They are all laundrymen, and have been lighting up their places with big incandescent lights, while the meter has been showing that little or no current was used The inspectors could not understand the matter until they caught Chicago Sam stringing wires around the meter that tapped the flow of electricity before it reached the box. Since then they have been watching for other cases. Others besides Chi-namen are beating the meter, ac-cording to the inspectors, and a strict writch is being maintained to break up the practice.—Seattle Star.

Lewiston Citizens to the Czar. A letter bearing the signatures of Lewiston citizens was yesterday mailed to the czar of Russia extend ing to him best wishes and the hope that in the war with Japan the Russian arms will be triumphant. The letter is prefaced by reviewing the friendly attitude always shown by friendly attitude always shown by Russia toward the United States, and explains that this fact prompts an expression on the part of the signers as American citizens. It is recited in the letter that England is now endeavoring to create a sentiment in favor of the Japanese and that this sentiment has in a degree extended to America and has influenced the less thoughtful Americans.—Lewisten Tribune.

Boise Makes a "Find." An important step was taken at the council meeting last night which may be the means of putting $15,000 more into the city treasury. Councilman Barber said that he had been informed that the city had not been getting its portion of the county road money for the past several years and that there was something like $15,000 which had accumulated. Upon his motion James S. Bogart was employed to make an examina-tion of the books to see just how much, if any was due the city.—Boise Capital News.
