TWELVE WILL GRADUATE.

A Fine Class Will Complete the High School Work.

The high school class has doubled in the past year, and then a little. Last year the class numbered five members, and this year just an even dozen young people leave the school on commencement day.

The work of the class for the past year has been a source of credit to the members and of gratification to the teachers and the patrons of the school, each member standing high in the literary work of the school, taking a lead in the athletic work, and at the same time standing high in their class records.

The members of the class are Dell McCarty, president; Chlois Stanfield, Bertha Alexander, Myrtle Disney, Will Wyrick, Ed Jay, Fred Hartman, Roy Alexander, Fred Vincent, Se Williams, Gertrude Sheridan and Neil Jay.

OLD-TIME REUBEN DANCE.

Terpsichorean Jubilation Conducted by the Eagles.

The local aerie of the Eagles will soon have one of the big dances of the season at Armory Hall. It will be an old-time Reuben dance, with an old-time Reuben dance, and old-time fiddlin' calico dances and blue jeans pants. It will not be a mask affair, and all will have their countenances open to the light of day. There will be more fun, more pretty girls and more good time than has been since the days when Hank Vaughn led the cotillion in the old hotel at Pilot Rock.

The date of the grand affair has been set for Monday, April 4, when everybody is rested up from the long Lenten season, and the riotous blood runs red.

Marriage Licenses.

A marriage license was issued this afternoon to George W. Kelly and Miss Bessie Settlemeir. The prospective groom is engaged in the butcher business at Umatilla, and the lady is well known in that city, being also a resident there.

Gone to Portland.

Dr. C. J. Smith left this morning for Portland, where he goes to attend the meeting of the state board of health and also the joint convention of the county and state health officers, who hold a meeting for mutual benefit.

Men's Good Clothes

If you want good clothes, come to a store where you will be sure to find them. We do not use the term good in a narrow sense; when we say good we do not mean simply STYLISH. We mean that the MATERIAL must be good; we mean that the WORKMANSHIP must be good. We mean that the suit ALLTOGETHER must be good. We wish you to understand that this is the Peoples Warehouse definition of the word GOOD when applied to men's clothing. Whether you want a business suit, or a dress suit, call and see us and we will be just as well able to fit you whether you be a big man, or a little man, a tall man, or a short man, a fat man or a lean man, a young man, a middle aged man or an old man. Come and tell us what you want; we will satisfy you. Prices range from $10.00 to $25.00. The celebrated makes of Hart, Schaffner & Marx and Alfred Benjamin & Co. These names stand for the highest art in clothing. The stock is now ready for your inspection.
