Motherhood

MOTHERHOOD is the reward nature bestows upon healthy womanhood. Women whose vitality has been sapped by disease cannot safely give birth to children. In pregnancy and in childbirth weakness of the mother is revealed in the pain and agony she suffers. This great medicine drives out every vestige of inflammation and weakness, and gives tone and strength to the delicate organs which mature the child. The pains of pregnancy are banished by Wine of Cardui, and miscarriages, which blast so many fond mother's hopes, are prevented. Flooding, which so often occurs after childbirth, is corrected when Wine of Cardui is used during pregnancy. Wine of Cardui babies are healthy babies, because, during the months of pregnancy, the mother is able to give them necessary vitality and strength. With these facts presented to American women no expectant mother should be satisfied without the reinforcement that Wine of Cardui will give her. Every mother should be able to treat herself in her home with this valuable medicine. Wine of Cardui can be secured from any druggist at $1.00 a bottle.

Polygarp, N. C., Jan. 11, 1902. I am the mother of seven children and while in pregnancy with the fourth suffered untold misery until they were born. One month before the seventh was born I began to take a bottle of Wine of Cardui, which gave me relief after taking three doses. I used the remainder of the bottle until the birth of the child, and was stouter in three days after the birth than I was a month after the birth of either of the first six. I am 29 years old.

AMERICAN PRIMATE

QUESTION OF HOME RULE FOR AMERICAN CATHOLICS.

Present System of Church Government Unsatisfactory in Many Ways—New Plan Near Enough to Realization to Open Question of Who Will Preside of the New Primacy.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 30.—With the project of creating a primate in the United States be discussed by the Roman Catholic archbishops now assembling in Washington for a special meeting of the American hierarchy? This is the question that is just now uppermost in the minds of churchmen and a large part of the general public. The report that such is the purpose of the present meeting of the archbishops has been repeatedly denied during the last few weeks, but on the other hand the opinion is expressed by many persons well informed in Catholic church matters that the matter will undoubtedly receive attention.

Those holding the latter view base their belief largely on the recent reports from Rome to the effect that Pope Pius has expressed the opinion that it would be very much better for the churches of the English-speaking countries to manage their own business without interference from Rome. In other words His Holiness is understood to have proposed to grant home rule to the Catholics of the United States and Australia. As the situation is viewed in Catholic circles here it would be necessary to appoint a primate before this plan could be carried out in the United States.

Present System Out of Date. The present scheme of governing the affairs of the Catholic church in this country is regarded as out of date and its workings in many particulars are unsatisfactory. For instance, every time a priest has a grievance or a bishop has trouble with his flock or his subordinates he rushes immediately to the vatican with charges and complaints.

Every time a new college is to be started or any other plan proposed, it is necessary for somebody to go to Rome and ask permission, although there are plenty of bishops and archbishops, and at least one cardinal in the United States, not to mention a personal representative of the sovereign pontiff in Washington, who is supposed to have full power. It is said that Cardinal Gibbons is the only member of the hierarchy who has been mentioned by the archbishops for the primacy. The cardinal's presents rank of quasi primato is only honorary, carries no jurisdiction and comes through the fact that tradition has made the archbishop of Baltimore by courtesy the primate of the hierarchy of America.

Cardinal Gibbons has declined to discuss the possibility of the honor being conferred upon him. When the rumor first gained currency it was stated that Archbishop Farley of New York would carry to Rome his findings of the council regarding the project for the creation of a primate. It is now authoritatively announced that the New York archbishop has engaged passage to sail for Rome next Thursday, and this report has greatly strengthened the views of those contending that the question of the primacy is to be discussed at the present meeting.

Scheme Has Opposition. Those who refute the idea of a primate declare that the meeting is solely for the consideration of routine matters, including various matters submitted by the propaganda at Rome. One of the matters to receive at-

Newbro's Herpicide

A Hair Saver that Grows in Popularity

GOING FOR HERPICIDE—BUT NONE TOO SOON

WHY? Because Dandruff is a contagious disease and one cannot get away from it too soon. It is owing to the highly contagious nature of dandruff that the disease is so easily acquired. Washing and scouring the scalp will remove dandruff, but the cause of the disease can be removed only with a scalp germicide, and the original one is Newbro's Herpicide.

THE CHIEF reason for hair neglect and consequent hair loss is due to the extremely slow destructive action of the dandruff microbe, thus giving the impression that the hair is not in danger. The injury is to the hair bulbs, for when they are gone—as in chronic baldness—not even dandruff microbes remain in the scalp.

THE MERE fact that a tiny flake of dandruff—laden with dandruff contagion—finds its way into the healthy hair of a young person, does not cause immediate dandruff and falling hair. Dr. Carter, of Pa. has found that the dandruff microbe requires years of growth and development before it produces dandruff; but after this the apparent destruction becomes more rapid; causing in time itching of the scalp and falling hair.

THE DISEASE DANDRUFF may be gotten by chance, but in almost every case it is acquired through the neglect of certain rules of cleanliness that are best understood by those who have kept pace with recent discoveries relative to the contagious nature of hair disease.

A Healthy Hair.

DISCRIMINATING PEOPLE now regard it a duty to employ a scalp antiseptic that will insure cleanliness and freedom from hair disease. This duty becomes a genuine pleasure in using Newbro's Herpicide, and on account of its refreshing quality and exquisite fragrance a pleasant habit is usually formed for its use.

An Unhealthy Hair.

THE HERPICIDE HABIT. A well known traveling man writes as follows: "A friend of mine exposed me to your delightful remedy and I promptly caught the Herpicide habit." Ladies become enthusiastic over Herpicide, for it overcomes excessive oiliness and makes the hair light and fluffy. It promptly corrects dryness and brittleness of the hair, and never fails to cure dandruff and stop falling hair. It stops itching almost instantly.

21 YEARS' EXPERIENCE. "In 21 years' experience in my business I have found no preparation that equals Newbro's Herpicide for stopping itching of the scalp and removing dandruff."—(Signed) W. C. GOODRICH, Portland, Ore.

IT PLEASES HIS PATRONS. "Have given your Herpicide a thorough trial and take pleasure in recommending it. My patrons are greatly pleased with Herpicide and I can vouch for its merits as a positive cure for dandruff."—(Signed) C. V. HARE, Portland, Or.

"DESTROY THE CAUSE—YOU REMOVE THE EFFECT."

tion, it is said, is the Italian situation in America. This question is a grave one from a religious point of view. Italians are coming to the United States by the thousands, and bringing their wives and children with them. They do not, as do Irish emigrants, bring their church-going habits with them. Italian parents send their children to mass, but themselves fall easily into non-Catholic habits of staying at home. Some years ago, in response to urgent appeals, not a few Italian priests were brought to America to minister to Italian congregations. Some proved competent, but many more proved otherwise, and while in Italy today there are many priests who would be glad to come here, there are few bishops here who want them.

Recently a theological seminary has been established at Troy. Here are sent sons of Italians, born in this country. It is hoped that these sons will understand American ways, and may be trusted to minister to Italian congregations. But whether this project will remedy the situation materially is very doubtful in the minds of the leaders of the church. That which makes the situation even more grave is the readiness of Italians to turn Protestant, especially Baptist and Methodist. Both of these Protestant bodies are making rapid progress in the founding of congregations and it is said that a considerable portion of the new membership is recruited from Italian Catholics.

The situation has become so serious that it is felt something must be done at once if the Catholic church is to retain its hold on the thousands of Italians settled in the United States. At the present meeting, it is said, the situation will be carefully considered from every point of view and the results of the discussions will be sent to Rome for consideration by the vatican.
