CITY CADS MEET

PRINCIPAL BUSINESS IS TO ALLOW BILLS.

Expenses Are Expected to Be Light—That City Printing Question Will Come Up and the Recent Jobbery Will Be Discussed—Minority Report May Be Submitted.

The city council will meet this evening for the regular meeting of the week and will consider the bills for the month just passed. Owing to the fact that the business was closed up on the first of the year, and there is nothing but the running expenses of the city to meet at the present time, it is expected that the expense account will be light in comparison to some of the months of last year when the sewer was being constructed.

There is one measure on the table that has never been finally settled and that is the resolution which B. E. Kennedy tried to railroad through the council some time ago concerning the city printing. On the action of the council on the report of the committee on ways and means, which should be heard this evening concerning their award of the contract for the city printing depends the fate of this resolution. It may be that the resolution will be allowed to die and will not appear in the record of the city's business by the simple adoption of the report of the committee or its rejection as the case may be. A minority report may be brought in.

There is some discussion among the councilmen as to the action of the committee fixing the bid of the morning paper and afterwards awarding the work to them arbitrarily as it was done, and it is possible that the report of the committee will not be adopted without some discussion on the part of the council as a whole. Some of the councilmen are not in favor of the job as it was handled and if they do not take a stand against the action of the committee it will be from the fact that their personal feeling of friendship for those who took the unfair step will prevent them discussing the matter in a public way.

Hartman performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Pierce will leave on the evening train for Ellensburg, where they will make their future home. Mr. Pierce is an employe of the Northern Pacific.

HE IS BETTER.

False Report Was Circulated That Mr. Romogoux Was Dead. Frank Romogoux, a resident living a short distance from the city, who has been suffering from an exceptionally severe attack of pneumonia, is reported better today. A false report had been circulated that Mr. Romogoux had died.

IT IS J. A. BORIE

IS ELECTED PRESIDENT OF COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Members Start a Move Which Affects All Railroads in Oregon and Washington—Want Visitors to Portland Fair to Be Allowed Stop-over Privileges—This Will Greatly Advertise the Country—Will Assist in Construction of Wild Horse Creek Road—Want Earlier Train From Walla Walla.

The annual meeting of the Commercial Association was held last evening in the rooms of the association at which time the officers for the ensuing year were elected and other business transacted.

J. A. Borie was elected president; C. E. Roosevelt, vice-president; J. F. Robinson, secretary; Dr. F. W. Vincent, treasurer; trustees, A. L. Knight, Ernest Younger and J. R. Dickson.

The condition of the association financially and numerically was discussed and it is the intention of the members to make a canvass and attempt to bring the organization back to its old-time place of prominence in the community. For some time the association has been degenerating in influence as the interest in its deliberations waned among those who belonged to it, until it has come to the pass where a few men of the city are bearing the whole weight of the organization on their shoulders, while the bulk of the people who are benefited by its actions for the betterment of the city have nothing to do with the labor. It will be the effort of the men in the association now to change this condition of things if it is possible and infuse new life into the body by bringing new members into the fold.

There were two important measures discussed and acted upon at the meeting last night. The first, and perhaps the most important of the two was a resolution introduced by Dr. C. J. Smith petitioning the great trans-continental roads of the country to allow stop-over privileges to all persons visiting the Lewis and Clark fair. As the resolution was introduced, it included only the state of Oregon, but on motion of T. C. Taylor it was amended to include the state of Washington, as that state would be equally interested in a movement of the kind. The resolution was passed and the secretary of the association will confer with all of the commercial bodies of the two states asking their co-operation in petitioning the roads of the country who carry visitors through this state and Washington to and from the fair to allow stop-over privileges both going and coming that the people of the East may have a chance to see the resources of the country and its advantages of climate and resources.

The other measure was of local interest and had to do with the proposed road down the Wild Horse creek, an account of which was published in this paper last evening. T. C. Taylor, C. E. Roosevelt and F. W. Vincent were appointed as a committee to bring the matter before the county court at the next meeting and use their influence to see that it had the favorable consideration of the court. The petition for the road is now in the hands of people of the county who are interested in its construction and as it is known that the court will be in favor of its building provided the expense will not be excessive, the committee will have but little trouble with that body unless the cost gets beyond their inclination when it will take some persuasion to cause them to authorize its construction without help being given to the county.

