

Pendleton's Most Satisfactory Ready-to-Wear Department

A broad claim, but true. There is an air of refinement, of exclusiveness about the garments shown here that is refreshing. They are artistic from the fact that they come from the continent's best makers. Exclusive, because they are samples principally and only one of a kind, a most desirable condition, appreciated by every woman. Then, too, we own these garments cheaper than they can be made, for after a manufacturer has taken his orders he has no further use for the samples, so to make it short, our buyer gets them in their usual way, very much under price. We pass them to you with only a small profit attached. The spring suits are beautiful creations of the tailor's art. Styles are various, but the Eton jacket seems to have the preference. Now novelty suitings in rather light colors are here and are greatly admired, but the staple colors, blues, blacks, greys and browns, are very stylish and handsome, such suits as will be priced in stores at $30 to $40, are here for the season's opening at $10, $12.50, $15, $18, $20.

SHUN THE PEDDLER

IDAHO COMPLAINS OF POOR NURSERY STOCK.

Says, Peddlers Ship in Poorest Stock and That Last Year 9,000 Trees Bought of Eastern Nurseries Failed to Grow—Senator Heyburn Fails to Secure Passage of Amendment Regulating Dishonest Traffic in Trees.

Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, introduced an amendment to the general agricultural appropriation bill in congress, with a view to prohibiting the sale of worthless fruit trees in any state or territory. The amendment failed to pass, because of its class legislation features.

The abuses of the Eastern fruit tree agents are becoming unbearable in the West, and Senator Heyburn cited the fact that he had lists of farmers and orchardists, showing that in the past year, over 9,000 fruit trees sent out by Eastern firms had proved worthless and unfit for use, and had to be pulled up and thrown away, in Idaho last year.

Peddlers from Eastern nurseries sell the cheapest stock that is sent out, to the Western communities. This stock fails to grow, puts the purchasers back a year in starting an orchard, and is a clear robbery. They Heyburn amendment sought to prohibit this unjust traffic in fruit trees, inasmuch as the practice of selling the worthless stock is becoming so universally demoralizing in some Western districts.

While the same practice prevails to a certain extent in Oregon, it has not reached the degree here that it has in Idaho. There is a growing tendency in Oregon to patronize home nurseries and turn down the foreign agents who enter the field.

The same condition could be brought about in Idaho, if people would patronize their home nurseries, and refuse to buy of the transients. It is an abuse which is brought upon the orchardists by themselves.

There is a general movement in the West looking toward better grades of fruit, and the eradication of the pests, and although it seems difficult to reach the questions by law, there must be united action on the part of the people to improve conditions.

NORTH M'KAY ITEMS.

School Closed Because Teacher Failed to Take Examination.

North McKay, March 4.—Miss Ruth Kidder is visiting her uncle in Spokane.

The ground is very wet, the roads are very muddy, but wheat is looking fine.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kidder attended the wedding of their cousin, Miss Emma Wilkinson, in Walla Walla on Wednesday last.

There are quite a number of farmers who are waiting for the ground to dry out in order to finish seeding.

Miss Sally Huston has retired as teacher of school district No. 39. She failed to appear for examination at the late gathering of teachers, supposing she would be allowed to teach under a permit, but under the law she could not do so following a regular examination, hence her retirement. Miss Huston is a fine teacher.

At a called meeting of the school board of district No. 39 a few days ago, Directors George B. Kidder, president; Barney Crowner, secretary and treasurer; Wilhelm and A. Hill being present, it was decided not to employ a teacher until about September, and have nine months school.

The regular meetings of the literary society every Friday evening, are very instructive and largely attended.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He is now sound and well." Everybody ought to know it's the only sure cure for coughs, colds and all lung diseases. Guaranteed by Tallman & Co., druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

Notice to Contractors.

Scaled proposals will be received at the office of T. F. Howard, architect, room 17 Judd building, up to ten o'clock, March 10th, 1904, for the erection and completion of a two-story frame cottage, with stone basement for William P. Sturgis, according to plans and specifications now on file in the office of the architect. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids for the work, February 25, 1904.

Happy, Healthy Children.
