PERSONAL MENTION.

A. Z. Adams, of Milton, spent the day in the city on business.

Rev. W. L. Van Nuys, will return to his home in La Grande, this evening.

W. H. Boyd, one of Echo's prominent merchants, is a business visitor today.

Mrs. C. L. Roadruck, of Stokes, was the guest of friends in the city yesterday.

Douglas Belts, of Pilot Rock, was a Pendleton visitor today for a short time on business.

S. F. Moor, of Adams, visited friends and transacted business in the city yesterday.

Charles Bartholomew of Echo, is in the city today on business connected with the cannery.

LAST DAY FOR REBATE.

W. & C. R. Paid Up Promptly—O. R. & N. Has Not Yet Paid Its Taxes.

Today was the last day upon which the taxpayers could secure the three per cent rebate by paying their taxes and in spite of that fact, the office business was not what it has been for some days. The clerks in the sheriff's office were kept busy, but not rushed, as has been the case for several days past.

The W. & C. R. decided to take advantage of the rebate clause, and has therefore paid its taxes, amounting to approximately $6,000 for this county, thereby getting the rebate of $180 for prompt payment.

The O. R. & N. evidently is rich, for the rebate of about $1,400 which it could have saved by paying at this time has been disregarded. Its taxes in this county amount to about $47,000, which would bring the rebate to $1,410. It is thought that the company will pay half of its taxes in a short time, and the rest later in the year.

"MURRAY & MACK" WAS GOOD.

Walla Walla Union Commends the Comedy Company to Be at the Frazer Tonight.

The Walla Walla Union, speaking of the performance of the "Murray & Mack" Company, at that city last night, says:

"Murray & Mack" drew a good house last night in 'A Night on Broadway,' and the audience was not disappointed. The company arrived on the delayed O. R. & N. train, and the show was late in beginning, but from the start it was brisk, and there was no cause for complaint.

"The close of the first act, the confetti carnival, made a hit in its unusual scenic effect. The costumes were elegant, and the work throughout was of the best."

JUDGMENT AGAINST BANK.

Suit Was Brought by a Depositor to Recover.

A judgment was rendered yesterday in the first of the cases brought by the firm of Balleray & McCourt against the First National Bank. It was in the case of Susie Marine against the bank, who alleged that she had deposited $1,019 with the bank April 5, 1902, the repayment of which had been refused her by the bank when asked for.

The case came up for trial yesterday, and the defendant failed to appear, upon which the court entered a decree of default and ordered that the bank pay to the plaintiff the amount asked for, together with $15-20, the costs of the action. The judgment was satisfied this morning.

STOLEN PROPERTY FOUND.

August Kupers of Helix, Locates His Missing Tools Under William Aispach's Bed.

August Kupers of Helix, was in the city today, and said that the tools stolen from him some days ago, had been found under the bed of William Aispach, the man who was arrested in Helix Saturday, for shooting through a house belonging to H. B. Richmond.

The tools consisted of brace and bits, chisels and nippers. A rubber buggy robe was also taken, all of which have been recovered.

NEW FUEL DEALER.

L. W. McAdams Has Bought Out P. P. Collier, on Main.

L. W. McAdams, who recently came to this city from Texas, has bought the wood and coal business of P. P. Collier, on Main street, and will conduct it in the future. Mr. McAdams is an old hardware man, but wishing to remain in this city, and seeing no opening in his favorite line, he purchased the Collier wood yard and coal business.

SUIT TO RECOVER.

First National Bank is Again Made a Defendant.

Joseph Mack today filed a suit in the circuit court against the First National Bank of Pendleton. The plaintiff alleged that on Oct. 31, 1902, he deposited $1,000 with the bank, and which it was to loan for him, and that they failed to loan the money, or to return it to him on demand. Balleray & McCourt are attorneys for the plaintiff.

Delayed by Late Train.
Rev. J. W. Adams of Milton, is here for a short visit. Mr. Adams was scheduled to meet with the presbytery last night, being one of the members of that body, but was delayed by the late train and did not reach town until after the meeting had adjourned.

Mrs. Annie Liggett, a pioneer of Corvallis, died Monday, aged 65.

PRESBYTERY MEETING.

Two Releases Endorsed and a Trustee Appointed.

The meeting of the presbytery was held last night and a majority of the members were in attendance.

Rev. J. W. Adams was released from the pastorate of the church at Milton. Mr. Adams has been with the church for some time, but has decided to rest for a time, and therefore sought a release from the presbytery, which was granted. He has not as yet decided where he will locate.

The release of Rev. W. L. Van Nuys from the church at La Grande in order that he might accept the call of the Pendleton church was given, though the people at La Grande were very sorry to lose their pastor, and made every effort to change him from his decision to come to this city. Rev. S. C. Elder was selected to make the announcement of the release of Mr. Van Nuys at the La Grande church next Sunday.

The resignation of T. C. Taylor as a trustee of Pendleton academy was accepted, and Bert Huffman was elected to fill the vacancy.
The next meeting of the presbytery was set for the first part of April, in Baker City, the exact date not having as yet been determined upon.

Rev. Van Nuys in Town.

Rev. W. L. Van Nuys of La Grande, is the guest of friends here for a few days. Mr. Van Nuys has accepted the call to the church of this city, and is making arrangements to move here with his family. He will take charge of the Presbyterian church about the first of April.
