TAX-PAYING TIME

PROVISIONS OF THE LAW THAT GOVERNS.

Three Per Cent Rebate if Paid Before March 15—Delinquent After April 1, if No Part is Paid—If Half Paid by April 1, Remainder Not Delinquent Until Oct. 1.—Personal Property Tax Must Be Paid by First Monday in April.

Taxpaying is the order of the day and the provisions of the tax law make interesting reading for the people just now. Although Oregon went through the experience of passing a new tax law, which proved invalid, called a special session to remedy the law, paying out several thousand dollars for the unique experience, she finds herself today just where she was before a new law was thought of, or passed, back with the old law, and taxpaying time in the spring of the year.

If you pay your taxes on or before March 15 you will be allowed a rebate of 3 per cent.

If you pay your taxes between March 15 and up to and including the first Monday in April, there will not be any rebate, and neither will there be any penalty added.

If your taxes are not paid on or before the first Monday in April they will become delinquent, when there will be added a penalty of 10 per cent and the tax will also draw interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum in addition to the penalty.

If you pay one-half of your taxes on or before the first Monday in April then the remaining half may run up to and including the first Monday in October following; but if the last half of tax due is not paid by the first Monday of October it becomes delinquent and there will be added to such balance a penalty of 10 per cent and in addition such will bear interest at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from the first Monday in April until paid.

On all personal property taxes, if not paid on or before the first Monday in April the law compels the sheriff to levy upon and collect the same after May 1st; hence to prevent a levy upon personal property after May 1st, it will be necessary for one-half to be paid as above stated.

GET RID OF DOGS.

General Crusade Against Superfluous Canines This Spring.

Only four councilmen appeared on the scene last night, and as a result there was no meeting. Those who did come, however, talked things over, and it is probable that at the next meeting the city pound will be moved, by order of the council, to some place not so near the center of the town.

Marshal Carney is also about to inaugurate a crusade against the dogs. Pendleton has more dogs to the square inch than any other place on the map, and those found without a license will be of short duration, if the purpose of the officers is carried out. They will slay every one found that has no one interested enough in its existence to put up a few cents as a ransom.

CLERK AT HOTEL ST. GEORGE SAID HE DID.

Claimed That C. L. Miner Lifted About Forty Dollars Which Did Not Belong to Him, While the Clerk's Back Was Turned—Made His Get-Away, But Warrants Are Out for Him.

C. L. Miner, a stranger in the city, who has been stopping at the Hotel St. George for several days, is accused of doing a little sleight-of-hand work this morning just before the train pulled out for Walla Walla, and as a result the hotel is out of a board bill of $10.50, a $20 bill and the difference between $20 and $10.50.

Miner went to the hotel office to pay his bill, intending to take the train for Walla Walla. He asked the clerk the amount which was $10.50, and tendered in payment a $20 bill. The clerk handed him the $9.50 in change and turned to answer a question asked him, when Miner, it is said, picked up the change and the bill and made for the train.

He was followed by the clerk and found on the train, but claimed to know nothing of the matter and refused to get off when requested to do so.

The sheriff was notified and a warrant sworn out charging the man with theft. Officers at the various stations and at Walla Walla were notified, and it is thought there is no doubt but what they will get their man.

Miner in Custody.

Miner was arrested at the depot in Walla Walla by the sheriff, and is being held there until some one from this place goes after him.

SINGERS IN TOWN.

Personnel and Parts of the Whitman Glee Club.

The members of the Whitman College Glee Club arrived on the Walla Walla local at 1:30 today. Two members of the faculty of the conservatory of music accompanied them—Edgar S. Fisher and Miss Jones. Professor Pennell will arrive this evening.

The party consists of the following persons: First tenors, R. Sutherland, C. Thomason and Orville G. Edwards; second tenors, M. A. Kees, C. A. Brainard; first bass, H. H. Merritt, W. W. Merritt and C. A. Palmer; second basses, M. D. Wilkinson, C. D. Robinson; director and violin soloist, Edgar S. Fisher; accompanist, Miss M. Grace Jones; cellist and baritone, Professor Thomas J. Pennell.

The Glee Club sang two selections at the assembly hall of the high school this afternoon to the delight of the scholars. A large audience is expected at the Baptist church this evening.

W. & C. R. OFFICIALS.

Visited Pendleton on Annual Tour of Inspection, Leaving This Morning.

A special train bearing a party of officials of the Northern Pacific, visited the city last night and left this morning for Walla Walla and pay points on the W. & C. R. The gentlemen were on their annual tour of inspection and will visit all the branches of the system in the West before returning to their offices.

Those in the party were Mr. Levy, of Tacoma, the assistant to the president; Thomas Cooper, of St. Paul, the general manager; J. N. Hanford, of St. Paul, the second vice-president; A. E. Law, of Tacoma, the assistant general superintendent, and Joseph McCabe, the vice-president of the W. & C. R.; S. B. Calderhead, the general passenger agent; and J. G. Cutler, the treasurer, all officials of the W. & C. R. with headquarters at Walla Walla.

LOOKING UP INHERITANCE.

Barlow People Representing Themselves to Be Heirs of S. J. Olney.

Judge Thomas Fitz Gerald is in receipt of a couple of letters from Miss Bessie Sheppard, of Barlow, asking for information concerning the death and last will of Stephen J. Olney.

