JUNIOR TEMPERANCE WORK.

Starts Out With Membership of One Hundred Fifty Six.

The Loyal Temperance legion, a department of the W. C. T. U. work, under the active supervision of Mrs. J. H. Gwinn, was organized temporarily last evening at the Congregational church, with a promised membership of 156.

One of the main features of the W. C. T. U. campaigns is the educating of the young and instilling into their minds the evils of imtemperance. The legion is one of the principal instruments in inculcating this doctrine, and the work of the organization in this city will be made of such attractiveness that very successful results are expected from its endeavors.

The next meeting of the legion will be held in the Congregational church Friday afternoon, March 25, at 3 o'clock, at which time the permanent organization of the legion will be effected, officers elected and plans made for the programs which will be given from time to time.

A senior class of 12 was organized last evening, out of the membership of the legion. This senior class will have a set of officers, which will act under the direction of Mrs. Gwinn, secretary of the general organization.

At the present time Mrs. Gwinn is conducting the work alone, and this large class of children makes it necessary that she have assistance, and volunteer teachers are desired to assist in the meetings. The senior class will meet on Wednesday and the junior on Friday evenings, after school, at the Congregational church.

MILNE WAS ACQUITTED.

Jury Did Not Believe He Stole Fred Anderson's Sweater.

All of the seats and all of the extra benches around the high school building were occupied last night by an interested audience which gathered at assembly hall to witness the conviction of Fred Milne, who was accused of the larceny of a red sweater from Fred Anderson.

With Judge Glenn Scott presiding, the court was called to order and the case stated by George Strand, attorney for the prosecution, who was assisted in his work by Will Wyrick and Fred Hartman.

The defense was conducted by Dell McCarty, Orville Reeves and Dave Hill. The trial was conducted in a very credible manner, showing that the participants had familiarized themselves with points of law involved.

After some deliberation the jury decided that the prosecution had not proven the items set for in the indictment, and returned a verdict in favor of the defendant.

IBSEN'S BIRTHDAY.

Famous Norwegian Novelist Is 76 Years Old.

Christiania, March 19.—Henrik Ibsen, the famous Norwegian novelist and dramatist, will be 76 years old tomorrow and as usual the anniversary will be made the occasion for public testimonials in his honor.

Though his mind is as brilliant and fertile as ever the great author has done comparatively little literary work during the last year or two, and it is probable that the world has received the last great work that will come from his pen. This is owing chiefly to his continued illness, which has made him an invalid for several years. Rheumatism has troubled him to such an extent that he has hardly been able to move about in his rooms, even with the aid of walking sticks. His chief pleasure is his daily drive through the principal thoroughfares of the city, a pleasure he never allows the state of the weather to interfere with.

HIGH CLASS DRUGGISTS AND — OTHERS.

The better class of druggists, everywhere, are men of scientific attainments and high integrity, who devote their lives to the welfare of their fellow men in supplying the best of remedies and purest medicinal agents of known value, in accordance with physicians' prescriptions and scientific formula. Druggists of the better class manufacture many excellent remedies, but always under original or officinal names and they never sell false brands, or imitation medicines. They are the men to deal with when in need of anything in their line, which usually includes all standard remedies and corresponding adjuncts of a first-class pharmacy and the finest and best of toilet articles and preparations and many useful accessories and remedial appliances. The earning of a fair living, with the satisfaction which arises from a knowledge of the benefits conferred upon their patrons and assistance to the medical profession, is usually their greatest reward for long years of study and many hours of daily toil. They all know that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative remedy and that it gives universal satisfaction, and therefore they are selling many millions of botties annually to the well informed purchasers of the choicest remedies, and they always take pleasure in handing out the genuine article bearing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package. They know that in cases of colds and headaches attended by biliousnees and constipation and of weakness or torpidity of the liver and bowels, arising from irregular habits, indigestion, or over-eating, that there is no other remedy so pleasant, prompt and beneficial in its effects as Syrup of Figs, and they are glad to sell it because it gives universal satisfaction.

Owing to the excellence of Syrup of Figs, the universal satisfaction which it gives and the immense demand for it, imitations have been made, tried and condemned, but there are individual druggists to be found, here and there, who do not maintain the dignity and principles of the profession and whose greed gets the better of their judgment, and who do not hesitate to recommend and try to sell the imitations in order to make a larger profit. Such preparations sometimes have the name—" Syrup of Figs"—or "Fig Syrup" and of some piratical concern, or fictitious fig syrup company, printed on the package, but they never have the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of the package. The imitations should be rejected because they are injurious to the system. In order to sell the imitations they find it necessary to resort to misrepresentation or deception, and whenever a dealer passes off on a customer a preparation under the name of "Syrup of Figs" or "Fig Syrup," which does not bear the full name of the California Fig Syrup Co. printed on the front of the package, he is attempting to deceive and mislead the patron who has been so unfortunate as to enter his establishment, whether it be large or small, for if the dealer resorts to misrepresentation and and deception in one case he will do so with other medicinal agents, and in the filling of physicians' prescriptions, and should be avoided by every one who values health and happiness. Knowing that the great majority of druggists are reliable, we supply the immense demand for our excellent remedy entirely through the druggists, of whom it may be purchased everywhere, in original packages only, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, but as exceptions exist it is necessary to inform the public of the facts, in order that all may decline or return any imitation which may be sold to them. If it does not bear the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, do not hesitate to return the article and to demand the return of your money, and in future go to one of the better class of druggists who will sell you what you wish and the best of everything in his line at reasonable prices.

Motherhood

MOTHERHOOD is the reward nature bestows upon healthy womanhood. Women whose vitality has been sapped by disease cannot safely give birth to children. In pregnancy and in childbirth weakness of the mother is revealed in the pain and agony she suffers.

This great medicine drives out every vestige of inflammation and weakness, and gives tone and strength to the delicate organs which mature the child. The pains of pregnancy are banished by Wine of Cardui, and miscarriages, which blast so many fond mother's hopes, are prevented. Flooding, which so often occurs after childbirth, is corrected when Wine of Cardui is used during pregnancy.

Wine of Cardui babies are healthy babies, because, during the months of pregnancy, the mother is able to give them necessary vitality and strength.

With these facts presented to American women no expectant mother should be satisfied without the re-inforcement that Wine of Cardui will give her. Every mother should be able to treat herself in her home with this valuable medicine.

Wine of Cardui can be secured from any druggist at $1.00 a bottle.

Polysarp, N. C., Jan. 11, 1902.

I am the mother of seven children and while in pregnancy with the first six suffered untold misery until they were born. One month before the seventh was born I began to take a bottle of Wine of Cardui, which gave me relief after taking three doses. I used the remainder of the bottle until the birth of the child, and was stouter in three days after the birth than I was in a month after the birth of either of the first six. I am 29 years old.
