

White Wear Sale

This is the Greatest of all Muslin Underwear Sales

Why should we have better values than others offer you in the above line? Because we have a buyer in New York who buys in quantities to supply 51 LARGE STORES. His muslin underwear purchases for this season will be immense. Think of his buying between $40,000.00 and $50,000.00 worth of muslin underwear, and you can then understand why manufacturers are so anxious to get his order, and he buys only after he is certain he has the very lowest prices that any manufacturer can quote on first class goods. This great advantage in buying gives us our muslin underwear at about the same prices that jobbers and wholesalers pay for theirs.

DURING THIS GREAT SALE we are offering you the benefit of this way of buying, by giving you the finest selection of undermuslins in the city at prices that others will not attempt to duplicate.

Thursday, Feb. 4th Friday, Feb. 5th, and Saturday, Feb. 6th we are going to make Special Prices for our Opening Sale of Undermuslins. Our large bills or price sheets have been delivered over town, and if you did not get one, call at the Fair Store and you will be given one, and our salesladies will be glad to show you our assortment, whether you buy or not. We haven't space to describe and price all the different garments we have to show you, but the short list below will give you an idea of the range in prices.

NEWS OF ATHENA

AUGUS McDONALD DIED JANUARY 30.

Was a Prominent and Highly Respected Citizen, and a Resident of Athena Nineteen Years—Marriage of Popular Young Folks—Thos. Ogle is Recovering—Visitor From San Francisco.
Athena, Feb. 3.—August McDonald died Saturday evening, Jan. 30, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Hugh Worthington, in this city after a two weeks illness.
Mr. McDonald was taken sick at Glenwood, Colorado, about two weeks ago, but fortune favored him to live long enough to get home, where he gradually grew worse.
Mr. McDonald was born in Ontario, Canada, Aug. 1, 1859, and

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause.
To treat Dandruff, and Falling Hair, with irritants or oils on which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.
You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.
You must kill the Dandruff Germ. Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.
When the germ is removed, the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.
"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

came to this section of the country in 1885, where he resided the rest of his life. He had no family, but leaves three brothers and two sisters, besides a host of other relatives and friends to mourn.
The funeral was conducted at 11 o'clock at the Christian church, by Rev. Armfield. One thousand or more attended his funeral. He was buried under the auspices of the K. P. Lodge. Mr. McDonald was well-to-do, and left insurance in both the K. P. and Woodmen lodges, of which he was a member.
Miss Areta Saunders is at home visiting relatives.
Thomas Ogle, who has been sick for a month or more, is getting better rapidly.
Miss A. B. Stone spent Tuesday in Walla Walla.
Mrs. Chas. Wilkin, mother of Lee Hiteman, of San Francisco, is visiting at the Hiteman home in this city.

Gerking-Beck.
Miss Winnie Gerking and Roy E. Beck, both of this city, were married at the Christian church Sunday at 1 o'clock, Rev. Jenkins, pastor of that church, officiated. The bride was beautifully costumed in white, while the groom was dressed in black. There was a large crown present to witness the ceremony. The bride is one of Athena's most charming young ladies, and the groom one of Umatilla county's best teachers.

Electric Company's Lawsuit.
Boise, Feb. 3. — The financial troubles of the Boise-Payette River Electric Power Company is likely to break out fresh within the next day or two.
The interest on the company bonds falls due April 1, and so far there is little likelihood that the company will be able to meet the payments. Just what action is to be taken is not ascertainable at this time.
It is more than probable that the affairs of the company will again be aired in court and a fight to the finish follow for possession of the company.

Land Office Business.
Salem, Feb. 3. — The state land office has received during the month of January the sum of $36,840.12 on account of the several funds in its possession, and this sum was Saturday afternoon transferred to the state treasurer.

Little Boy Black.
Little Boy Black sat half the day
On the steps of the old red house,
Watching the little white boys at play,
Like a poor little frightened mouse.
He wondered why they passed him by,
And gave him his milk and bread,
And why they'd play all a summer day,
But never with Little Boy Black.

Little Boy Black was five years old; His father and mother were dead; His granny fought off hunger and cold And gave him his milk and bread. The boys would scan her little man As the old fence he peeped through And run away as they'd hear him say, "I wish I was Little Boy Blue!"

Little Boy Black's small hands are crossed On his little white shrouded breast, And nevermore will his heart be tossed On the waves of his deep unrest. He sobs and sighs, his sad, wet eyes Are silent and calm tonight; His soul has flown to a fairer zone, Where Little Boy Black is white. —John Ernest McCann.

Popping Corn.
And there they sat a-popping corn—
John Styles and Susan Catter—
John Styles as fat as any ox
And Susan fat as butter.
And there they sat and shelled the corn
And raked and stirred the fire
And talked of different kinds of care
And hitched their chairs up higher.
Then Susan she the popper shook;
Then John he shook the popper,
Till both their faces grew as red
As saucupans made of copper.
And then they shelled and popped and ate,
All kinds of fun a-poking,
While he hawhawed at her remarks,
And she laughed at his joking.
And still they popped, and still they ate—
John's mouth was like a hopper—
And stirred the fire and sprinkled salt
And shook and shook the popper.
The clock struck nine, the clock struck ten,
And still the corn kept popping;
It struck eleven and then struck twelve,
And still no signs of stopping.
And John he ate, and Sue she thought—
The corn did pop and patter—
Till John cried out: "The corn's a-fire!
Why, Susan, what's the matter?"
Said she: "John Styles, it's one o'clock;
You'll die of indigestion,
I'm sick of all this popping corn;
Why don't you pop the question?"

Nearly Forfeits His Life.
A runaway almost ending fatally, started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. For four years it defied all doctors and all remedies. But Bucklen's Arnica Salve had no trouble to cure him. Equally good for Burns, Bruises, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c at Tallman & Co.'s Drug Store.

The World Loves a Lover.
Miss May Bondell, twenty-two years old, of Terre Haute, Ind., has failed in her effort to enlist at Fort Sheridan as a private in company I, Twentieth United States Infantry, which is ordered to go to the Philippines as soon as it reaches the maximum number.
She wanted to be with her sweetheart, Carl Pfbaum, a member of the company. Miss Bondell was attired as a natty young man, with her long tresses hidden under a derby hat. She was told she would have to submit to a physical examination.

Assuming the gruff tones of a man's voice, the girl asked whether this part of the ordeal of enlisting was necessary. When told that it was she broke down.
"Then I can never enlist, for I am a girl," she said.
Pfbaum knew nothing of her attempt to go with him until he was summoned into the sergeant's quarters.
He recognized the girl instantly and she sprang into his arms as soon as he entered the room.
The girl has been sent back to her home in Terre Haute.