Albert Cohen, R. J. Foster and Elmer Dodd were appointed as a committee to circulate a petition among the citizens of the vicinity asking for the time of the arrival of the mixed Walla Walla train to be changed so that the train will reach the city at 1 o'clock as in the past. This petition will be passed among those who are interested in the change, and then sent to the superintendent of the company.

PENDLETON'S GAME.

Fell Down in First Half—Second Half All Their Way.

The basket ball game between the Weston Normal school and the Pendleton high school teams was a very close and exciting one. In the first half the visitors were ahead of the game with a score of 8 to 4, but when the last part of the game was played the Pendleton boys got into their stride and ran away from the Weston lads, winning with 11 points to their credit against 8 for the visiting boys.

There was good playing on both sides of the field, and no one deserves more mention for his way he handled the ball, than his opponent. The first and second teams of the girls of the high school played a preliminary game which was won by the first team with a score of seven points. The second team was unable to score against the first.

After the games were over the visitors were tendered a reception by the pupils of the high school, at which a musical program was rendered.

The line-up of the boys' teams was as follows: Weston—White, right guard; Strichlin, left guard; Ross, center; Marsh, right forward; Brumback, left forward. Pendleton—Wyrick, left forward;

"MUMMY AND HUMMING BIRD."

Powerful Creation Splendidly Presented, Friday Evening Next.

"Bright with epigrammatic dialogue, strong in original conception and clever of interpretation is 'The Mummy and the Humming Bird,' which handsome and polished Paul Gilmore and supporting cast gave to Salt Lake theater patrons last night. The part of Lord Jack Lumley, that he essayed last night was almost ideal in the ease and naturalness of its portrayal.

"It is worthy of note that the three principal exponents of modern English comedy are Charles Wyndham, John Drew and Paul Gilmore. Then it is a peculiar coincidence that each of these three should have achieved his greatest success, first in 'The Tyranny of Tears,' and then in 'The Mummy and the Humming Bird.'"

The above is an excerpt from a half-column review in the Deseret News, of the presentation of 'The Mummy and the Humming Bird,' in Salt Lake City, by the same troupe which presents it at the Frazer the evening of Friday, February 5. Not merely is it 'the same troupe,' as to the leading characters, but in every detail of the personnel, from Mr. Gilmore to the baggage rustler. It is, in every particular, one of the strongest casts in the Northwest this season, striking the highest average of dramatic excellence that has come before the Pendleton public.

From start to finish the production has artistic finish; of acting, scenery and general effect. It is something to laugh at, weep over, study, astound and admire, and above all, to remember with pleasure. It is in a class by itself also as regards plot. At the Frazer February 5.

W. L. Maple at Nyssa.

W. L. Maple, manager of the Maple Leaf Creamery at Payette, was a business visitor at Nyssa yesterday.

The Maple brothers are largely interested in the creamery business in Idaho, and are always on the lookout for a larger increase for their business. Mr. Maple stated that they will be willing and are anxious to secure all the butter fat that the farmers of this section have for sale, and will buy it of them at the best figures the market quotes.

While here Mr. Maple sold a cream separator to Ira M. Rutledge, and made arrangements with that gentleman to have all his butter fat shipped to the Payette creamery.

Mr. Maple will use his influence with the Pacific Express Co. to have an agent appointed at Nyssa to look after the milk shipments. — Nyssa (Malheur Co.) Progress.

The Renown of Grocery Excellence

Is built on a tripod of Quality, Prices and service.

While we do not claim to sell all groceries, at all times at lower prices than any other store, we do claim and DO meet all honest competition.

It is a common practice to offer a few items at cost or less, as a "bait" to attract a customer, and then is the opportunity to overcharge on other goods. That practice has never been followed at this store. It is a common practice to sell groceries of inferior grade for goods of good quality under pretense they are worth more money. That is not done here. There are other kinds of unfair if not dishonest, kinds of competition we do not try to meet. But when it is a matter of reliable groceries, honest weight, good service and fair treatment all round,

Then we are right in the Fight.
