CONVENTION OF ENDEAVORERS

(Concluded.)

to man was of heaven on earth, the golden city coming to this world from above.

"So when you go home with the idea of upbuilding the city, of making it fulfill the vision of the prophet, of forming its homes and making them pure, the greatest service that man can give to man, of upbuilding business, which is run in the plane of Christ's treatment of man, of uprearing schools where the purity of life and the nobleness of American citizenship is taught. That is the call to service for the Christian Endeavorers of the nation."

After the benediction the meeting dispersed.
Following the invocation by Rev.
Mellinger, Miss Jessie Hartman favored the audience with a well-respected vocal solo.

After the song Rev. Jonathan Edwards presented a resolution which was adopted by a unanimous vote of the audience. The text of the resolution follows:

Resolutions.

Whereas, There seems to be a division of opinion relative to the recent action of our prosecuting attorney, the Hon. T. G. Halley; and, we believe, a great deal of dissatisfaction with the attitude of the present city council regarding the gambling element in this city, it having apparently adopted the open town policy; and

Whereas, The Christian Endeavor movement has among its primary motives the promotion of civic righteousness; be it

Resolved, That the congregation here assembled, representing different portions of the state, as well as this city, express our profound appreciation and hearty approval of the strenuous efforts of the Hon. T. G.
Halley, as prosecuting attorney, in enforcing the laws against gambling in this city and county;

Resolved, That we recognize in Mr. Halley a man representing the highest citizenship, with the heroic courage necessary to do his duty as an officer of the state; and as citizens of Oregon and of Pendleton, we promise to him our substantial support in his laudable endeavors in the direction of enforcement of all laws, and to rid the city of those who are disposed to violate them, or else make them pay the penalty.

Resolved, That these resolutions be passed by a standing vote.

The offering of the evening was then taken, it being announced by the chairman that the proceeds would be devoted to furthering the great ambition of the late field secretary, Clarence E. Eberman, the work of advancing the cause of the Christian Endeavor in foreign lands.
While the offering was being taken Mrs. Z. W. Cummerford of Prineville, sang very sweetly, a solo.
Mrs. Marsten of this city, also gave a solo which was well received.

The services commenced this morning with a "quiet hour" led by Rev. C. T. Hurd, of Salem, which was followed by a general meeting on the opportunities before young people, which was addressed by Rev. Albyn Esson, of Portland; J. H.
Barton, of Union; L. M. Boozer, of Portland, and D. A. Thompson, of Portland.

Committee Reports.

Following this the report of the committees were read and the officers of the convention for the coming two years were elected.
The auditing committee, Miss Celeste M. Liston, of Salem, chairman, reported that the accounts of the treasurer were correct and that there was a balance of $98.89 on hand.

The committee appointed to look over the question as to whether it would be feasible to create the office of field secretary for Oregon, Washington and California, reports that it would be of great advantage to the work, and recommended that steps be taken with that end in view.

It was estimated by the committee that it would take $1,000 a year to keep the office running, and it was recommended that if it were found possible to raise that amount of money that the office be created and a person appointed to fill the place.

New Corps of Officers.
The report of the nominating committee was then read and adopted by a unanimous vote of the delegates present. The report fixed the officers of the State Union as follows:

President—John A. Rockwood, of Portland, re-elected.
Secretary—Miss D. C. Mansfield, of Mt. Tabor.
Treasurer—R. W. Brookings, of Portland.

First Vice-President—Miss Alice Christian, of Milton.
Second Vice-President—Mrs. Elia
D. Rice, of Ashland.
Third Vice-President—Rev. A. A.
Winter, of Dallas.

Department superintendents: Junior work, Mrs. T. E. Gault, of Oregon City; temperance and citizenship, Rev. F. H. Mixsell, of Oregon City; Christian Endeavor literature, Miss Beula Henkle, of Philomath; devotional, Rev. C. T. Hurd, of Salem; press agent, W. A. Dill, of Eugene.

When the convention met this afternoon the time was taken up with a patriotic meeting which was addressed by Judge Stephen A. Lowell on the subject of "Washington a ### Special Music.

The special features of the meeting tonight will be the music, which has been carefully prepared for the occasion. A male quartet composed of delegates to the convention will sing, and a double quartet of Pendleton people will sing the "Heavens Are Telling," by Haydn. There will be other numbers which will be very entertaining. The meeting this evening is the closing one, and will be held in the Baptist church.

This evening the banner will be given to the district which has made the largest increase in membership during the past year.
