COUNCIL MEETING

PARK THEATER RENTAL

REBATED TO PENLANDS.

Park Theater Not Closed to Dances—Regular Bills Allowed—License Ordinance Now Includes Street Venders—Recorder's Salary Raised Fifty Per Cent—City Printing Question Referred to a Committee.

The city council met last night for the regular mid-week meeting, with a full house in attendance.

The first thing done was to issue a liquor license to F. X. Schempp, the proprietor of the Columbia saloon, on Main street. This is the first license granted under the new ordinance passed at the last meeting.

Rebate to Penland Brothers.

Penland Brothers presented a petition to the city asking that they be refunded part of their license money, paid the week before their house was closed by the special committee appointed to examine the fire conditions. They had paid a license of $10 and had only used the hall two nights when it was closed. The matter was referred to the committee on claims, who granted the firm a rebate of $6.

Relating to Park Theater.

One of the proprietors was present and asked the council what they should do with the building in its present state. It seemed to be the opinion of all that dances could be held with no need of alteration, but that nothing of a theatrical nature could be allowed until the stairway and fire escapes had been provided. The subject was referred to the fire committee, to act with the fire chief in looking over the building with Mr. Penland, and come to some conclusion as to what could be done in justice to all.

The regular salary list for the month was allowed by the council and ordered paid.

Street Venders' Licenses.

An ordinance was passed intended to govern the venders of all commodities. When the general ordinance was passed, this class of individuals was overlooked among the thousand and one kinds of business occupations that had to be considered, and the ordinance adopted last night was intended to serve as a section in the general ordinance. It fixed the tax on all street venders at $3 a day.

Recorder's Salary Raised.

The most important action of the evening was in relation to the salary of the city recorder. Heretofore that official has received but $50 a month, and last night, on motion of Alderman T. B. Swearingen, the amount was raised to $75. It has been the intention of the council for some time to make the change in justice to Judge Fitz Gerald, who has made a most efficient official, and who has to give his whole time to the office.

The bids for the city printing were opened, and after being read were referred to the committee on ways and means, composed of Reub. Swearingen and Ferguson, who will consider them and award the contract. The council then adjourned.

Praiseworthy Fault

One that true economy must endorse

The only complaint we have ever heard about "Revere" Coffee came from a consumer who said it was "too strong." "Too strong" is a highly laudable fault in a Coffee, and one easily remedied by

USING LESS TO THE CUP

"Too strong" is not the same as "too rank." The latter is a fault that often characterizes weak coffee, and nearly always characterizes very cheap grades. "Too strong" simply means that will produce more cups of the desired strength than the consumer gives it credit for, and for that reason true economy prompts its purchase. The "per cup" cost of "Revere" coffee at 40c a pound is no more than when a 25c grade is used. The incomparable flavor, rich aroma and satisfying body cost absolutely nothing extra.

REVERE COFFEE

COME TO THIS CITY

NORTHWEST SPORTSMEN ASSOCIATION, JUNE NEXT.

Five States and British Columbia Represented, and One Hundred Crack Marksmen Attend—Will Be Twentieth Annual Meet—Will Require Six Hundred Dollars and Three Cent Targets to Secure It.

If the Pendleton Sportsmen's Association can raise $600, the city will be enabled to have the honor of entertaining 100 odd crack shots who will gather at the 20th annual tournament of the Northwest Sportsmen's association, which will be held during the latter part of June.

At Dayton last year the tournament was awarded to Tacoma, but since that time the association in that city has disbanded and at the meeting held here last week Pendleton was awarded the tournament provided the association here will raise $600. Dayton raised $1,200 last year for the 19th annual tournament, and charged 5 cents each for the targets, and it is asked of the association here to raise $600 and charge 3 cents each for the birds shot at.

As the president and vice-president of the local association are away from the city, it is not possible at this time to take action on the matter, but as soon as F. W. Waite, the vice-president, returns, a meeting will be called and some action taken in regard to the offer. All who attended the tournament here last week were in favor of coming here in June, and it is thought that it will be but little trouble to raise the money necessary to secure it, especially when it is taken into consideration that $6,000 or $7,000 would be left in the city by the sportsmen attending.

The Northwest tournament is the largest in the West and includes associations from Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Utah, California and British Columbia, and there are on an average 100 sportsmen who come to take part in the shooting. The trophies aggregate $2,500 in value, and altogether it is much to be desired that the Pendleton association will be able to secure the meet.

WILL BE REMODELED.

Heavy Expenditures Planned for the Masonic Building.

The Masonic building, if the plans of the owners are carried out, will soon be an almost new one as far as looks are concerned, for the Forster Planing Mills are now at work on the frames for an entirely new and different front.

The old windows will be taken out and the benches cut down to the floor. New plate glass show windows will be put in on both sides of the rooms occupied by M. A. Rader, making it possible for the proprietor of the store to make as fine display of his goods as can be seen in any of the stores of the larger cities. Just when the actual work of remodeling will commence is not known, as it will depend on the finishing of the wood-work and the arrival of the glass.

SHOES STOLEN.

Taken From Carload Consigned to Peoples Warehouse.

Some centipede or other animal, which had been for a great many shoes, broke open a car just arrived from the East last night at the freight yards of the W. & C. R., and took from the cargo about nine pairs of children's shoes.

The car was loaded with a valuable consignment of goods from the East, where it had been bought for the Peoples Warehouse of this city. It reached here last night on the late train, and when it was opened this morning the shoes were found to have been stolen during the night. There is no clue to the thief or thieves.

O. R. & N. Car Robbed.

A car of merchandise was also broken open in the O. R. & N. yards last night, and about four pairs of shoes, a small number of hats and a dozen or so pairs of socks stolen. No clue has been found that would lead to the discovery of the thieves.

CLASS IN HORSEMANSHIP.

Prof. Haws Free Exhibition a Revelation to Old Horsemen.

Professor Haws, the horse trainer, gave a free exhibition in horsemanship, at Froome's barn last night, to a crowd that filled the barn, and afterward organized a private class in horse training.

Professor Haws is a master of the horse, and has made a special study of the humane and natural methods of subduing him, until his lectures and exhibitions were revelations in the art, even to the old horsemen who attended.

His free exhibition consisted of giving simple methods of handling horses, to prevent injury and bad habits in the horse and danger to the horseman. His hints on drenching and handling sick horses were worth the price of the course, to any farmer or stockman, who is interested in caring for a good horse properly.

The patented inventions used by Prof. Haws, in conquering wild horses, runaway teams, kicking horses, switching horses, and all other classes of horses, that are considered unsafe or objectionable, were well worth the attention of studious horsemen.

Prof. Haws will give a free exhibition each night this week at Froome's barn and the class will hold a session each night after the exhibition. The lesson consists in about five hours' instruction, and is repeated each night, so those coming late in the week will derive the same benefit as those beginning with the first lesson. A class of thirty horsemen was organized last night at the close of the free exhibition and all expressed themselves as being well pleased with the course.

It is now running night and day to keep abreast of its orders, and will be busy until March in cleaning up what work it has on hand.
