Cattle Outlook Favorable.

William Fleetwood, the Hereford sheep and cattleman, who is at the Datiers, says that the cattle outlook for 'he coming season is much better than it was two months ago, and from present indications ne thinks there will be a great demand for stock of all kinds. 'It is possible that the prevailing prices will not equal those that have been paid growers during other years," he says. 'but the general status of atfairs is very encouraging to growers, who would rather have a steady market at rair prices than a finnicky demand at high figures. Furthermore, I believe that stockmen this year will be able to find a market this year for all kinds of cattle, while heretofore or a number of years it has been difficult to sell anything but prime beef in the very pink of condition."

Those who have handled cattle during the past seasons are already in receipt of inquiries from eastern buyers regarding the cattle outlook, which is intrepreted by some to in-dicate a greater demand and better prices for all kinds during the coming year.—Baker City Herald.

Spokane Chief Police Out.

Spokane Chief Police Out.

Chief of Police E. M. Woydt has been summarily deposed from command of the department by Mayor Boyd. The mayor acted under the provision of the charter which allows him to take personal charge of the department. He named Police Captain James Coverly as his representative, and directed the men to take their orders from him.

Chief Woydt refuses to recognize the mayor's right to depose him and there may be a sharp conflict of authority.

The mayor gave as his reason for deposing the chief that the department is disorganized and demoralized. The chief has the enmity of the sporting element and Boyd favors a liberal policy. The mayor is a republican and the chief is a democrai.—Spokane Telegram.
