FIRST DAY'S SHOOT

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT THE TOURNAMENT.

Many More Are Coming From Every Direction, and Fifty Competitors Will Take Part Tomorrow—Shooters From Huntington to Portland, and From Spokane to Southern Interior.

The first day of the Pendleton Sportsmen's Association tournament has been a success. There are a large number of men now on the ground, and many more on the way from the outside cities.

Several men are in the city from Portland to represent their associations in the tournament. A number have arrived from Heppner and some from Dayton, but the majority will reach the city this evening and on the early morning trains to compete from the commencement, in the regular schedule of events.

The bulk of the men coming from the west have not reached the city, and some are yet to come from Baker City and other places in that part of the state. When all are gathered in the city it is thought there will be over 50 gunmen in the city to take part in the shooting.

During the day the hills have resounded with the shots of the contestants for the sweepstakes honors and impromptu purses, but the fun will begin in earnest when the regular program opens tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Among those now in the city are

F. & S. Cough Syrup

W. H. BOND RETURNED.

Visited the Willamette Valley and California.

W. H. Bond, one of the well known and prominent farmers of Helix, was in the city this morning on his way home after a six weeks' visit in California, and points in the Willamette valley.

While away Mr. Bond visited in Los Angeles and at other points of interest in the south, and comes back with a store of sunshine sufficient to last him for some time to come. He reports that part of California's suffering from rain, the long continued drought having affected the fruit prospect disastrously.

In the valley it is just the reverse, and Mr. Bond was glad to get back to his home, where he can discard the umbrella and the rain coat for an open winter and a joyous existence.

New Land Office Inspector.

J. H. Alexander, the newly appointed land office inspector of the La Grande land district, is in the city today, the guest of the St. George. Mr. Alexander comes from Roseburg, and will occupy the position formerly held by Thomas McNutt, who was transferred to Glenwood Springs, Colorado.

Visiting Swearingen Brothers.

Miss Mabel Swearingen, of Whatcom, Wash., is in the city the guest of her brothers, T. B. and N. D. Swearingen. Miss Swearingen was formerly a resident of this city, and has many friends here.

MILLER, THE GROCER, AND CLERKS' UNION IN A FIGHT.

Mr. Miller Refuses to Close at 6 p. m. and the Union Will Seek to Declare Him Unfair Unless a Settlement Can Be Reached—An Agreement is Possible and is Hoped for by All Concerned.

M. Miller, the grocer and baker, and the Clerks' Union of this city, are at war. When the new schedule of hours went into effect, Mr. Miller agreed, so the clerks claim, to shut his store at 6 o'clock p. m., with the other merchants of the city, and for a time he has done so; but of late it has been noticed that the store has been open as late as 7 o'clock, so a delegation was sent to Mr. Miller, asking him to observe the agreement entered into between the employers and the clerks, in justice to all. Mr. Miller has refused to close, and war has been declared, or will be this evening.

Last evening the store was open, and a delegation of clerks met in front of the store and asked those who started into the store to defer their purchases until the morning, and in a great many cases they were successful in their petitions.

Mr. Miller is Obdurate.

After some time the store was closed, though it has been asserted that hereafter it will be kept open at the desire of the proprietor.

Mr. Miller was seen this morning for his version of the affair and takes the stand that the merchant is the owner of his business and has the right to say how he will handle it, and holds it is also an imposition on the laboring people to have the stores close so early that they cannot have a chance to buy between the time they quit work and the time the stores close. He is also of the opinion that the clerks wish the extra time for simple and worldly pleasure and not always for their good, and he would therefore do them a service by remaining open and inducing others to keep them out of mischief.

Another phase of the question is that the labor organizations of the country are now weakening, and the majority of the people are against them, so that it will be but a short time until the labor unions are blotted from the book of remembrance. For all of these reasons Mr. Miller will, if he remains in his present frame of mind keep his store open as long in the evening as he wishes.

Special Meeting of Union.

Charles Eppinger, the president of the Clerks' Union, has called a special meeting of the union for this evening, when the matter will be acted upon. During the day a committee was sent to Mr. Miller, which stated their side of the question. If the committee and the merchant are unable to come to an agreement the union will place the store on the unfair list, and this evening will appoint a committee to take the subject up to the Central Trades and Labor Council, with the request that Mr. Miller be placed on the unfair list and boycotted by the union men of the town.

As there are some 800 union men in the city, not counting those not members but in sympathy with the union cause, it will be liable to work a hardship on Mr. Miller's business unless he complies with the request of the clerks for an early closing.

SCHOOL FIRM DISSOLVES.

E. Ray Jones is Now Sole Owner of the Modern School of Commerce.

The partnership existing between E. Ray Jones of this city, and L. W. Damon of La Grande, in the ownership of the Modern School of Commerce, both here and at La Grande, has been dissolved, and the schools are now owned by Mr. Jones and will be conducted by him in the future.

L. W. Damon, who retires from the firm, will be employed at the La Grande school, temporarily as teacher of shorthand, and will engage in other business as soon as a teacher is secured to take his place.

Mr. Jones will improve both branches of the school as rapidly as possible and will continue to add to the features as fast as business patronage will permit. He hopes to get the school in this city on a firm foundation, and make it the leading business college in Eastern Oregon, thus giving young men and women who now go away from home for a business education the same education in this city and remain at home while going to school.

There is an excellent opening here for just such an institution and Mr. Jones will make it a permanent school.

AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Very Successful Meetings Will Be Indefinitely Continued.

