The hern Pacific trains on Saturday yesterday brought a large num- and last evening the steamer ston brought several families. Saturday about 20 families who had come West over the Northern Pacific from Minnesota and the Dakotas went to Clearwater points. Some were destined to Peck, Orofino and Stites. The transportation companies report that the homeseeker travel this spring will surpass all past records and that the class who are now coming are informed regarding conditions here, which insures that practically all will locate.—Lewiston Tribune.

Work on River Obstructions.

That the work of improving the channel of the Columbia between The Dalles and the lower terminus of The Dalles-Celilo canal will be begun as soon as the contract is let, is assured. Last Saturday a party of government engineers under Mr. Schubert, arrived here and went to the location of the proposed work, where they will be engaged in making soundings and perfecting surveys. Mr. Schubert will prepare all details for the proposed work in advance, so that there will be no delay in commencing operations so soon as the contract is let. —Times-Mountaineer.

Postoffice at Thomas Ranch.

There is to be a new postoffice in this county on the Thomas ranch, a few miles below Austin station, on the Middle Fork. The name of the new dispensary of U. S. mails will be Boulder, coming down from the highest point of the Greenhorns. Dr. Greenlee, a former Sumpter dentist, will have charge of the office. —Grant County News.

Sumpter Insurance Rates Reduced.

The rates applying both inside and outside of the fire limits have been reduced from 5 to 25 per cent. Between the two the premiums now attached to policies (this rate dates from the first of the present month) will permit of the use of this monetary protection.—Sumpter Reporter.
