PAUL GILMORE
THE MUMMY AND THE HUMMING BIRD
SYNOPSIS FROM ACT I

PAUL GILMORE COMING.

"Mummy and the Humming Bird" at the Frazer Feb. 5.

A most successful leap from romantic drama to polite modern comedy is what has been accomplished by versatile Paul Gilmore, who will be seen at the Frazer next Friday, Feb. 5, in the big New York and London success, "The Mummy and the Humming Bird."

For several seasons theatergoers have been accustomed to seeing this clever young actor in the robust heroic roles of "The Three Guardsmen," "Don Caesar," "Under the Red Rope," etc., and had grown to associate him almost exclusively with that line of characters.

His splendid stage work last season in "The Tyranny of Tears," however, led his manager, Jules Murry, to cast about for a similar, but better play for the display of his attractive young star's versatility, with the result that the complete New York Empire theater production of "The Mummy and the Humming Bird" was secured, and so Mr. Gilmore will again be seen in a John Drew role, which appears to fit him quite as snugly as did the more picturesque garb of the romantic drama.

This, by the way, is not Mr. Gilmore's first venture into so-called "polite drama." For several years he toured with one of the Frohman stock companies in such plays as "Men and Women," "Americans Abroad," "The Wife," "Charity Ball," etc.

SOMETHING NEW IN SIGHT.

"Ten Nights in the Barroom" at the Frazer Feb. 2.

Plays may come and go, but none have lived to enjoy the prosperity of the greatest of all temperance dramas, "Ten Nights in a Barroom." "Like the Sun, it is none the less beautiful because of its age." It is pure wholesome and elevating. It has plenty of comedy to offset the more sober parts, and it is said truthfully, that many a man has become a better person after seeing a production of Ten Nights in a Barroom, which will come to the Frazer on Tuesday, Feb. 2nd.

Cured After Suffering 10 Years.

B. F. Hare, Supt. Miami Cycle & Mfg. Co., Middletown, O., suffered for ten years with dyspepsia. He spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and with doctors without receiving any permanent benefit. He says: "One night while feeling exceptionally bad I was about to throw down the evening paper when I saw an item in the paper regarding the merits of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I concluded to try it and while I had no faith in it I felt better after the second dose. After using two bottles I am stronger and better than I have been in years, and I recommend Kodol Dyspepsia Cure to my friends and acquaintances suffering from stomach trouble." Sold by Tallman & Co.