The meetings at the Christian church under the leadership of Dr. S. M. Martin are proving to have more interest for the people than was hoped for by them even, and the church is filled each evening.

This evening, Mr. Martin will speak on the subject of "My Brother's Keeper," a talk which has been greatly praised at all of the places where he has been.

Miss Maude Springer, who has charge of the choir, will sing and will have a list of special numbers by the choir during the evening.

COMMITTEES AT WORK.

Preparing for the Christian Endeavor or State Meeting.

The various committees who are preparing for the state convention of Christian Endeavor, which meets in this city next month, will meet each Monday night at the residence of Judge Lowell until the convention assembles.

Professor E. Ray Jones has taken charge of the music and will have some splendid chorus singing as well as special music. The special music will consist of solos, duet and double quartette selections.

The decoration committee plan to do extensive decorating. They will ask the co-operation of the business men to decorate their stores with the convention colors.

The place of meeting will probably be the Baptist church. The music committee will meet next Friday night for organization and practice.

AGED WOMAN DROWNED.

Mrs. Margaret Adams, of Walla Walla, Meets Death in Touchet.

Walla Walla, Jan. 21.—The body of Mrs. Margaret Adams, an aged woman, living at Watsburg, was found yesterday in the Touchet river, half a mile below the town. Mrs. Adams having fallen into the river the night before, whether from in-lent or accident is not known.

Mrs. Adams had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wyans, Monday afternoon, and left for home about 5 o'clock. She did not arrive, and after dark search was instituted. Some one had seen her standing on the river bank, and the Touchet was searched until midnight. The body was not found until the next day.

Mrs. Adams was feeble-minded, through illness. She was a widow, and leaves five children, all grown. They are: George and William Adams, of Oregon; Mrs. Mary Walker, of Silverton, Col.; Mrs. William H. Hall, of Watsburg, and Joel Adams, of Colville, Wash.

HARD TIMES SOCIAL.

Unique Diversion by No. 527, Women of Woodcraft.

Pendleton Circle No. 527, Women of Woodcraft, at the close of the business session last evening, threw open the doors to the public and a hard times social was the order of the evening, followed by dancing.

A very unique and entertaining program was rendered, consisting of a sunbonnet drill by the guards of the circle in hard times costume, solos by Messrs. Shafer and Fletcher, instrumental duet by Miss Carol van Orsdall and Mrs. Fletcher, select reading by Dr. Miller in hard times suit, instrumental duet by Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher, recitation by Hazel Means, instrumental solo, Miss Carol Van Orsdall. During the rendition of the program the audience was favored by selections from the Pendleton Circle String Band, which brought down the house.

Refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, pickles and coffee, were served on boards, boiler lids, tin cans, with a doleful refrain that it was hard times. Dancing was indulged in until 12 o'clock. Ora Knight was awarded the prize for the best sustained hard times costume.

Snow at Walla Walla.

The train crew on the O. R. & N. mixed train reports about the same amount of snow at Walla Walla last night as at Pendleton, but it was melted off with a warm wind in about the same way as here today.

Naturalized.

Herbert Carr took out his final citizenship papers this morning before Judge W. R. Ellis. He is a native of England.

G. B. Dysart, an ex-Confederate surgeon well known to some Pendleton people, is dead at Paris, Mo., aged 70 years.

Many a man would better go without lunch at all than eat the hurried lunch which forms the noon-day meal of many a business man. Hasty eating, food hard to digest, and no time allowed for digestion are the cause of many a case of stomach "trouble."

Disease of the stomach seriously threatens the health of the whole body and should be promptly cured. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the perfect assimilation of food and the proper nutrition of the body on which physical strength depends.

"Nine or ten years ago my health became very poor, and in this was so far gone that good doctors pronounced my case the worst they had ever treated," writes Mr. Harvey Phelps, of Florence, Ala. "I had acute stomach trouble, lives complaint, catarrh and was nervous to such an extent I could not sleep. I finally got three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and some 'Pellets.' Took them according to directions on the bottles, and in a few days noticed a decided improvement. I commenced to get more rest at night and could eat with pleasure, where formerly food was like chips to me. When I had used three bottles of the 'Discovery' I was a new man, could eat mince pie for supper, go to bed at seven P. M. and sleep until seven A. M. I am now working at my trade (carpentry), every day in all kinds of weather, and think if I had not taken your medicines I would now be under the sod."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the clogged system from accumulated impurities.

HILL'S RHEUMATIC PILLS

Have cured Rheumatism for 100 years. Mr. Hill: I received your Pills in due season and am happy to say I think they are all they are recommended to be, having cured me of Sciatic Rheumatism. I sent them to all sufferers of Rheumatism. Many thanks to you for the benefit they have done me. HANNAH CRAIG, Hiram, Me.

Mr. O. A. Hill: Sir—I have found your Rheumatic Pills to be of great benefit to me. At the time I commenced using them I was with difficulty I could pursue my daily labor. When I had taken one box of them I was entirely free from Rheumatism. ELIZA J. TEEPT, Lawrence, Mass.

RETURNED FROM TACOMA.

J. F. Robinson Attends Laundrymen's Meeting.

John F. Robinson, proprietor of the Domestic Laundry, returned this morning from Tacoma, where he has been in attendance at the second annual meeting of the Interstate Laundrymen's Association of Oregon and Washington.

He reports a very profitable meeting and is well satisfied with the progress being made by the organization. His name appears on the official roster of the association as he was selected as one member of the executive committee, a very important position in the association.
