A Group of Choristers from "Said Pasha."

"SAID PASHA" IS GOOD.

Baker City Paper Compliments
Olympia Opera Company.

The Baker City Democrat has the following to say of the Olympia Opera company's production of "Said Pasha." The company will present Said Pasha at the Frazer on Feb. 22.

"The Olympia Opera Company rendered "Said Pasha" as the initial number of the week's engagement at the opera house last evening. Many worse operas have been perpetrated on a Baker City audience for twice the money charged last evening.

It was a bad night but a good audience braved the storm to witness the performance.

John E. Young, as Hadad and Geo. Adde as Nockey, his companion, furnished most of the amusement.

Miss Eleonore Jenkins and Carl Hayden carried off the musical honors of the evening. Their duet in the last act was exceedingly pretty. They respond to a hearty encore with pleasing grace.

The chorus girls are pretty and they dress and act as though to the manner born.

The baldheaded row was not as densely populated last night as it will be tonight, when the absent members hear what their brethren who attended last evening have to say about the pretty girls."

Howard Kyle.

"THE ROSEMARY."

Howard Kyle Coming to the Frazer
February 25.

Howard Kyle's role of Sir Jasper Thorndyke in "Rosemary," the pretty English nineteenth century romance which will be seen at the Frazer on February 25, depicts a rare quality of philanthropy. Deprived of the woman he loved in his youth, the bachelor of 40, again loses the object of his adoration by diplomatically winning the father's consent to the girl's marriage with her eloping fiance. Mr. Kyle's interpretation of Sir Jasper brings forth a different phase of the actor's art than the roles he was wont to play in the past. "Rosemary" was one of the few great successes at the Empire theater, New York, where it was played during the better part of one season.

Kentucky Y. M. C. A.

Bowling Green, Ky., Feb. 18. — A host of ardent Christian workers several hundred strong has assembled in Bowling Green to take part in the twenty-sixth annual state convention of the Young Men's Christian association, which will hold forth here during the remainder of the week. Every local branch of the association in Kentucky has sent from two to ten delegates to the convention and in addition there are present a number of prominent educators, ministers, evangelists and others who will take part.

An Early Riser.

A strong, healthy, active constitution depends largely on the condition of the liver. The famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers not only cleanse the system but they strengthen the action of the liver and rebuild the tissues supporting that organ. Little Early Risers are easy to act, they never gripe and yet they are absolutely certain to produce results that are satisfactory in all cases. Sold by Tallman & Co.

Five specially constructed ferry boats costing $370,000 each, will be put on duty soon in New York harbor.

A FEW WORDS ABOUT PEARSON'S MAGAZINE FOR 1904
PEARSON'S MAGAZINE appeals to every member of the family. In the words of a subscriber, "It is the easy-to-read Magazine." It is different from any other magazine, and by that quality, although less than five years old, has taken its place among the very best sellers. Its field is a general one of wholesome entertainment and instructiveness.

Following are four of the special features for 1904:

- WALL STREET METHODS OF "FINANCE"
By HENRY GEORGE, JR.
A number of true accounts of some of the Wall Street "dealers" by which the savings of the many have been sacrificed to satisfy the cravings of the few. Read these articles and realize the wisdom of the advice of the Late Governor Roswell P. Flower to a party of his friends to "keep your money in your pocket."
- MODERN INDIAN WARS
By CYRUS TOWNSEND BRADY
A brilliant and thrilling history of the hostile frontier of the past forty years, giving justice to the public service of such men as MILLS, LAWTON, CABOT, FOSTER, CUSTER, CARBINGTON, MCKENZIE, HOWARD, WHEATON, DAVIS, SULLY, BAKER and others;—taking Indian fights out of the category of boys' story books and dignifying them with their proper place in the history of our nation. A series of six or eight articles.
- TOM NAST, CARTOONIST
By ALBERT BIGELOW PAINE
Illustrated by the choice of the world's greatest master of public opinion ever known. The biography of Nast is veritably a world's history of the times when history was written in making.
- The Overthrow of the Tweed Ring—The Civil War Period—The History of Slavery—The Reconstruction Period—The Greeley Presidential Campaign—The Garibaldi Campaign in Italy—The Great Hoosier-Cayuga Fight in London—The Blaine Presidential Campaign are a few of the important headings upon which the series of six or eight papers are built.
- THE REVELATIONS OF AN INTERNATIONAL SPI
Which ran in Pearson's through the first months of 1903 will be resumed in January, 1904. This new set of detective stories has been arranged in response to the demands of thousands of readers who regretted the termination of the first series. The author still stipulates the lowest must remain a secret.

"He that bloweth not his own horn the same shall not be heard"

When Dinner's Ready

THE FARMER'S WIFE BLOWS THE HORN TO SUMMON HER HUSBAND TO THE MIDDAY MEAL.

...IT BRINGS HIM.

WHEN THE MERCHANT HAS PREPARED A FEAST OF GOOD THINGS FOR WHICH PLENTY OF PEOPLE ARE HUNGRY, HE, TOO SHOULD TOOT A HORN TO CALL THEM TO HIS BANQUET OF BARGAINS.

BUT THE HORN MUST BE BLOWN WHERE THE MULTITUDE WILL HEAR IT OR NOBODY WILL COME TO THE FEAST.

BECAUSE NOBODY WILL KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT IT, EVEN THOUGH IT MAY BE THE MOST TEMPTING REPAST EVER SPREAD.

THE ADVERTISING HORN VIGOROUSLY BLOWN IN THE COLUMNS OF A LIVE, WIDE AWAKE, UP TO DATE NEWSY NEWSPAPER THAT GOES AMONG THE CLASS OF PEOPLE HE WANTS FOR PATRONS, WILL BRING HIM A VOLUME OF TRADE FAR BEYOND HIS MOST BANGUINE EXPECTATIONS.

THE VERY BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM FOR PENDLETON MERCHANTS IS THE EAST OREGONIAN BECAUSE THROUGH IT THEY CAN SEND THEIR MESSAGE DIRECT EVERY EVENING TO THE MAJORITY OF THE PROSPEROUS HOMES OF PENDLETON MOST OF WHOM WANT TO BUY SOMETHING

LET THE BUSINESS MAN SHOW THESE PEOPLE THE ADVANTAGE OF BUYING HIS GOODS, AND HE WILL HAVE NO TROUBLE IN SECURING THEIR PATR NAGE.

A LITTLE JUDICIOUS BLOWING OF THE HORN WILL DO THE BUSINESS.