According to the story told, Mr. Olney made a will some years ago in which he left all of his property to the mother of the writer and her two children. She is of the opinion, however, that a later will was afterwards made by which the property was given to relatives. The inquirer would like to have the matter looked up, however, and if there is no later will would like to have a little slice of the goods and chattels left by the founder of the cemetery.

BOOKS SENT HERE.

Northwest Tournament Confidently Expected Later.

While the Sportsmen's Association has not been officially notified that the Northwest tournament will be held here, all of the books of the association have been sent to this city, with instructions from a majority of the members of the board telling the local men to go ahead with their preparations and that the board will take action in the matter as soon as they can get together for a vote.

The committees of the local club are now at work making the preliminary arrangements for the shoot and in a short time will have everything prepared for a successful meet.

TO CHECK THE DRUGGISTS.

H. A. Kline Has Started Up an Interesting Fight.

H. A. Kline, a saloonkeeper on Main street, has started the bees to humming in great shape with his communication to the council. At the meeting a week ago he asked why it was that the druggists did not pay a liquor license when they sold wines and liquors to their customers, and the question was referred to the license committee, which has been trying to find an answer during the week. The matter would have been brought up last night had the council met, and will be at the next meeting.

It has been decided by the committee that the druggists will be asked to either quit selling by the glass or take out a regular license, as the saloons are required to do.

Some of the druggists oppose this ruling and say that if they are required to take out a license they will put in big stocks of liquors and do a regular retail business. What end will be reached is not known, for it would hardly be a paying proposition for the drug stores to pay the required license, and on the other hand it would be a hard thing to catch them violating the law in a small city where everyone is known to them. The council will take some action at the next meeting.

RESTRAINING ORDER.

Mr. Ely Must Keep the Peace, According to an Order of the Court.

A restraining order was issued this morning by Judge Ellis in the case of Matilda Ely vs. Louis Ely. The plaintiff asked the court for the order, as she is afraid of her husband, claiming that he has threatened her and will, unless restrained, cause her trouble while the suit is pending. This is the case in which the plaintiff alleges her husband beat her in the face with a hot stove hook, and otherwise mistreated her.

BAPTIST SUPPLY PASTOR.

Rev. McKee, of McMinnville, Will Preach Here Next Sunday.

Rev. H. C. McKee, of McMinnville, has been secured to preach at the Baptist church in this city from now until the regular pastor arrives from the east in April. Mr. McKee will be here next Sunday and will preach both morning and evening. He was formerly pastor of the Baptist church at Athens, and has preached at various points in this part of the state, being well known here.

Suit on Labor Account.

A suit was filed yesterday afternoon in Judge Fitz Gerald's court by C. D. Drake against the laundry firm of Crowner & Company, for $140, which he alleges to be due as wages for work performed. He has also garnished the purchase money paid by Joe Hoch in order to get returns from his suit. The hearing has been set for March 2 by the court.

POISONING ALLEGED

CLAIMED RAILROADER'S WIFE DOCTORED HIS TEA.

End of the First Week of Married Felicity for Mr. Legg and His Wife of Pleasant Valley—The Tea Killed a Dog and Made Mr. Legg Sick, and He at Once Concluded Something Was Wrong.

The East Oregonian is in receipt of the telegram printed below, giving details of an alleged attempt at husband poisoning near Baker City:

Pleasant Valley, Feb. 25.—(Special to the East Oregonian.)—Mrs. L. M. Legg tried to poison her husband, a fireman on the O. R. & N., last night at the supper table, by giving him doctored tea.

Last night about 6:15 o'clock, Mr. Legg went out on some errand, and when he came back to the house supper was ready. He sat down, tasted his tea and complained to Mrs. Legg that it did not taste right. She then put two spoonfuls of sugar in it, but he objected to so much sugar, and becoming suspicious, poured some out into a saucer, and putting some milk with it, fed it to a little dog. It killed the dog in about three minutes.

Legg turned and looked at his wife and asked her if she intended the tea for him. She took the balance of the tea, making believe she was going to drink it, but threw it out.

Legg's taste of the tea began to affect him, and by the time he got outside his wife fainted, and he called to a passerby who helped him move her into the house. A doctor was sent for. He arrived on the midnight train, but it is understood he failed to find the woman was poisoned. Both are up and around today, but no action has been taken, and the public is in the dark as to what will be done.

Legg is a fireman on the O. R. & N. and is about 50 years of age. His wife is 21, and was, before her marriage, Miss Lillie Schaefer. They were married in Pleasant Valley on February 18.

Dirty dollars are not cleaned by giving.

W. & C. R. Concrete Gang.

Fred Cass, of Vanaycle, was in the city yesterday for a short time on business. Mr. Cass is the foreman of the concrete gang of the W. & C. R. and will put his men to work by the first of the month on a lot of work that has to be done immediately. There is concrete work along the line that will keep the men busy all the coming summer.

No Jobs There.

No, there is no opening at Irrigon for laborers or mechanics. Our town is not on a "boom." We are just rapidly forging ahead by hard work and good management. We are all busy and happy and prosperous. But we need no laborers, artisans or mechanics. "It keeps us busy keeping those busy who keep us busy." See? In other words only owners of land are given employment.—Irrigon Irrigator.

Attention Woodmen.

Camp 41 will have a smoker and program Saturday night, February 27 in La Dow hall, for members only.
