Alike in the English Cotton Manufacturing Trade-Great Depression in This Industry All Over Great Britain-Discrimination by American Exporters is Claimed.

London, Jan 28.-Apart from the continued exceptional ocarness of cot-ton, which is playing havoc with Lan-cashire's staple industry, there are other disturbing influences in many of the cotton spinning and manufacturing towns of that county

Serious and growing complaints are being made by thousands of operatives concerning the inferior and coarse quality of the material they have to work—it is hinted in some quarters that the best fruits of the cotton plantations are kept in the United States for consumption by the spindle and loom owners therewhich seriously militates against the Lancashire operatives earning satis-Lancashire operatives earning satis-factory wages, When the cotton is coarse and

FOR MINERS' DEMANDS

Indianapolis, Inu., Jan. 28.-Opinion is at variance as to the probable outcome of the annual wage scale conference begun here today by representatives of the coal mine operators and the United Mine Workers, but it is generally conceded that the conference is one of the most important of the kind yet held, not even excepting that which preceded the great anthra-cite coal strike.

When the miners left Indianapolis last year they did so with a 14½ per cent. increase in wages. Record-breaking industrial conditions, makbreaking industrial conditions, making unprecedented demand for coal, the shortage of coal for all kinds of consumption, due to the strike in the anthracite region, the wrath of the public at the operators caused by the coal combines, and the fact that the mining industry was about the only one that had not shared in advanced wages. All contributed to the successful demands of the miners for substantial increase in wages.

stantial increase in wages,

This year the conditions are materially changed, industrial conditions that there is overproduction at the mines and prices have been seeking lower levels.

The result is that the operators have come to the present conference prepared to make demands for a deprepared to make demands for a decrease in wages, and probably as a bluff at first demanding 15 or 20 per cent reduction. As a counter move the miners coal committee will make a demand for an increase amounting And sublime as the angel who rules in the star in the superior of the miners coal committee will make a demand for an increase amounting to about 10 over cent Notwithstand. to about 10 per cent. Notwithstand-ing these conflicting demands, it is believed that neither side expects to accomplish its announced purpose, but both will be satisfied, on the other hand, to allow wages to stand pretty much as they are at the present time.

Lyrie of Action.

Tis the part of a coward to brood
O or the past that is withered and dead.
What though the heart's roses are ashes

What though the heart's music be fled?
Still shine the grand heavens o'erhead,
Whence the voice of an angel thrills clear on the soul.

"Gird about thee thine armor, press on to thy goal?"

If the faults or the crimes of thy youth
Are a burden too heavy to bear.
What hope can rebloom on the desolate
wante
Of a jealous and craven despair?
Down, down with the fetters of fear;
In the strength of thy valor and manhood

Beams the promise of peace when the conflict is won! -Paul Hamilton Hayne.

Is fame your aspiration?

Her path is steep and high;
In vain he seeks the temple,
Content to gaze and sigh.

The shining throne is waiting,
But he alone can take it
Who says, with Roman firmness,
"Til find a way or make it!"

In love's impassioned warfare
The tale has ever been
That victory crowns the valiant;
The brave are they who win!
Though strong is beauty's castle,
A lover still may take it
Who says, with Roman daring,
"I'll find a way or make it!"

Are riches worth the getting?
They must be bravely sought;
With wishing and with fretting
The boon cannot be bought.
To all the prize is open.
But only he can take it
Who says, with Roman courage,
"Til find a way or make it!"
