An Idaho Monte Carlo. to the surface the last few days would indicate it. Such an effort was made early last summer, but for over a mile, there was then and is now a "closed All these dang town" element in power which frus-trated the attempts of Spokane and other gambling men to turn the fa-mous summer resort into the conemplated center of the northwest.

The matter seems now to have again been taken up by the local and coast sporting men. Action has been hastened by the fact that the beautiful little pleasure resort is to have another election. A determined effort will immediately be made to de-feat the old "closed town" element at night withdrew his resignation from the coming election and put men in the bands of the county commission-the council who will not insist that the town be closed to the sporting leged the clerk is short in the trust best of authority that sporting men funds. New Rate Schedule.

The local office of the O. R. & N. has received the schedule of rates for the World's Fair tickets during the St. Louis exposition. The round trip from Pendleton to St. Louis and return will be $60; to Chicago and return will cost $65.

On the round trip tickets to St Logis and return by way of Chicago, no coupons will be sold, and the cost will be $62.50.

There is a 10-day limit on the going time or on the first end of the trip, which will give approximately a five-day layover at any point desired by the tourist, as the traveling time from here to St. Louis is about five days. The time limit on the ticket is 90 days, and on the last lap the traveler can use the full time in stopover privileges.

Tickets will be placed on sale in the Pendleton office during three days in the months of May, June, July, August and September each, though the exact days of the sale have not yet been decided.
