

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

After Nez Perce Agent.
It has developed that ex-Senator Heitfeld's present trip to the east is in connection with recent troubles on the Nez Perce reservation and the charges filed against Superintendent McArthur. Senator Heitfeld left yesterday morning and friends say he had been requested by the Indian department at Washington to assist in the further investigation of the charges made by the Indians and others against Mr. McArthur.

Persons pushing the claims against the superintendent and acting agent claim that even if the Indian department does not act on the present charges other charges will be at once filed and an even more rigid investigation demanded.

Friends of Mr. McArthur say that in the investigation held by Special Agent McNichols in December last the Indian complainants were unable to give any evidence against the superintendent worthy of attention and that in all probability the matter will never be heard of again.—Lewiston Tribune.

Wheat Reports From Walla Walla.
Milton Evans, state correspondent for the department of agriculture, will today forward his report for the Walla Walla valley, showing conditions at the close of February. The report shows that all the corn raised last year was of a marketable quality and the price averaged about 9 cents per bushel. Mr. Evans estimates that 25 per cent of the wheat crop of last year is still in the hands of the farmers and that one per cent is annually consumed within the county. The corn crop of the county is shown to be of but little importance, although enough is raised to supply local demands.—Walla Walla Union.

The Negro Can't Help It.
Some intimation of the rumors that the recent marriage of the negro captain of the Ninth cavalry to a mulatto, Miss Ada Mills, has caused at the Presidio, has drifted into local army circles from San Francisco. Captain Charles Young, as stated in the telegraphic dispatches last Sunday, took unto himself a wife at Oakland.

Notwithstanding the fact that the regulations seem to prescribe that in negro regiments, such as the Ninth cavalry, all the officers shall be white, Captain Young has been a member of the Ninth for seven years. The white wives of all the other officers in the regiment are up in arms over the fulfillment of army etiquette which says that they shall call on Captain Young's wife and receive her on equal footing at all post hops and other entertainments.—Walla Walla Statesman.

Will Sign Deeds to Right of Way.
F. A. Seufert of The Dalles, says that he is ready to convey to the state and the national government right of way for Cello canal through his property and that he will sign the deeds this week.

Mr. Seufert's holdings cover five and a half miles of the proposed canal route, the remaining three miles being owned by I. H. Taffe, William Mitchell, Everding & Parrel, and the O. R. & N. railway. All of these owners are willing to give up ground readily and have reached an understanding with the state commissioners excepting Mr. Taffe, who says his valuable property interests will be considerably damaged by the waterway. Mr. Taffe owns about one quarter mile of the canal route.

The state commissioners will probably sign up with the owners within the next 30 days, and meanwhile will endeavor to make an amicable agreement with Mr. Taffe, paying him liberally for damages.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Pool Selling Closed Out.
The pool room at the Hoffman House, selling pools on the California races, was closed yesterday. The reason assigned is that the new license imposed by the council is exorbitant and prohibitive.—Boise Statesman.

HIDES AND PELTS

SCARCITY OF BOTH, THE WINTER BEING TOO MILD.
At the Same Time Prices Are Dull—Winter Has Been Very Favorable for Stock, Which Are in Good Condition in Every Locality and in Good Health—Business is Dull With the Hide Men.

The hide market is a dead thing this year, and where one pelt has been shipped out in the past few months five were sent over the road last year. This is in a large measure due to the mild winter and the fact that so few of the sheep and cattle have died during the cold weather. The weather of the past few months has been very healthy for the stock. This, though advantageous to the cattle owner, is hard on the hide man.

Green sheep pelts are selling for 5 cents, and the dry for 7 cents, while green beef hides are bringing 4 cents, and 11 cents dry. This will show the market to be falling, and though the supply is short, the demand seems to be very weak.

The local men in the business have but little to do, and have a hard time in finding pelts enough to justify the hunt after them.

The Name Witch Hazel.
The name Witch Hazel is much abused. E. C. De Witt & Co., Chicago, are the inventors of the original and only genuine Witch Hazel Salve.
