FOR NEW COUNTY ROAD.

W. W. Harrah Circulates Petition for Road up Wild Horse Creek.
W. W. Harrah is getting up a petition to circulate in a few days for a new road up Wild Horse. He will present it to March term of county court.

The proposed road will be a water grade from Athens and Adams to Pendleton and will cut out the heavy hills which have heretofore required a four horse team to pull a load.
Mr. Harrah says that the proposed road will not only give a water grade but it will shorten the distance to Athens at least one mile.

The road as proposed begins at the north end of Lee street bridge, goes up the north bank of the Umatilla river and on the north side of the Hunt track to the Arnold estate, crosses both railroads to the south side of the O. R. & N. track and thence east to connect with the other road up Wild Horse to Athens, and Adams. Mr. Harrah says that the persons through whose places the new road will pass will probably grant right of way.

FIRST GUESSES DEPOSITED.

Explanation of the Free Guessing Contest for the Buggy.
The first two persons to take advantage of the guessing contest for the $100 buggy each today paid $7.50 for one year on the Daily East Oregonian by carrier, and were given five guesses each.
A good many questions have been asked relative to this contest and a few additional words of explanation may not come amiss.
One of the county ballot boxes has been secured and sealed in which to deposit guesses. The seals will not be broken until the 27th receipts have been issued. A payment of $1.50 on any one of the three publications—Daily, Weekly or Semi-Weekly East Oregonian, entitles the holder of the receipt to one guess.
The unknown number consists of three figures. Each of these three figures are different. For example, it may be 034, 231, 647 or any similar number, but it could not be 220, 440, 221, 331, or any such number, as the same figure is repeated.
We need not assure our subscribers that this is a fair, square contest and some one of the subscribers will get a present of a $100 buggy. Drop in Kunkel's implement house and look at it.

LAUNDRYMEN'S MEETING.

Second Annual Session at Tacoma—J. F. Robinson on Executive Committee.

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 21. — The second semi-annual convention of the interstate association of laundrymen of Oregon and Washington concluded its session here Monday night by a banquet at the Tacoma hotel.
The convention was opened by an address by Mayor Campbell, after which the members adjourned to pay a visit to the Pacific starch company's plant. Papers were read in the afternoon on important subjects, in which laundrymen of both states are interested.
The association was organized in Portland last summer, with the following officers: President, John Tait, Portland; vice-president, F. H.
Kilbourne, Seattle; secretary and treasurer, Frank T. McCollough, Spokane; sergeant-at-arms, J. C.
Schempp, Tacoma; executive committee, John Tait, Portland; A.
Jacobsen, Seattle; John F. Robinson, Pendleton, and S. H. Freeman, Spokane.

Injury to His Neck.
Sheriff T. D. Taylor left this morning for Salem, to escort Robert E.
Fletcher to the asylum. Fletcher is confined in the county jail, and as soon as the county physician could examine him, was adjudged insane.

W. C. Kennady, his brother-in-law, made complaint against him.
Fletcher is a derrick man about 42 years of age, and has had several attacks of insanity. The duration of his present attack has been about six months, and he was 24 years of age at the time of his first trouble. He is a native of Nova Scotia.
He has never been committed to the asylum, though he has given trouble before. He is violent and uncontrollable at times and is homicidal and suicidal. When 24 years of age, or a little before that, he was hurt by a runaway horse, the tack of his neck being injured. From this he has never fully recovered, and it is thought that this injury is the direct cause of his insanity.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

New Directors and Officers for the Savings Bank.

The stockholders of the Savings Bank met yesterday afternoon in annual meeting for the election of the board of directors for the year. The same members who have served on the board for the past year were re-elected, with the exception of Dr. P.
W. Vincent, who was added to the personnel of the board.
The board of directors now consists of J. N. Teal, Joseph Basler, E.
P. Marshall, F. W. Vincent, Charles H. Carter, R. Alexander and W. J.
Furnish. The officers of the board elected yesterday for the year are:
W. J. Furnish, president; J. N. Teal, vice-president; T. J. Morris, cashier, and J. W. Maloney, assistant cashier.

The annual report of the business affairs of the bank was presented, and the annual routine work transacted.

C. B. WADE WILL TRAVEL.

Upon Advice of His Physicians and to Benefit His Health.

Owing to the declining health of C. B. Wade, his physicians have advised him to travel for a time. His condition is such that as fast as he rallies to a certain extent he is prostrated again by anxieties which arise in the transaction of business, and for these reasons it has been thought advisable by his physicians that he visit for a time in some other climate where he will be able to find rest.

THE "BRAND OF CAIN."

Man's Misdeeds Follow Him Where-ever He Goes—ex-Convict Viewed With Suspicion.

