months that were freighted with passion, The dreams that were drunken with joy?

Can you burn up the rapture of kisses That flashed from the lips to the soul Or the heart that grows sick for lost blisses?

In spite of its strength of control? Have you burned up the touch of warm fingers That thrilled through each pulse and each vein

Or the sound of a voice that still lingers And hurts with a haunting refrain?

Is it done? Is the life drama ended? You have put all the lights out, and yet, Though the curtain, rung down, has descended,

Can the actors go home and forget? Ah, no! They will turn in their sleeping, With a strange, restless pain in their hearts,

And in darkness and anguish and weeping Will dream they are playing their parts. —Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

Every Day is the Best Day.

Some skies may be gloomy, Some moments be sad, But everywhere, always, Some souls must be glad, For true is the saying, Proclaimed by the seer, "Each day is the best day Of somebody's year!"

Each day finds a hero; Each day helps a saint; Each day brings to some one A joy without faint. Though it may not be my turn Or yours that is near, "Each day is the best Of somebody's year!"

The calendar sparkles With days that have brought Some prize that was longed for, Some good that was sought, High deeds happen daily; Wide truths grow more clear; "Each day is the best Of somebody's year!"

No sun ever rises But brings joy behind; No sorrow in fetters The whole earth can bind. How selfish our fretting! How narrow our fear! "Each day is the best Of somebody's year!"

—Priscilla Leonard in Pittsburg Methodist Recorder.

Tending the Light.

With nothing but waves to seaward And the grim rocks toward the land, The roll of the black clouds over And the breakers on every hand The night comes down on the ocean, And we climb the winding stair To see that our lights are piercing The thickening, foggy air.

Far up at the mouth of the river, Beyond the narrow beach, The last of the home lights twinkle And sink away from our reach. Alone on a rock in the desert Of tumbling and tossing tide, The nation's outer signal To wanderers far and wide; Alone, and we wonder dimly If the forlorn reaches the shore Or pierces the outer stretches That tumble and toss evermore.

Perchance in the little village Some fisher wife wakes in the night And peers from her smoky window To see if we're shining bright, Or out on the tossing billows A helmsman watches our light, A thousand souls in his keeping As they rush through the pathless night; Alone on a rock in the desert And hungry for those on shore, The screams of the gulls and breakers Around us forevermore. —J. Otis Swift in Lewiston Journal.
