Great Italian Actress Eighty Years of Age This Day.

CONGRATULATED RISTORI.

Rome, Jan. 29.—This was the eighty-second birthday of Adelaide Ristori, the famous Italian tragic actress.

CONGRATULATED RISTORI.

Ristori was born at Cavale, Italy, in 1822. On her appearance in Paris in 1855 she was harshly criticised for posing as the rival of Rachel, then at the height of her fame.

CONGRATULATED RISTORI.

Ristori won popular favor, however, and her receptions in other countries especially in the United States, were enthusiastic.

CONGRATULATED RISTORI.

Among her leading parts were Francesca da Rimini, Maria Stuart, Phaedra, Judith and Lady Macbeth.

CONGRATULATED RISTORI.

The last character she played in America was Edwin Booth. She retired from the English stage in 1873, but has since appeared before the footlight in Italy occasionally.

Astoria.

CONGRATULATED RISTORI.

New York, Jan. 29.—Close personal and political friends of Senator Hanna deny the rumor that the McKinley Day banquet to be given at the Waldorf-Astoria tonight is to be made the medium for launching a Hanna presidential boom.

CONGRATULATED RISTORI.

On the contrary, eulogies of President McKinley and not political addresses will occupy the larger part of the evening's program and the speakers will include a number of prominent republicans closely allied with the Roosevelt administration.

CONGRATULATED RISTORI.

James J. Grant of Canton, will deliver the eulogy of the late president, from the standpoint of a personal friend. It is expected that Governor Odell and Senators Platt and Depeue will be present, in addition to other republican leaders, local and national.

CONGRATULATED RISTORI.

WARRANTS ARE SERVED ON PROMINENT PENDLETON CITIZENS

The United States of America vs. G. A. Hartman, Charles Cunningham, Joe H. Parks, Asa Rayburn, Dallas O'Hara, Glen H. Saling, Shelly Jones, Mark Shackelford, Kate James, John Doe and Richard Roe.

INDICATIONS OF AN AGREEMENT

This was the bomb that John H. Hall, the United States district attorney, exploded in this city this afternoon, when he served papers on the defendants named above in a case brought by the government charging them with a conspiracy to defraud the United States by making fraudulent land entries and conniving at the fraud attempted.

INDICATIONS OF AN AGREEMENT

Not all of the men charged were in the city, but those who were here were cited to appear before United States Commissioner John Hailey, Jr., this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock to plead to the information.

INDICATIONS OF AN AGREEMENT

The case was brought on an affidavit filed by Special Agent A. R. Green, who makes the specific charges.

INDICATIONS OF AN AGREEMENT

The gist of the allegations brought by the government is that Rayburn, O'Hara, Saling, Jones, Shackelford, James, Doe and Roe made false entries on land which they wished to take up at the instance and request of Charles Cunningham, who wined it for his sheep ranges, and that these people neither know where the land was, or intended to live on it, or had ever been on it.

INDICATIONS OF AN AGREEMENT

Joe Parks and G. A. Hartman drew the papers for the parties and transacted the clerical work for them. Parks is now at Alba, but will be in the city this evening.

INDICATIONS OF AN AGREEMENT

The case is the outcome of the Asa B. Thompson trial, and is the last effort of the government to probe into the bottom of the land conditions here. There is nothing new in the way of developments, and the government has no evidence other than that brought out at the trial in Portland. Judge Hartman, though annoyed that he should be drawn into the affair, claims to have had nothing to do in the matter other than to issue the papers sworn to by the men filing on the lands. He will ask for an immediate examination in order that his connection with the information may be made plain. It is thought that the rest will waive their examination and give bonds for their appearance before the United States jury in Portland.