When Charles Ladd, accused of robbing the Owl saloon, was dismissed from custody of the officers in Recorder Filloon's court yesterday morning, he gave vent to expressions that might well be seriously considered by young men who are tempted to start on the downward path of law breaking, says the Times-Mountaineer.

In thanking the court for its kind treatment, Ladd stated that he did not hold malice against anyone for suspecting him of the crime or causing his arrest. "I am a suspicious character," he said. "I have served a term in the penitentiary, and a man who has once been a convict ever afterward is viewed with suspicion. He is looked upon as a criminal, and wherever he goes, if a crime is committed, he is the first to be suspected. An ex-convict is ever a branded man."

Whatever Ladd's life, since he was discharged from the Oregon penitentiary, has been, whether he has been exemplary or not, his statement that an "ex-convict was always viewed with suspicion" was true and came from actual experience.
It should serve as a warning to all young men who are tempted to violate the law, for once convicted of crime a man is ever afterward looked upon as a criminal.
The "brand of Cain" is upon him,

YEAR'S WOOL CLIP

OREGON PRODUCED 15,500,000 POUNDS FOR 1903.

United States Has Almost 40,000, 000 Sheep—Oregon Stands Eighth on the List With Two Million Head—Montana Leads With Over Five Millions.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 21. — Advance sheets of the annual wool review, issued by the National Association of Wool Manufacturers fix the total number of sheep in the United States April 1, 1903, according to a census taken by the association at 35,284,000.

Of these Montana had the largest number, 5,100,000; Wyoming the next largest, or 4,100,000; the next largest states are Idaho with 3,400, 000; Utah with 2,250,000; New Mexico with 2,250,000; Ohio with 2,200, 000; Colorado, 1,300,000; Oregon, 2, 000,000; Texas, 1,440,000; California, 1,225,000, and Michigan, 1,400,000.

Montana also had the largest yield of wool in 1903, 30,600,000 pounds of washed and unwashed, with a total value of $5,547,780; Wyoming had the next largest yield, 28,700,000 pounds, having a total value of $4, 500,000; Idaho's yield was 16,900,000 pounds worth $2,716,000; Utah yielded $12,937,500 pounds, worth $2,282, 175; New Mexico raised 16,250,000 pounds valued at $3,134,203; Colorado, 8,850,000 pounds, value, $1,292, 850; Oregon 15,500,000 pounds worth $2,418,000; Texas 9,000,000 pounds, value, $1,497,600; California, 11,781,250 pounds at $1,825,000; Michigan, 9,100,000 pounds at $2, 229,500. All this exclusive of pulled wool.

The total production of fleece wool for the country was 245,450, 000 pounds and of pulled wool 42, 000,000 pounds, making a grand total of 287,450,000 pounds, equalling 124, 366,405 pounds of scoured. This great production was valued at $58, 775,373.

Rhode Island and Delaware have the smallest number of sheep each having 6,500, but Delaware produced a trifle more wool—Rhode Island only bringing forward 35,750 pounds and Delaware 39,000. Massachusetts has 33,000 sheep and a total wool production of 191,499 pounds in the grease; New York state has over 700,000 sheep and clips 4,200,000 pounds of wool.

None of the above figures include pulled or butcher's wool, figures for this class of staple being made up separately.
The average weight of fleeces for 1903 is 6.25 pounds, as compared with 6.50 in 1901, and 6.46 in 1900, and is the smallest for many years.
The average shrinkage is 60.8 per cent, an increase of 0.8 over 1902.

Oregon's fleeces averaged 7.75, with a shrinkage of 68 per cent. The average prices for 1903 and the two years preceding compared 52, 50 and 43 cents. Wyoming's produce of 28,700,000 pounds in the grease amounted to 5,184,000 pounds of scoured. The fleeces averaged 7 pounds with a shrinkage of 68 per cent. The price averaged 49.47 and 43 cents for the years 1903 and preceding.

LAND OFFICE CONGESTED.

Business Has Accumulated in Masses Since the Difficulty Began With Officials.

La Grande, Jan. 21. — The patrons of the land office as well as the register, hope the matter of appointing a receiver is soon settled, as business has accumulated beyond measure, since the office was closed at the beginning of the Thomson difficulty.

For over two months the office has only been open for information, and dozens of people have made long trips with witnesses to prove up and transact other business.

No intimation has been received here as to the time at which Mr.
Roberts will be able to take charge, if he is finally appointed as receiver.
The officials are simply waiting for the tedious delay to be over and many patrons who have been turned away will be glad to hear of the early adjustment of the matter.

Take stock of your mercies, and you will find your miseries have taken flight.
